

Frederick Lyard, Esq., Civil Service, Ceylon, to Miss Lloyd, of Carmarthen.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, in Mungret-street, after a long and painful illness, borne with exemplary patience and resignation, Mr. John Ebrill, aged 74, a very honest and respectable citizen.

On Tuesday last, at Kilduff, near Pallasgreen, the residence of her son, Mrs. Anne Keays, daughter of the late John Lloyd, Esq. formerly Clerk of the Peace for this county.

At his father's house, Mary-street, Mr. Patrick W. Conway.

At Ennis, Mary, eldest daughter of Mr. T. Keane.

In Galway, the wife of Mr. William Woods, mail guard on the Midland Great Western Railway.

The Rev. Pat Duffy, P.P. of Castle Connor.

John Hodson Bond, Esq. son of Henry Montford Bond, Esq. Newtownbond, county Longford.

At Rokeby, Lisburn, Julia Anna, daughter of James Robinson, Esq.

At Tunbridge-wells, Elizabeth, relict of the late Robert Farthing Beauchamp, Esq. of Walford house, Somersetshire.

In Chelsea, Charles Pycroft, Esq. h.p. 14th Floor, aged 75.

At Lossiemouth, near Elgin, N.B. William Thom, Esq. retired Paymaster R.N.

At Southampton, the Rev. Thomas Shapcole.

At Erith, Kent, B. L. Knight, Esq. late 75th Regt.

On the 14th, at Bayview, De Bigore, Pyrenees, aged 20 years, Edward, son of the late Dr. Barry, of Churchtown, county Cork.

At Varna, Edward Nigel, son of Lt.-Col. Neale, her Majesty's Consul in Bulgaria.

At Varna, of cholera, George Potter, Esq. Commander of the Australian Royal Mail Company's steam transport Sydney.

At New York, James Whiting Swayne, late of Cork.

On board the Golden Age, on his voyage home from Sydney, William, son of the late John Carey, Esq. of Carey's Lodge, county Cork.

At Glenmel, Mrs. Massey, relict of Mr. W. Massey.

At Ferns, Thomas Rudd, Esq.

At Garville Terrace, Rathgar, Elizabeth, wife of John Pigott, Esq. late of Terenure Lodge, county Dublin.

At Camberwell, Mary Bingham, second daughter of the late Rev. Richard Mant, D.D. aged 80.

At Isle of Wight, suddenly, William Bardwell, Esq., C.E.

At Boulogne, aged 19, Emma, daughter of Lt.-Col. Farquharson, Barrack Master, Woolwich, late of Dublin.

At New-York, William Bewley, C.E., formerly of the Dublin and Kingstown Railway.

The temporary Tower of Timber 108 feet above t spring-tides, and 16 nautic miles, the state of the a favourable circum disappear between

The COMMISS Order in Council following Tolls a of the said Light

For every Ves (the same not be successors, nor and for every Fo Ports of the Un Duties of Tonna which may pass Toll of Two Six burthen of every ing or deriving voyage.

For each time Oversea Voyage Vessel.

For every Fo ballast and not double the resp Which Tolls on payment :— or an Oversea

(Sig
NORTHERN
Edinburgh,