

Brennan, husband to said Bridget, were convicted and sentenced to be hanged to-morrow their bodies to be dissected.

M'Guinness, who was to have been hanged at on Thursday, for murder, put a period to his in the goal, on Wednesday.

use of Mr. Robins, of Suir Castle, was attacked ed party on Thursday, they fired several shots, unable to enter the dwelling.

parpar, of the 9th Regiment, fell from his horse igh, on Thursday evening—little hopes are d of his recovery.

Monday morning, a shoemaker, named James was drowned while swimming from the Strand e river towards Meade's Quay, in this City— ved the unfortunate man was in a state of in-

Officers of the 9th Regiment have given the m of 30l to the poor at Newry.

Coote, Esq. has given 100l to the poor of Earl of Portarlington has presented Doctor , with 50l. as his Lordships subscription, to- idling a Dispensary at Roscrea, together with a ound to erect it upon.

Rev. Michael M'Mahon acknowledges the re- the following sums, in addition to the subscri- eady acknowledged, towards the relief of the l poor of Kircoleman, in this County.—From the Hon. the Earl of Cork and Orrery, per eahy, Esq. 10l.; from the Right Hon. Lord k, per James Kelly, Esq. 5l.

poor of Brury parish have been supplied with e the last month, at a reduced rate, and in many r gratis, at the expense of the Local and some of entee Proprietors of the parish. The Rev. Mr. p, Vicar, and Rev. Mr. Ryan, P. P. have also ed liberally.

spensary is about to be established in the village y, for the relief of the poor of the parish and ediate vicinity.

O'Donnell, Esq. of Kilbreedy, Treasurer to the elief Committee of that parish, acknowledges pt of thirty pounds from Lord Lisle; his Lord- s also with his usual feelings of humanity, sly offered a further sum of twenty, should the continue in that parish. James Bennett, Esq unlong, has given one pound in aid of said

Treasurer of the Magdalen Asylum acknowledges pt of One Pound from Mrs. Barlow, by the s of Dunraven, for the use of that Charity.

Treasurer of the Lying-in Hospital has received r O'Grady, as Foreman of a Record Jury, per reker, £2 10s in aid of that Institution.

Macnamara acknowledges the receipt of £50, e very liberal and munificent donation of the Rt. nd Rev. Lord Decies, towards the alleviation of ress existing in his extensive district.

Rev. J Malone gratefully acknowledges the re- f 5l from the Hon. Colonel Fitz-Gibbon, M. P. s the repairs of Castle Connell Chapel.

Macnamara has received 1l from Mr Walker of e Manufactory in this City, for the Chapel of hill.

Rev. Michael Tuohy P P gratefully acknow- the receipt of 5l from Samuel Dickson, Esq for airs of the Chapel of Donoughmore, and also 5l for airs of the Chapel of Knockea.

At St. George's Hanover-square, London, the Rev. C. F. Moore, one of the King's Chaplains, to Julia, daughter of Sir B. Hobhouse, Bart.

At Marylebone, London, the Rev. P. Knapp, Fellow of Magdalen College, Oxford, to Emily, eldest daughter of W. Willan, Esq.

At Aldingborne, Sussex, Lord Porchester, eldest son of the Earl of Carnarvon, to Henrietta Anna, eldest daughter of the late Lord Henry Molyneux Howard, and niece to the Duke of Norfolk.

E Stewart, Esq son of the late Honorable J. Stewart, Judge of his Majesty's Supreme Court at Halifax, to Frances, daughter of Rear-Admiral Sir Jahleel Brenton.

At Ore, Sussex, John Mackness, Esq. to Ann, daughter of Lieutenant-Colonel Elliot, Royal Artillery

At High Ongar, J. F. Burg, Esq. of St. Leonard's, Nazing, Essex, to Augusta, third daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Edridge, Rector of Shidbamp Norfolk.

DEATHS.

This morning, at his lodgings, Prospect-Row, Lieut- nant George Nesbitt, 56th Regiment, much and de- servedly regretted by his brother Officers. His remains will be interred with Military honors at Murchin's Church, at one o'clock on Friday.

