To the Electors of Limerick.

GENTLEMEN AND FRIENDS,
 THANK you most sincerely for the high honor you have conferred upon me, by the warm support so kindly gave me in the arduous contest we have encountered. It is now too late to say more. The question as to who shall be your Sitting Member must, as I am advised, be decided by a higher tribunal.
 I have the honor to be, with great respect,
 Your sincere faithful friend,
 SAMUEL DICKSON.

To the Proprietors of the Limerick Chronicle.

GENTLEMEN,
 NOTICE to which my name appears subjoined as Agent for Mr. Dickson, having been served on the 11th of the City of Limerick, on the 9th August last, as mentioned in your Paper of Wednesday last, I think it right to state that such notice was served in the discharge of a professional duty, in order strongly to set against the irregularity of proceeding to qualify voters in any place but the Booths legally appointed for the purpose, and not intending the least disrespect to Mr. Bourke or Mr. Roche, the Magistrates therein, for whom, individually, as public and private persons, I have always entertained the highest regard.
 I remain, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,
 EDWARD SAYERS.
 George's-street, 14th August.

had some observations to offer in allusion to this (so far as we were concerned in the publication of notices on Wednesday,) but as Mr. Sayers has consented to publish the above, it renders our interference unnecessary. — EDITOR.

THIS Office insures against loss or damage by fire, all descriptions of Buildings, Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, Ships in harbour and in dock, craft on navigable rivers and canals, and goods laden in the same, waggons travelling the roads, and their contents, and farming stock of all descriptions. The premiums charged by this Society are as low as the long experience of the Office has proved to be compatible with the nature of the risks, and with a prompt and liberal adjustment of losses.
 Farming stock may be insured generally, in all barns and out-houses, or on a farm, without the average clause. And a full explanation of this mode of insurance may be had on application to the Office, or any of its Agents.
 The MANAGERS have determined to make a reduction of Premium, with certain exceptions, in the three ordinary classes of Insurance, and such Risks, unless special circumstances of hazard, will be charged as under.

First Class from 2s. to 1s. 6d. per cent.
 Second Class from 3s. to 2s. 6d. do.
 Third Class from 5s. to 4s. 6d. do.

These advantages are immediate and certain, and not referred to a distant period.
 No Person insured in this Office is liable to the Risk of Partnership, and all losses are paid without reduction or discount.

LOSSES BY LIGHTNING MADE GOOD.
 The Fire Duty paid by this Office for the last year amounted to £118,856 0s. 0d.

The SUN LIFE OFFICE insures at premiums which under forty-five years of age, when the assurance is for the whole of life, and under fifty-five for shorter periods, are considerably lower than are generally required.
 Tables of Rates, and every information may be had from the Agents, in all the principal Towns in the United Kingdom.
