

explained to Baron
w Lunatic Asylum
filled up with loose
County and City Grand Juries at
by the Act, £300 a 7, with £50 for an gentleman is son of
ay, Dublin.
d Mr. John Eagar, or the barony of
ed.
Hamilton Haire,
ges and 6d. costs
for striking him
ham, found guilty
ard Dawson, near Chief Justice, to be egan for the same Doherty and Chief honour of the 27th
Infantry.
al Company, a case
rse, tried at Athy
00 damages for the Taafe, was decided Plaintiff £103.
on on Monday for cence at the place
of a man named Kildare assizes, fled
County Galway gaol
ol.
action of crim. con.
s, there was a ver-er for seducing a imously appointed
Board of Aldermen,
igned.
nis, for the purpose
Office, Lieutenant
Brunswick-street, off
e quays.
ounty Donegal has olonel Conolly, the htened advocacy of ging themselves to
v. Tyler, a bill filed tain bond, the Vice that the defendant
nd, and securing

At the Cathedral, Calcutta, Capt. Cubitt, 18th N.I. to Miss Harcourt.
At St. George's church, Madras, Lieut. E. Roberts, of the 49th Regiment, N.I. to Jane, daughter of Captain Prendergast.

DEATHS.

At Ballycasey, co. Clare, after a lingering illness, John Canny, Esq. a Gentleman greatly beloved and respected by his numerous friends.
Yesterday, in Ennis, suddenly, while on his way to Lahinch, for sea-bathing, the Rev. Edmond Lee, P.P. of Effin, in this County,—a Clergyman whose premature death is the source of great affliction to his numerous friends.
At Bruff, in a very advanced age, Mr. John M. Orth, formerly of the German Legion,—a respectable and intelligent inhabitant of that town.
At the Royal Barracks, Dublin, Frederick Bousfield Carmickael, of the 35th Regiment, eldest son of Frederick J. Carmickael, Esq. Twickenham, Middlesex.
At Caltra, county Leitrim, Thomas Kirkwood, Esq.
Mr. William Hanbury, High Constable of Galway.
At Castletown, Timothy O'Sullivan, Esq. eldest son of Roger O'Sullivan, Esq. Garnish, Berehaven.
In the 25th year of his age, at his father's residence, William Scott, A.B. T.C.D. third son of Thomas Scott, Esq. of Rathfriland,
At the Crescent, Clontarf, Isabella, third daughter of the late Henry M'Dougall, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, K.C. aged 19 years.
At his house on the Grand Parade, Cork, Mr. James Connell.
In Strabane, Miss King, aged 70 years.
In Inchany, near Strabane, Mr. J. Sheals.
At Strabane, Mrs. Margaret Wauchob, aged 50.
Suddenly, at Bundoran, after bathing, Miss Greham, of Five-miletown.
John, the eldest son, and Usher, the second son, of Usher Clarke, of Carrick-on-Suir, Esq.
Mr. Patrick Coffey, of Upper Dominick-street, Dublin.
In Merrion-square, Dublin, Eleanor, daughter of Thomas Orde Lees, Esq. aged 21 years.
In Abbey-street, Dublin, Mr. George M'Donnell, a respectable brass founder.
In the 69th year of his age, Joshua Jonathan Smith, Esq. of Richmond, many years Alderman of London, Lieut.-Colonel of the London Militia, and for many years Magistrate at the Town Hall, South.
In Eaton-place, London, General Christopher Chowne, Colonel of the 76th Regiment of Foot.
In London, a few days after his arrival from France, Lieut.-Colonel Edward Gregory, late of the 44th, younger and only brother of the late Francis Gregory, Esq. of Blackhall-street, Dublin, and uncle of Doctor Tighe Gregory.
George Potter, Esq. of the Audit-office, Somerset-house, London.
At the Mount House, Stockwell, Rosa Mary, second daughter of the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor of London, aged 24.
At Winchester, Mary, wife of the Rev. W. Vaux, Prebendary of Winchester.
At the Mahableshwar Hills, Anthony John, eldest son of Colonel Christopher Hodgson, Bombay Artillery.
At Liverpool, Catherine, eldest daughter of T. J. Atkinson, Esq. of Cavan-Garden, Donegal.
In her 16th year, Anne Katherine, eldest daughter of John Burke, Esq. of St. Michael's-grove, Brompton.
Mrs. Taylor, a well-known comic actress on the Liverpool stage, aged 74.
At Masulipatam, G. C. Bower, eldest son of Captain G. J. Bower, his Majesty's 62d Regiment.
In camp at Secrole, near Benares, Colonel Lionel Hook, commanding his Majesty's 16th Regiment.
At Vizianagram, East Indies, Captain George de Blaquiere, 8th Regiment Madras Infantry, aged twenty seven years, second son of the Hon. P. B. de Blaquiere, of Southampton, and grandson of John, first Baron de Blaquiere.
In Cambridge-terrace, the Hon. Mary Roper, relict of the Hon. Francis Roper, of Linstead-Lodge, county Kent, and mother to the present Lord Teynham. This venerable Lady had attained her hundredth year.
[The death of Sir John Godfrey, Bart. which has appeared in the Papers, and in a few of our last impression, we are authorised to contradict as untrue.]

without the least Saloon, 48, Upper importers.) To b
only four days pri
—price one shillin
application to Mr
Mr. ABRAHAM, S
The whole
to the Commerci
viewing this Uniq
novel and interest
those magnificent

EN

FIRST DAY
S WEEPSTAKE added by the name on Thursday
—weights to be fi
those they may Meeting—two mil

Clare Gold Cup
SECC Sweepstakes of Ennis for hunters
for a Racing Plate
old, 12st—six year
Blue Post once ro
hunter's plate or p
5lb—any horse th
3lb—to be rode by

Stakes of 3 sovs
sovs. for Horses,
before at eight o'c
by the Stewards,
bers or no race.

THE Sweepstakes of the Stewards for handicapped the e
they may appoint-Horses for this ra eight o'Clock.

Stakes of 2 sov
fide the property
Householders of t oath if required by
at the date of th
stone—4 years old and aged, 9st. 4lb

FOUR Sweepstakes of never started, pai sweepstakes, and tified by the ow required, 30 sov.

THEATRE ROYAL, LIMERICK.

By permission of John Vanaken jun Esq Mayor