In Mary-street, Mr. Thomas Hewitt, late of the Ex- cise Office.

At Cheltenham, Lieutenant-Colonel Martin Leggath, late 36th Regiment.

At Manchester, Major Richard Cust, 59th Regiment.

At Plymouth, Elizabeth, daughter of the late Captain Samuel Gordon, Royal Navy.

At Friarstown, aged 18, Hugh, second son of Richard O'Shaughnessy, Esq. To the many estimable qualities of his early life an unbending adherence to truth gave an unsullied lustre. The regret occasioned by his death, though intense, is not unmingled with the pleasing re- flection that the valuable inheritance of a virtuous edu- cation, shed its refreshing influence on his soul, and sus- tained him under the subduing pressure of a brightened illness.

In William-street, John, son of Mr John Prococke.

At Piercetown, County Meath, Elizabeth, wife of John Gore, Esq. late Captain in the Cambridgeshire Regiment of Militia.

At Sandbrook, County Carlow, Abraham Jones, Esq. In Castlebar, Mrs Gibbons.

T. Filgate, of Lisreany, County Louth, Esq. At London, Mrs. Hunter, wife of Edward Hunter, Esq. and daughter of Thomas Hughes, of Clonmel, Esq.

Of apoplexy, Dr. Drennan, celebrated for his dis- covery in the use of spirit of turpentine in diseases of the gastro enteritic kind.

At Tabriz, Lieut.-Colonel Sir J K Macdonald, British Envoy Extraordinary at the Court of Persia.

Alicia, wife of John Given, of Hamelton, Esq. At Letterkenny, Alexander, only son of Charles Crawford, of that place, Esq.

On the 28th ult. at Tours, in France, where he had been for the benefit of his health, Charles Wm. Clarke, Esq. late of his Majesty's 19th Regiment, and brother of Sir Wm H. Clarke, Bart.

At Manchester, Mr James Purser, of Dublin.

At Brixtable Cottage, near London, Colonel John Ogle, late of Forkhill, County Armagh.

In Clonmel, Mrs Robert Davis.

In North Frederick-street, Dublin, R. Cave, Esq. At Pilltown, Mr Pat Dooly.

In Cork, Miss Eleanor Buckley. At Eunstymon, Mary, wife of Mr James Lysaght, grocer. The wife of Mr Mathew Gibbons, of Castlebar, mer- chant, and daughter to Stephen Magdonough, Esq. of Dunmore, County Galway. At Rathroe, county Cork, Daniel M'Carthy, Esq. third son of Denis M'Carthy, Esq.

I DO not wonder at when I spoke of your hands of LORD LIME and whose family have been those seventy years.

I told you and I now Limerick is free—never spirit of the people, as at the throbs of returning habitual estimate, of my thought it was owing to Samuel Dickson, our fel unconnected with, Lord LIFTED and BORN popular sympathy and repeat it—is the moni- eousness—you proved your developed INEM- shortly he expunged dragged from the GL- the TOMB, it can be- ste must be buried give

Hail, then, my fellow you have by your exe- tangled yourselves from Limerick; a few days work completed, and fi- shall never enjoy, a M- of our Labour and of

I have to add for yo- an ADMISSON—nay, th- Sheriff's Assessor, He- never existed a more- (indeed it is impossib- forty-shilling freehold- who voted against you- on a sealed Beer and- Gospel of our one, an- you, they might as we- TATION in the M- common with Ireland- Member for Eleven st- that period contend fo- Bill for emancipating- Your

11th August, 1830

TO JOHN

SIR,
As an Englishman- leges, I must co- 7th inst. has made se- allusions are of so in- eall upon you to give- inoport. Yes, Sir, s- spect the Character, of Lord, our high- I remain,

THE Independ- Inhabitants of t- to suspend their fe- view, with regard t- had proposed him- ensuing Parliamen- machinations of a- until the issue of a- receive the verdict- N B Any con- thank'd for received