

...ndar there are nineteen out of thirty-be disposed of in another place. I have of what the practice in this quarter am acquainted with counties, where individuals have been incarcerated for r nine months, on such a charge as
, and this, where there was no evidence charge; so they are punished by a crime which, in all probability, they
d. These circumstances should become n, as the practice hitherto pursued is vious hardship to the persons charged, ne country, and in some degree, Genrnselves. Trial should follow detection ble, in order that guilt or innocence speedily established, and liberation or nmediately be the more quickly men first I looked at the calendar
e impression that the months of June ot included, such little notice has been cular I alluded to, and I also find perl since February, who should have e April Sessions. I trust that Judges ons will not have to comment on such nd, had a proper course been now d have to congratulate you on having es for trial, which would be to me as , a source of unmingled satisfaction,
o the inhabitants of the county Clare.
lemen, that the fiscal business is all I shall be now happy to take the then proceeded to examine the pre-without entering into other matter,

Court at half-past six o'clock to nine (Saturday), when the consideration of ss was resumed. All traversers were ature day,
RECORD COURT.
Greene took his seat on the Bench e o'clock, and was occupied during the day in hearing Civil Bill Appeals.
r expressing his intention of resuming on next morning at nine, adjourned en o'clock.

Nantenant on yesterday, there were lve Temperance tents, and three be-cans. Only one drunken person was uring the day.
dge, which sailed from Cork on the er last, with Government emigrants ales, arrived out in 94 days. The all landed in good health—only two the voyage, and one born.
as taken the Strand Theatre, London.
—We shall reserve to ourselves the ree Press, and exercise that right, we see fit, notwithstanding the ex-k of the Packet, most impertinent as ous, and quite unmerited by any rs. In noticing a matter which is as in the country, to be a grievance, much public inconvenience, there anguage, no "malignant insolence" intention; for we had no partiality ejudice to gratify; and while we of the departed, equally as we do hesitation in reiterating the convic-n should continue to hold public infirmity of physical or mental e to fulfil its duties efficiently and to himself, and the community for cts. This was the "head and front" Yet for the simple assertion of a eiple, we incur the virulent censure e it so.

At Leamington Priors, the Rev. Richard Kempthorne, Colonial Chaplain of St. Helena, to Sophia Mary, daughter of the late General Ainslie, Governor of Dominica.
At Farnham, Surrey, Peter Bairnsfather, Esq. to Sarah Every, daughter of the late Major William Miller, late of the Royal Horse Guards (Blue,) grand-daughter of Sir Edward Every, and niece of the late Countess of Mar.
At Madras, James Supple, Esq. of the Madras Medical Establishment, to Maria Hosannah, daughter of the late Lieut. D. F.
Chambers, of the 89th Foot.

DEATHS.

