

MARY FIELD DAY.
 elight in the pomp of war, adier and the proud hussar, op, the lengthened line, act and sword in the bright sunshine." a day as Nature ever gave her way-ng clouds there were none, to menace us husbandman; a rich meridian sun objects with a mantle of gold; the xuriantly to the softest breeze, and he hands of a sturdy peasant, silently ul work. On such a day, Sir Charles issue orders to the troops in garrison he verdant turf of Newcastle, famed r a Course second to none in Ireland, . The joyous mandate pervaded the quick succession; and, at two o'clock, commanded by Colonel Worsley, or Wyndham, 32d Regiment, Hon. and 37th, Colonel Le Blanc, were the scene of action, their banners a brilliant sun, and arms glittering a, while splendid equipages, freighted and beauty, pushed along on every e light that lies in woman's eyes," ating a smile as ever played on lovely estrians and pedestrians, countless, e martial feeling, and followed the ah a master spirit had put in motion. eld, a squadron of Cavalry, with nce, accompanied by the 37th Regi-occupy an eminence; the Light Ind in front, under cover, and part of in advance. In this position they of the assailing party, composed of Artillery, and Dragoons, who now gate, and the Dragoons, in a heavy ntrance, securing an advance for the ne videttes on either side threw a run-ry over the field, pushing forward urns, until the two armies formed a eparated for a more effective encounter. he engagement had an exceedingly sque effect, but the advance of two rmidable masses, armed at all points, ray, excited a more serious and sub-order having been given to break through the thick array legions, and charge home upon him." earful, but not of long continuance, willed the palm of transient victory rmy. The 37th retired slowly from ain, covered by its Light Infantry and y cannonade preceded and followed gain the 37th advanced rapidly to the was hot, and the 32d eventually gave ing an attack of Cavalry. A field was put forward, to enfilade the 32d as gallantly carried by their Light ed from an ambushade.
 n charged in overpowering masses, but eived on the point of the bayonet by d in solid squares, the thunder of etry was unabated, the 32d recovered struggle, but a final charge of the 37th by Cavalry and Artillery won the glory e day, cleared the field of the enemy, ry which was announced by the beating ngor of bugles and the loud hurrahs of
 r. The polite attention of the General n the ground was conspicuous, to the out the most advantageous site for while his arrangements to prevent acci-ny person evinced a most kind and con-On leaving the field the attention of was equally polite—the Countess of me chariot headed the cavalcade—the the 32d Regt. were ordered to the several of the most approved modern he Trobadour, Di tanti Palpiti, and e." This unexpected compliment to arts and sun-bright eyes" which encir-

MARRIAGES.

On Tuesday, the 14th Instant, at Castle Toon Church, County Tipperary, by the Rev. Standish Grady Parker, William Smithwick, Esq. of Youghal Lodge, eldest son of the late Michael Smithwick, Esq. of Mount Catherine, County Limerick, to Anna, eldest daughter of the Rev. Dr. Gabbett, Rector of Castle Toon, and Vicar-General of the Diocese of Killaloe.

At Taney Church, Frank Thorpe Porter, Esq. Barrister at Law, to the daughter of Mrs. Davis, of Roshuck.

Michael Dillon, of Knocknagrove, Queen's County, Esq. to Maria, second daughter of the late John Byrne, of Bayswell, County Kilkenny, Esq.

At Doneraile, Patience Susan, daughter of the late George Stawell, Esq. of Crobeg, County Cork, to Captain Robert Vivian, 22d Regiment.

Patrick Malone, Esq. of Clontarf, to Miss Bedilia Ryan, of Dublin.

Edward Tuton, Esq. of Rockbrook, County of Dublin, to Jane, eldest daughter of William Murray, Esq.

Elso Smith, Esq. of Dublin, merchant, to Mrs. Mary Flanagan, of Essex-street, in that City.

The Rev. Henry Taylor, Rector of South Pool and West Oggwell, Devon, to Marianne Halifax, third daughter of Samuel, late Lord Bishop of St. Asaph.

At Tuambridge Church, by Rev. Sir C. Hardinge, Bart. Captain Hardinge, Royal Horse Artillery, to Caroline Johnston, youngest daughter of the late Kenneth Callender, Esq. of Craighforth.

DEATHS.

On Sunday morning, at her father's house, in the Crescent, Ellen, youngest daughter of John Vereker, Esq. The death of this lovely and accomplished girl, at an age when every feature in the female character becomes so highly interesting, has plunged her family and friends into the most profound grief. Her remains were interred on Monday, in the family vault at Cairnarry.

