

of March, 1812.
a defensive Alliance between Prussia and his Majesty the King of Italy, their heirs and powers of Europe with which Parties has or shall enter into contracting Powers reciprocally the integrity of their present present alliance being brought when such case shall happen, will fix upon the measures need-ular conventions.

at England shall make any at-of commerce, either by declarle the coasts of one or other of or any other disposition contrais consecrated by the treaty of nd coasts of the said powers, ted to ships of neutral nations nce of their flag to be molested, reaty shall be ratified, and the at Berlin, within the space of ossible.—Done and signed at ry, 1812.

The Duke of BASSANO.
The Baron KRUSEMARK.

WITH AUSTRIA.
he 14th March, between their r and King, and the Emperor perpetual amity, and sincere ween his Majesty the Emperor his Majesty the Emperor of ence the high contracting par-est care to maintain the good stablished between them, their bjects, to avoid all that could on every occasion their mutual ntage.

tracting parties reciprocally of their present territories. his reciprocal guarantee, the rties will always labour in conthat shall appear the most pro-e of peace; and in case the ill be threatened with invasion, r most efficacious offers to ers may not have the desired selves to mutual assistance in e attacked or menaced.

ated by the preceding articles, 000 men (24,000 infantry and y kept up to the War Establish-60 pieces of cannon. be furnished at the first requi-acked or menaced. It shall elay, and at the latest before after the demand shall have tracting parties guarantee the ry of the Ottoman Porte in gnise and guarantee the princi-of neutrals, such as they have consecrated by the treaty of e emperor of Austria renews, engagement to adhere to the at England, during the present of alliance shall not be ren-unicated to any cabinet but in high parties. It shall be rans exchanged at Vienna in a ossible.

se of BASSANO.
ARLES of Schwarzenburg, March 14, 1812.

Duke of Bassano, founded on ubmitted to the Senate, which the speech of the Arch-Chan-different aggressions alleged kase of the 19th Dec. 1810, mercial relations with Russia; commerce into her ports: her he commencement of 1811, of the Duchy of Warsaw; cing Oldenburgh, annihilated er existed when on both sides r reciprocal observation.”— ppears at the head of the list conformed to the treaty of France by which she was enary force of 150,000 men. compact is charged upon her Senate, on the 3d instant, with regard to Prussia, and the treaties which Austria and Prussia, were referred to a select committee of five, with directions to report thereon next day.

Action between the French and Russians.

Letters were received to day from the French coast, to the 9th instant; they state, that a report had reached there, that a general action had taken place between the French and Russians, that the latter had been defeated with the loss of 25 or 30,000 men. We can vouch for such a letter having been received from the French coast, and that it was corroborated by another from Paris of the 6th, but we cannot venture to speak to the accuracy of their contents. The accounts from Bordeaux, by way of Paris, state, that the crops of the present season promised a short time ago an abundant harvest, but that lately unfavourable weather had intervened, and the prospect was greatly lessened.

An Algerine squadron, consisting of two frigates, two sloops, and two brigs, has for some time been cruizing in the Mediterranean. On the 17th April, the Haughty gun brig, Lieut. Harvey, proceeding with a convoy for Malta, fell in with it, when the Algerine commodore, after examining the ships, ordered the detention of a Greek vessel laden with corn. On this order being notified to Lieut. Harvey, he immediately went on board the Algerine, accompanied by his surgeon, as interpreter, to remonstrate against this unfriendly act, and to require the liberation of the vessel.
Instead, however, of his request being complied with, he received the most gross and abusive language: his own ship was threatened to be seized; and on refusing to deliver up some papers belonging to the Greek vessel, he was knocked down, repeatedly kicked, and his pockets rifled. He was instantly obliged to depart, without obtaining the release of the vessel, and proceeded to Cagliari. A representation of the affair has been made to Sir Edward Pellew.

Lisbon, June 21.

General Graham commands the 1st, 6th, and 7th divisions on the right; General Picton the 8d, and a considerable Portuguese force, the centre; General Leitch the 4th, 5th, and light divisions, forming the left. The cavalry consists of six regiments, brought up by Sir Stapleton Cotton, the two heavy Germans under Gen.
Bock, and the 1st Hussars, and 11th dragoons—in all ten regiments.

The enemy are recollecting in Seville and Cordova, and, no doubt, will advance on General Hill, posted at Albuera with 19,000 men. It is not considered as improbable, that another battle may be fought on that ground, already immortalized by British valor, equally sanguinary as the former one.

The French, previous to abounding Salamanca, with more than Vandal barbarism, destroyed nearly the whole of the fine colleges, and every thing else that was valuable.

THE GENERAL ADVERTISER.

LIMERICK—FRIDAY, JULY 17, 1812.

London journals to the 11th inst. inclusive have been received, from which we have selected every article of interest they contain.

The documents laid before the American Congress, we have detailed at length—they are of considerable interest.

The discussion in the house of commons, (which we have detailed in our preceding columns), on the introduction of Lord Castlereagh's bill, for the prevention of the disturbances, which have so long disgraced the sister Island, we particularly recommend to the perusal of our readers.

We are credibly informed that Mr. Jones, of the Theatre Royal, Dublin, is to open our Theatre on Monday next; and that a select company are now on their route for this city. We are happy to add, that in addition to the above company, we have to announce the name of the celebrated Irish Johnson—we would wish to say something on the merits of this patriotic gentleman, but we know too well his general popularity, and how capable a Limerick audience are of appreciating merit.

