

... of timber, examined before a ... the subject. He ... for the supply of ... to be sold at the ... illing in the gallon ... to be convened to ... e Lord Lieutenant, ... n additional city ... ssioners of Public ... er of the House of ... k are returned as ... the 31st of Decem- ... mmissioners, £6,700, ... ern Roads, £2,119 ... for Improvements, ... ; County, Road ... l. interest £5 7s. ; ... interest £7 17s. 9d. ... nd present state of ... (original fund in ... Cork, £8028 ; pre- ... 9. Kerry, £5777 ; ... umerick, £6730 ; ... sccommon, £4500 ; ... ary, £2500 ; £2500. ... ent fund, £59,205. ... tion of our readers ... this day's paper, ... ch are to take place ... le in our first page, ... tithe question. ... ns, Esq. before the ... hannon navigation, ... ounty Clare, in the ... inches in circum- ... ty Association has ... st of September, at ... e to the local and ... in our columns to- ... entments. ... the Askeaton Petty ... or be imprisoned ... malicious injury to ... 4s. 6d. or be im- ... labor, for malicious ... 3s. 3d. or be impi- ... ult—By Adare Petty ... be imprisoned four- ... a timber. ... ublic are aware that ... Its enactments are

... nardson, of Holywell, Lincolnshire.

At St. Mary's, Newington, Nicholas Burridge Lash, Esq. of his Majesty's steam frigate Salamander, to Elizabeth, second daughter of Caleb M. Littlejohn, Esq. of St. Andrew's, Jamaica.

DEATHS.

In Dublin, Henry Augustus Langley, of Brittas Castle, county Tipperary, Esq. late Captain 6th Dragoon Guards.
At Ballysheen, county Clare, Richard, son of George Walton, Esq.
In Lower Mount-street, Dublin, Peter Ormsby, Esq. late Surgeon to the Forces, and many years Staff Surgeon in this City.
In Peter-street, Dublin, John Cannon, Esq. Lieutenant of the County Dublin Militia.
In his 38th year, in Sandwith-street, Dublin, Mr. T. Nangle.
At Blount's Court, near Henley on Thames, in his 34th year, the Right Hon. Charles Viscount Dungarvan, eldest son of the Earl of Cork and Orrery.
At the Cove of Cork, Mr. William Reardon, woollen and linen draper, Tralee.
At Hammond's Cottage, near Cove, Miss Tamazine O'Leary, of Bandon Road.
At Passage, Mary, wife of Henry Cross, Esq. of Ellenville, county Cork, and daughter of the late Daniel Gibbs, Esq. of Derry.
At Mallow-lane, Cork, Mrs. Mich. Corbett.
At the Vale of Avoca, of cholera, Mr. James Clarkson, well known for his extraordinary musical acquirements.
Mrs. Cogan, wife of Mr. Michael Cogan, of Ballina.
At Mullingar, George, son of the late Mr. George Murray, inn-keeper of that town.
At Ranelagh, Dublin, much and deservedly lamented, Mr. John M'Gregor, author of "The French Revolution and the Wars resulting from that memorable event," of "A Narrative of the Wreck of the Seahorse," of "True Stories from the History of Ireland," and of other esteemed publications. Formerly Mr. M'Gregor resided at Waterford for many years, and was much respected by his fellow-citizens. He was a native of this city.
In Clonmel, Mr. J. Campbell, boot and shoe-maker.
In Drogheda, Peter Markey, Esq.
At Knockmain, county Roscommon, Nicholas Fitzhenry, Esq. chief constable of police.
In Drogheda, Edward Archbold, Esq.
In Shankhill, co. Dublin, Anne, widow of the late Addison Hone, Esq.
At Swords, Henrietta, the wife of Thomas B. Jackson, Esq. M.D.
In Drogheda, Emily, wife of Mr. Charles F. Collins.
At Upper Seskin, Tipperary, aged 78 years, Mrs. O'Donnell, relict of the late Mr. James O'Donnell, and sister to the Rev. Michael Walsh, Roman Catholic Curate of Ardfinnan.
At Tunbridge Wells, the Countess Paricini Canelli, daughter of the late Hon. Admiral Byron, and a relative of the present Peer.
At Herring Court, Richmond, the Hon. Clarinda Anna Margaret Plunkett, daughter of the Right Hon. Lord Louth.
Mrs. Long, of Hurts Hall, near Saxmundham, sister to Lord Farnborough.
The Rev. R. Yates, Rector of Ashen, Essex, and for 36 years Chaplain of Chelsea Hospital.
At Gosport, aged 85, Mrs. Page, grandmother of Viscountess Torrington.
Near Plymouth, John Nichols Hawker, Esq. aged 47, occasioned by a fall from his horse.
In Rodney-street, Liverpool, at the house of his son-in-law, C. R. Simpson, Esq. Robert Harvey, Esq. formerly of London, aged 73.
At Banda, East Indies, Captain the Hon. Patrick Campbell Sinclair, fourth son of the late Earl of Caithness.
Killed, at Coorg, Ensign John Robertson, 9th Madras Native Infantry, son of Lieut.-Colonel Robertson Macdonald.
In New York, Mrs. Elizabeth Doran, a native of Wexford county.
In New York, Mr. John Stephens, a native of Sligo.
At New Orleans, Mr. Michael Haggerty, a native of Mullingar, county Westmeath.
In New York, Mr. John Morrison, aged 55 years, a native of Fermoy, county Cork.
In Savannah, Georgia, Mrs. Bridget Ramsbottom, wife of Captain Patrick Ramsbottom, aged 29 years. She was a native of Ballykillevan, parish of Stradbally, Queen's County.
In New York, of consumption, Daniel O'Brien, aged about 30 years, a native of Kilcut, county Clare.
In New York, Mr. Bernard Fanning, a native of Tyrone, aged 51.

Of the Theatre
WHO ARE I
MR. SEYMOUR
Nobility,
and its vicinity,
with the above co
appearance on MOND
in the admired
The
The character
The pa
In course of th
Song—"Can I
"Whither, my great lords and
Song—"Child
Time has from Sestette—"By Mr. COLLINS, a
the silly Maid,"
"Bright flatterin
I discharge you,
"Spirit of my sa
vanished ills of
and the rest of t
After the Ope
Pages de Duc de
by desire, Miss
After

OR,
Tom Tug,
In which he will
young Waterma
Britannia."
Wilhelmina
In which she
"I
Leader of Tickets to be Fashionable Wa
and at the Thea
Prices of Admiss
 NOTICE inhabitants of times feels happ
the expence att
Mr. COLLINS, a
extremely heavy
nine o'clock.
No order or c
given during the
On TUESDA
of the BARBE
Susan
Count
And on WEI
Opera of DER
of Bohemia