At Rathmines, of a rapid decline, aged 32, Walter Yelverton, Esq. one of the Six Clerks in the Court of Chancery.

Elizabeth, relict of Ebenezer Radford Rowe, Esq. of Brideswell, in the County Wexford.

At Cove, W. Toye, jun. of Clonakilty, Esq.

In Dublin, Anne, wife of William E. Ashley, Esq.

At Dundrum, Mrs. Macauley, the wife of William Macauley, of the Royal Hospital, Esq.

In Waterford, Elizabeth, wife of Wm. Dowling, Esq.

In Merrion-square, Dublin, John Nugent, Esq.

In Dublin, Francis D'Arcy, Esq. of Galway, Attorney

Anne, wife of William E. Ashley, Esq. of Dublin.

On the Water-Course, Cork, Mrs. Fitzgerald, wife of Mr. John Fitzgerald, tanner.

At Innishannon, Lieutenant Charles William Elwood, late of his Majesty's 48th Regiment of Foot, in which he served during the greater part of the Peninsular War. He was severely wounded at Albuera.

In London, John Lyon, of Tramore, Esq.

In London, William May, Esq. Consul-General for the King of the Netherlands in Great Britain.

At sea, on board the ship Lady Kennaway, on passage from Ceylon, Captain William Orr, 97th Regiment.

On board the Wellington, the wife of Lieut.-Colonel Campbell, 56th Regiment.

At Boulogne, Captain Homewood, late 3d Dragoon Guards.

At Ridge-Park Barracks, in the Island of Antigua, much and deservedly regretted, James Ireland, Esq. Lieutenant and Adjutant of the 93d Highlanders.

At his house in Hertford-street, London, on Friday, aged 78 years, the Right Hon. the Earl of Stradbroke.

At Leominster, Captain Dennis, Adjutant to the 1st North Herefordshire Local Militia.

Near West Calder, Scotland, George Ferguson, Lord Hermand, one of the Senators of the College of Justice.

At the Cape of Good Hope, on her passage to Ireland, after premature child-birth, Mrs. Poe, deeply regretted by her numerous friends.

LIMERICK RACES,
NEWCASTLE COURSE.

DIAMOND RING

LOST.
 A GOLD CHASED RING. Set with Di-the name "Laura" engraved on the inside person bringing same to the Chronicle Office handsomely rewarded.

DROPPED

ON SATURDAY, ABOUT TWELVE O'CLOCK
 Between Swinburn Hotel and Mr. M. Lee, 32, Patrick-Street,

A GOLD STOP WATCH.

THE owner will give a reward of FIVE POUNDS to any person that will bring said Watch GOSLETT, Police Office. After this notice will be cautious of receiving such an article number and maker's name are known.

Barbadoes and Trinidad SUGARS.

LARGE & ADAMS have on sale, at H. & N. SEYMOUR'S Stores, 14, George's-Street, Barbadoes and Trinidad Sugars in Cloghead they will dispose of on pleasing terms.
 Limerick, August 22

To Architects.

NOTICE is hereby given that Proposals (to be post-paid) for putting the Church of St. Andrew situated in the Demesne of Springfield in Repair, will be received by the Rev. Mr. Drumcolloher, Newcastle, on or before the 1st of September next.

Security will be required for the performance of the work.

MEELICK VILLA

TO BE LET,

OR THE INTEREST SOLD.

THE HOUSE and OFFICES are in a most desirable order, and the Land, which contains 27 Irish measure, is highly improved and of the best tion of meadow, commanding the finest view lower Shannon, having Tervoe, Cooper-Hill, rickogunnell, on the opposite side of the river, beautiful new line of road leading to Welles passes in front of the house, and brings it within and half of Limerick.

A Lease of Lives and immediate possession be given, and further particulars made known cation to Mr. ARTHUR, on the Premises.

Meelick Villa, At

FOR SALE.

SOME of the REAL POTATOE ON
 Mr. JOHN CALDWELL'S, Upper Roche's-Street, Limerick, where directions for will be given to Purchasers.

WANTED

FOR THE CITY LIMERICK

A School Mistress

TO EDUCATE THE FEMALE PR

A WOMAN of good character and ability elected by the Board of Superintendents meet at the Gaol, on FRIDAY, the 7th Septem-o'clock; at which time the Board will receive Proposals for supplying TURF by the