The catholics of the county Tipperary, meet on Thursday next—and the catholics of the county Kerry, on Saturday the 1st of August.

Mr. Fitzpatrick has commenced an action against Mr. Wm. Saurin, the Attorney General, for defamation.
A Writ of Capias was sued out, and served personally upon Mr Saurin, on Friday last—the damages laid are 1000l. Mr. Henry Parnell, we understand, intends to move in the House of Commons for a copy of that notice, which the Attorney General has sent to Mr. Fitzpatrick, the Bookseller, as the ground of parliamentary enquiry on the proceedings.

only promised to attend the Sermon to be preached on Sunday next, in aid of that truly useful Institution, but have most humanely offered to act as Collectors.— Lord and Lady Gleutworth, with their accustomed liberality, have also promised their patronage and support—Lord Massy, the Hon. Mr Fitz-Gibbon, the Mayor, General Darby, and others of the first respectability, will co-operate with these distinguished characters in the collection.

BIRTH,

On Friday last, in Upper William-street, the lady of Brudenell Plummer, Esq. of a son.

At Spa-well, near Wexford, the lady of the Rev. Wm.
Hughes, of a daughter.

MARRIED,

This morning, by the Rev. John Croker, at Adare church, Cornwall Smally, of Henly, Southampton, Esq., to Miss Wallace, daughter to the late Robert Wallace, of this city, Esq.

Yesterday morning, Joshua Fennell, of Cahir Abbey-ville, county Tipperary, Esq. to Jane, daughter of the late Thomas Mark, Esq. of this city, both of the Society of Friends.

On Saturday last, at Brade church, county Cork, the Rev. James Hingston, Prebendary of Coolineg, in the Diocese of Cloyne, to Lucinda, daughter of Richard Becher, of Hollybrook, county Cork, Esq.

Same day, W. P. Cruise, Esq. eldest son of Richard Cruise, of Rahodnithe, county Meath, Esq. to Helen, youngest daughter of the late Sir John Meridyth, Bart. of Newtown, in said county.

At Lisbon, Earl Euston, eldest son of the Duke of Grafton, to Mary, the youngest daughter of Admiral Berkeley, and niece to the Duke of Richmond.

On the 5th inst. Edward Lloyd, Esq. son of Richard Lloyd, of Ballincolley, county Cork, Esq. to Alicia Louisa, second daughter of Edward Connelly, late of Mooretown, county Meath, Esq.

On Thursday last, at her father's seat in Bedfordshire, the Hon. Capt. Waldegrave, of the Royal Navy, to Miss Whitbread.

DIED,

This morning, in Clare-street, very much lamented by her affectionate offspring and friends, Mrs. White, wife to Jasper White, Esq. of this city.

On the 5th inst. at Moydow, county Longford, in the 83d year of her age, Mrs. Beatty, relict of Archdeacon Beatty; she was a good wife, a kind mother, and a sincere and affectionate friend.

On Tuesday last, in Fermoy, Mrs. Gleeson, relict of William Gleeson, Esq. of that town. In her were united such endearing qualities as rendered her society inestimable to her friends and acquaintance.

Friday last, at Hybla, Castleknock, of which parish he had been Vicar for upwards of 40 years the Rev.
Dr. O'Connor, formerly a Fellow of Trinity College Dublin.

At Ballaghmare, Queen's county, after a few days illness, Mrs. Sarah Ely; a woman whose conduct thro' life endeared her to her family and friends, to whom her loss is irreparable.

At Cashel, Mrs. Jordan, wife of Richard Jordan, Esq.
Under Sheriff of the county Tipperary.

On Tuesday se'nnight, at Rosenau, in Eutchet, Lieut.
General Charles, Baron Hompesch.

Saturday last, the Rev. James O'Halloran, P. P. of Feakle, county Clare.

In Tipperary, Thomas Chadwick, Esq. many years an Officer in the 18th Dragoons.

Wednesday se'nnight, at Rathkeale, in the prime of life, Mrs. Cregan, wife of Mr. Andrew Cregan.

At Knock Griffin, near Middleton, aged 60 years, Judith, wife of John Sherlock, Esq.

At his house in Pimlico, George Rawlinson, Esq.
Master-cook to his Majesty, who had acted faithfully in the Royal service for near half a century.

Tuesday last, in George's-street, Cork, Mr. Thomas M'Carthy, vintner.

LIMERICK PORT NEWS.

ARRIVED—Blossom, from Glasgow, coals.
Britannia, from Lisbon ballast.
Dart, from Cardiff, coals.
Providence, from Chester, coals and fire brick.
James and Elizabeth, from Liverpool, sundries.
Eliza, from Liverpool, rock salt.
Mary, from Exeter, oak bark.
EXPORTS.—Hero, for Dumbarton, 1358 brls oats, 68 cwt. butter, Thomas Hart.
Jane, for Greenock, 49 tons oatmeal, John Worrall; 30 tons oatmeal, 320 brls oats, 28 cwt butter, David Stevenson; 30 casks 102 firkins butter, J and W. Hill; 37 cwt butter, Robert Rodger; 23 brls beef, 36 cwt butter, J. N. Russell; 37 cwt butter, 288 bundles calf skins, Harvey and Fisher.
Ellen, for Liverpool, 124 brls wheat, 160 brls oats, J. and S. Phelps; 230 cwt flour, M. P. Rochford; 260 cwt. flax, Robt. Ferguson; 20 tierces beef, R. and T.
Westropp.