

W. B. Meikleham.
SOCIETY OF FRIENDS (Cecil Street)—Sunday,
July 17th—Morning, 11 a.m.

CO. LIMERICK LAWN TENNIS AND CRICKET CLUB.

Tuesday next, Club Day, tea will be given by Mrs. Twigg.

THE CITY ELECTRIC LIGHT SUPPLY.

The expert appointed by the Corporation, Mr. Aubrey V. Clayton, M.I.E.E., London, Consulting Electrical Engineer, to investigate the question of the city electric light supply and the internal management of the works and plant, was due to arrive in Limerick to-day. He will meet the Committee before proceeding with his inquiry.

ATHLETICS AT NEW BARRACKS.

The 1st Battalion of the Royal Highlanders (Black Watch), held their annual sports at the New Barracks this evening. The weather was fine, and the attendance reached considerable proportions. The programme was made up of over a dozen events, and the sprinting was on the whole good. During the afternoon the band of the regiment attended, and played a pleasing selection of music.

CITY POLICE COURT.

Mr. E. F. Hickson, R.M., presided at the City Police Court this morning, and at the instance of Constable Crowley imposed a fine of 5s., with the alternative of seven days, on Patrick Allen for being drunk and riotous last night. Jane McMahon was ordered to pay a fine of 40s, or go to gaol for a month for drunkenness.

LIMERICK REGATTA.

In addition to the clubs already published as intending to compete at Limerick Regatta on Friday next, the Executive to-day received entries from the Dublin University crews, senior eights, fours, and pairs. Bann has also wired stating they are sending senior crews. A capital day's sport may therefore be looked forward to.

We learn that the Monster Drapery houses and the Banks will close at one o'clock on Friday.

NEWCASTLE WEST CENTENARIAN'S DEATH.

The death occurred during the week of Mr. Patrick Mauné, Dromindeel, Newcastle West, who, it is stated, was over a hundred years of age. The deceased, who was hale and hearty to the end, belonged to a most respectable stock, and the immense funeral cortege that conveyed his remains to the burial place showed the respect and esteem in which he was held.

cent. Under the agreement the tenant's future rent will be £122 10s. or a reduction of £78 2s.

The bands and contingents subsequently returned home, everything passing off peaceably. It appears that Captain Tuthill acted most considerately in the matter, abating his original demand by about £700.

THE AUTOMOBILE ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the Co. Limerick Roads Improvement Committee in connexion with the Automobile Association of Great Britain and Ireland was held this afternoon at Cruise's Royal Hotel. The attendance was not large, owing to several members being away on their holidays.

The Mayor presided. The other members present included—Sir Alexander Shaw, Mr. John B. Barrington, J.P., Mr. F. J. Cleeve, D.L., Mr. J. Ellis Goodbody, Mr. A. Blood-Smyth, solicitor, Mr. A. E. Bannatyne, Dr. Cleary, Kilmallock; Mr. George Harris, do.; Mr. T. A. Walshe, do.

Mr. A. D. Allen, Irish manager, attended and explained the steps taken by the Association to improve the roads, after committees had been formed in the different counties. Meetings had already been held in twelve centres, and the roads question improvement would come naturally to be the subject of discussion at the present meeting. The committees would be autonomous, he explained, and would pay the cost of postage, erection of signs and sign-posts.

A general conversation followed, and it was stated that several members were unavoidably absent to-day, owing to the holidays and other causes.

It was agreed that Mr. Blood-Smith should communicate with the members of the Association in the county and city, and arrange for a delegation to the County Council and the Corporation, with a view to co-operation in a movement which, it was pointed out, would benefit all classes in the country for obvious reasons.

Adjourned.

DEATH OF MR. RICHARD BOURKE.

The death occurred on yesterday, at his residence, Dromlara, Pallasgrean, of Mr. Richard Bourke, at the patriarchal age of 93 years. Mr. Bourke will be remembered by many of the older generation as a most courteous and able official in the office of the Co. Surveyor of Limerick, where no less than 54 years of his life were spent. He retired several years ago on pension. In public and private life Mr. Bourke enjoyed the esteem and regard of a wide circle of friends, and though he had long passed the allotted span, his passing away will be much regretted by all who knew him. Funeral on Saturday at 12.30 from Pallasgrean for Mount St. Lawrence, Limerick.

BATTLESHIP IN COLLISION

A collision occurred at two o'clock yesterday morning between H.M.S. Britannia and the Loch Trool. No lives were lost, but the Loch Trool was considerably damaged. She is being towed to Queenstown.

The Loch Trool is owned at Cardiff, and was bound from Para to the United Kingdom.

a great deal of emotional proceeding on the whole, because her people, the earnest desire of means the work spiritual work, went on in their Ireland would be regeneration of the world why they have high hopes (Hear, hear). I she stood now was greater submission authority; of a part of her was ever the thought that if they compared the act could hardly men were not only fully sustained in That being so, he intended by their remain, and that influence to their was sometimes signs. It was a that they could Christ in the Syn He was with their assemblages of them Let them ever fulfil in that Syn only with the same he would say, the thing that took their laws, took all of whom were to see that the E memory. He would said there that of God they v clergymen com (hear, hear). thoroughly safe in the confidence with the laity had not been infringed he thought an example. long life, and the the Church of I could find in the Christians more He prayed God to be so, and he the a clergy educated of Holy Scripture were brought Scripture they were blessing. These means of maintenance would find in the that the services earnestness and controversies in arose they very that to the fact teaching, and the expounding and went on to frequent parish