At Calaba, Bombay, on the 26th May, Lieut. James Willington Kyffin, of her Majesty's 17th Foot, youngest son of the late Jonathan Kyffin, Esq. of Tipperary.
On Sunday night, at his house, Mallow-street, Lucy, the infant daughter of Wyndham Magrath Fitzgerald, Esq.
Robert Croker, Esq. of Ballyboy, Tipperary.
At Lakeview, county Clare, aged 81, the Rev. Jeremiah Tuohy,
P.P. of Clonlea, and Killuran, relative to the late Right Rev.
Charles Tuohy, of this diocese.
Monday morning, at Kilbany, near Cork, William, eldest son of John O. H. Kelly, Esq. of Killulla Cottage, county Clare; a very interesting boy.
Suddenly, Mr. Thomas Hayes, Cornwallis-street, carpenter.
In this City, Eliza, the beloved wife of Serjeant Montford, 97th Regt.
At St. Omers, Celia, daughter of the late Pierce Blake, Esq. of Holly Park, county Galway.
At Clonakilty, Ellen, the beloved wife of the Rev. Thomas Toye.
John, son of the late John Cahill, Esq.
At Calcutta, Henry Hoare, son of the late Edward Hoare, of Factory Hill, Captain North Cork Militia.
In Framore, Richard Fogarty, Esq.
At Clonakilty, Helen, wife of John Warren, Esq.
At Sligo, Elizabeth, wife of Richard Clifford, Esq.
Saturday, in Denmark-street, very deservedly regretted by his many friends and acquaintances, Mr. Sylvester Hands.
At Rock Lodge, near Trim, Major James Wolfe, of the Kildare Militia, and brother of the late Rev. Charles Wolfe.
At Foster-place, in the 77th year of his age, Thomas Bradburne, Esq. deputy cashier of the Bank of Ireland. He was 50 years attached to the Bank.
Mary Anne, only daughter of Mr. Kearney, proprietor of the Queen's Arms, Royal Hibernian Hotel, Dawson-street.
Jane, relict of the late Denis Doyle, Esq. of Dublin.
In D'Olier-street, Mr. Edward Cullen, aged 70 years, thirty years salesman to the Messrs. Kinahan & Co.
At Clonea Castle, Tipperary, the residence of her uncle, the late George O'Flinn, Esq. Mrs. Dowling.
In Grenville-street, Mountjoy-square, Mrs. Catherine Burke.
At Moy, aged 74, Sarah, relict of the late Thomas Harpur, Esq.
Suddenly, at Brussels, Jerome G. Barnewell, Esq. in the 96th year of his age, brother to the late Captain Christopher Barnewell, of Lanesborough, county Longford.
At Kingstown, Frances Margaret, only surviving child of the late Joseph Mayne Cooke, Esq. M.D.
In Brompton-square, Dorothy, relict of John Larking, Esq. of Clare-house, Kent.
At Norfolk Island, drowned by the upsetting of a boat, the Hon.
John Charles Best, Captain of the 50th Regiment, and youngest son of Lord Wynford.
At Bury St. Edmund's, aged 81 years, Lieut.-Col. Robert Hugh M'Leroth, formerly of the Rifle corps, and Brigadier-General in Portugal.
At Camberwell, Alexander John Cranstoun, son of the late Capt.
Wright, R.N.
In Manchester-street, after a lengthened illness, James Prescott Warde, Esq. of the Theatre Royal, Covent-garden.
In Belgrave-square, Evelyn Thomas, youngest son of Richard Sanderson, Esq. M.P.
At Leith, Charles Edward Crawford, only son of Major Lindsay, 78th Highlanders.
J. Holt, Esq. of Rough Clough, Higher Booths, Rawfenstall, near Haslingden. The deceased was a bachelor, and of very careful habits, so much so that he would scarcely allow himself the common necessaries of life. It is said that he commenced the world with £1,000, and died worth £250,000.
At Clifton, John Brickdale, Esq. in the 81st year of his age.
At Kilmarnock, suddenly, Mr. William Wallace, jun. only son of William Wallace, Esq. of Hawket Park.
At Peckham, Surrey, Captain William Hamilton, of the Hon.
East India Company's late Maritime Service.
In Paris, the daughter of Sir Francis Smith, M.D.
At Great Malvern, aged 58, the Bishop of St. David's.
At Greenock, Capt. George Clarke, Royal Ayrshire Militia,
At Oporto, James Forrester, Esq. of that city.
At Loochoo Ghaut, in Nepaul, Charlotte, wife of Major Stuart Corbett, commanding the Komaoon Regiment.
At Fort William, Mary, wife of Lieut. Peter Crauford, 21st Fusiliers.
At Boulogne-sur-Mer, Josephine Eugenie, wife of Captain G.B.
Sutherland, Paymaster of the 56th Regiment.
At Trichinopoly, Lieut. W. B. Goodrich, 57th Regt.
At Camp, near Deesa, Frederica Maria Elizabeth, daughter of Captain Lloyd, 2d Queen's Royal Regt.
At Kamptee, E. I. on the 24th April, Mrs. Wakefield, wife of Lieut.-Col. Wakefield, 39th Regt. in the 24th year of her age.
Capt. Thomas Maclean, Assistant Adjutant-General Hyderabad
Subsidiary Force.

A SPLENDID STOCK OF WINE
ON SALE AT
BODKIN'S, William-s-COMPRISING:—
Chateau Margaux Claret,
St. Julian, ditto,
Sparkling Champagne,
Old Mellow Sherries,
Madeira,
White Port, a rare and favourite Wine,
Years in Bottle, Old Crusted Port, of the Brand of Offley, Forrester & Co. and Messrs & Co.
L. P. Teneriffe,
Marsala, an excellent Summer Wine,
Lisbon and Cape.
A few Hogsheads of First Class SHERRIES landed ex Sarah from Cadiz. These Wines the same Shippers as the Wines of last Season gave such general satisfaction.
Gentlemen wishing to be supplied with re-Wines in the Wood, have an opportunity of them from a very considerable Stock in the Warehouse.

THE COMMITTEE of the POOR RELIEF
beg to call the attention of the City Limerick, and those connected with it by pro-but more especially that portion of them who not yet sent in their contributions—to the Notice ing the price of Oatmeal, which they have obliged to issue, in consequence of the Fund to them, being quite inadequate to meet the upon it.
The Committee had hoped, from the promrality which was evinced at the commence-their labours, that ample means would have be-plied by the Wealthy and Charitable, to enable to continue to dispense Relief to the Dis-up to the period when the NEW POT would appear at Market in quantity; but they to say, that the amount of Subscriptions, up time, has fallen far short of the sum they cal-on, and which will be absolutely necessary to them to attain the foregoing desirable object.
By order of the Committee,
F. J. O'NEILL,
JAMES HARVEY, } Honorary Secy
July 11.

SHANNON COMMISSIONERS TO CONTRACTORS, CARPENTERS, P
DRIVERS, &c. &c.
THE SHANNON COMMISSIONERS will TENDERS for the CONSTRUCTION of TIMBER JETTY
about 120 feet long, to be supported upon piles
west side of the river Shannon,
AT ATHLONE.
Plans and specification may be seen, and the site information given, upon application at the of the Commissioners in Dublin, or at the office resident Engineer in Athlone.
The work to be performed to the satisfac-
Thomas Rhodes, Esq. C. E. the Commissioners' pal Engineer.
Sealed tenders to be delivered on or before 16th instant at noon, and addressed under cov-the Secretary, after which time no tender will received.
By order,
EDWARD HORNSBY, Secrety
Shannon Commission Office,
Custom House, Dublin
10th July 1840.