

Same day, Sir Henry Hartstonge, Bart. and Lady, arrived at their House at Newtownry, from Dublin.—Her Ladyship some time ce went to Bath for the recovery of health, which we are happy to add, is now perfectly inflated.

TO THE POST!

Bets run high in favor of Xenophon, for next Monday: the astonishing form in which this horse won two Plates at Kilkenny last week has prejudiced all the Amateurs of the Turf in his favor:—Mr. Daly's Hero, which won the three years old Plate at Loughrea last Year, meets him fresh:—Mr. Bell's Tinker; Mr. Mang's Coolun; and Mr. Mannix's Turnip, other to Lord Grosvenor's Turnip-top, are so to be competitors. Tho' many more are expected for that Plate, the superior excellence of the five already entered, cannot fail of affording as good a day's sport as any known in the Annals of Racing.—Nineteen of the different ages, exclusive of the above Horses, are to be heard, arrived; but a correct list could not be procured when this Paper went to Press.

DIED. Last Thursday, at her lodgings on George's-quay, Mrs. Harveft, wife of the Rev. Harveft, of Southampton.
