

N. Commander,
UST.

home, and will ere, in order to messengers on the
own capabilities
portant for pas-vantages which of the year. The n board, will be ndance.

ers.
SONS,
July, 1854.

Gribbon's
PER SET,

STREET.

Bill makes the ng the upper
on the window
or sitting on
ar. which have
o have happened
Edinburgh, and

GS remove the
to the windows
relieve the com-
ed by such exhi-
They enable the d cleaned with-

ARCHITECT
June 28.

Captain Sir George Hampson, Bart. Scots Greys, to Ann daughter of Thomas H. England, Esq. of Warwick.

DEATHS.

This morning, at his residence in Cecil-street, at an advanced age. Standish Stephenson, Esq. deeply regretted by his family and friends.

At Enniscouch, in this county, much lamented, the beloved wife of John Hewson, Esq. and sister of Lt.-Col. Stack.

At Kilmish, on the 14th inst. Miss Bidelia Kelly.

At Priorsland, county Dublin, Henry Kearney, fifth son of Rev. Lyndon Henry Bolton, rector of St. Luke's, Dublin, aged 19 years.

At Bray, Charlotte, relict of Wm. Maxwell Eason, Barrister-at-law.

Mrs. Mulcahy, mother of Thomas Mulcahy, Esq. of Burgess-land and Ballyglass, and of Wm. Mulcahy, Esq. of Clecully, Tipperary.

At Sunday's Well, Eugene Finnerty, aged 84.

At Kenmare, Frances Isabella Stewart King, daughter of the Rev. Walter Stewart, formerly rector of Kenmare, and wife of Serjeant Major King.

At Rathaldron castle, county Meath, Fleming Pinkston
O'Reilly, Esq. deeply regretted, aged 75.

At Coolhallintegart, county Wicklow, John Tate, Esq. J.P.

At Ahoghill, of cholera, James M'Dowell, Esq. M.D. aged 40.

At Mount Pottinger, Thomas, son of the Rev. Charles Seaver

At the Convent of Mercy, Sligo, the Rev. Superioress, Miss MacDonnell.

At Richmond-place, North, Margaret Catherine, relict of the late James Mayne, Esq.

Drowned when bathing, aged 15, Thomas, eldest son of the late Peter Rutledge, of Ballyhowly, county Mayo, and grandson of Mrs. Rutledge, of Blackrock, co. Dublin.

In Wexford, Christopher Taylor, Esq. of the late Wexford Herald.

At Little Strawberry-hill Harriot Lydia, daughter of the late Hon. and Rev. Edward John Turnour, and grand daughter of Edward Garth, Earl Winterton.

At Clapham-rise, Frederick Clifford Cherry, Esq.

At Merrion-square, South, Rose Jane, daughter of John Pennefather, Esq.

At the Eims, Tooting, Surrey, Charles Grote, Esq. Threadneedle-street.

Shortly after her return from Madras, Ada Louisa, daughter of Capt. Campbell, 94th Regt. and grand-daughter of General Charles Stuart Campbell, C. B.

At Avondale, Major Menzies, late 42d Highlanders, aged 80.
Jemima and Dorcas, daughters of R. D. Grady, Esq. Stil-lorgan Castle.

At Roscommon, John B. Beeche, Esq.

Es
they disting
Every
comp
HE and land-
G.
Editio
and
and A Globe
GR
—Lat
II. Sy
MA
metio-
RE
—Litu
logy
NA
sophy.
—Hvo
FIN Paintin
NA
Natura
malia-
—Moll
LIT
British
MIS
Knowl
English
cial Du Sets,
had, fo
Lo