

extra premium will be charged on the Lives of any or Naval Men, unless they enter or are called to active service, when the lowest rate consistent with safety will be required. Premiums, founded on correct data, have been specially calculated for Assurance on Lives of officers in the Army or Civil Service of the East India Company; the Lives of any person proceeding to any part of the world will be assured on terms commensurate with the risk incurred.

Entrance-money or fees of any kind are exacted, and no charge made for Policies beyond the cost of stamps. Premiums may be paid, either by even annual payments; by a single payment; by payments for a limited number of years; and also by an ascending scale. In addition to the utmost liberality exercised by the Directors in the settlement of claims, the Company will be able should a person assured die within one month of a renewable Premium becomes due, provided the premium be paid within the stipulated period. In the event of dispute (where no fraud is suspected,) the subject thereof will be referred to arbitration. All particulars, and every information, may be obtained at the Office, and at

Life Assurance Company,
WATERLOO PLACE, PALL MALL, LONDON.
 The first Septennial Division of Profits of this Company will be declared in the ensuing year, on the Policies of the Participating Class effected previous to the 31st December, 1840. Parties, therefore, who wish to insure their lives, should avail themselves of the opportunity they now have of sharing in the Bonus soon to be declared, by immediately making proposals.

The following are the annual premiums for the assurance of £100 for the whole period of life, on which credit may be allowed for five years; which credit to remain unpaid at 5 per cent. Interest, to be deducted at Death from the sum insured.
 Example.—A person aged 20, by paying an annual premium of £2, becomes entitled to £100, on his attaining the age of 70, or to the same sum should he die before arriving at that age.
