A fellow yesterday evening permitted to go under an unloaded car; he got up without a hold of his collar, and set, opposite Dame-court, he flew forward with amazing velocity, tore him, tearing away his clothes, his passengers, and every one opposed his progress. He was pulled from the car enlightened a pot, he was unable to drag him. More than four persons tried to assist, besides five or six that were called. A poor woman with a child made a shocking cry, both she and car went over the side.

His Excellency Lord Morland, went on Monday, Sunday and proceed to the L., where Excellency intends to remain a fortnight to parake of amusement, a future amongst himself, prior to the present season.
 The honor will in the pe of years be attended to the disturbances in the West Islands, which is alleged occasioned a neglect of cultivation at crops generally failed.

LIMERICK.

On the 14th ult. the Winder, revenue cruiser, got on a rock off Cape Clear, and was lost: The crew were saved by taking to the boat.

Friday, during the thunder and lightning, a flash communicated to a cabin, near Ballybrood, and entirely consumed the same.

Early on Saturday morning, some villain or villains, broke into the store house of Mr. Pa-rick Clanchy, opposite St. John's church, and stole thereout a number of salted calf skins.

Wednesday last, the remains of the late Lady Bowager Massy, were interred in the family vault at Duntrileague, in this county.
