

on proposed the next resolution, as slaves, and surrounded by a degradation. He concluded by expressive of the favourable feelings viewed the exertions of Protection the repeal of the Test and the Resolution was seconded by the entry.

proposed the next resolution, of the Treaty of Limerick, and founded on the Treaty, which Coppinger, and passed without the next resolution, for a Petition Act, which was seconded by Mr.

that in the fancy for legislating there was lately enacted a most distasteful the sub-letting Act. There was a great increase of population, which the strength of Ireland, against all. The act to which he first alluded was at the middle orders, and was a Member for Limerick.—(hear, included by moving a petition for the letting Act.

ended the resolution. All the fair stage and no favour. (applause) establishment of a neutral government Mr. Canning, but he expected to see liberty impartially exercised. It was an English Baron of the Exchequer and, as Lord Chancellor. This was such a man as O'Connell—a man of great eminence, was kept in the back of the Ministry did not allow talents to be wasted, and allow every man to become a man, the Ministry would fall as it on was carried, the Chairman took that the sub-letting act was the worst. Mr. S. Rice was opposed the London Press took Mr. S. Rice, and never reported en came forward, and was received He could not avoid reflecting with some creeping, crawling things were called Catholics, and who had not They were few, and a short time before them, they were not worth that There was another subject on which liberty and distress—he alluded to the read from the City Member. He saw his honest father, and transferred ; but if that son threw an indignity turned him, he felt it his duty to

If the letter read this day was not intended for, he called on the people to this unpleasant subject, he confessed, in the present administration. He Catholics to remain quiet until the dated and if the same circumstances placed no dependance on the assurance when he heard, that Chief Baron proceed that old lady in breeches, Lord Mellor of Ireland. Mr. O'Connell followed by six others.

both Houses of Parliament were quies of Lansdown, and Sir Francis not broken up at five o'clock. of Waterford, presided at the Chamber of Commerce Rooms the but one hundred and eighty sat to of Mallow, was the only Member of was carried into the church in the arms of his bridesman, where, being placed on a chair, he received the fair hand of his willing bride.

DEATHS.

In Henry-street, aged 79, to the regret of her family and friends, Mrs. Roberts, relict of the late Thomas Roberts, Esq. of this City.

On the night of Friday, the 24th ult. at Newcastle, in this County, after a protracted illness (which in its fatal and painful progress, was never known for a moment to sour the sweetness of his temper,) and at the early age of 29 years, Mr. Michael O'Brien, second son of Thomas O'Brien, Esq. In the mass of society it was rare to meet a face and form more prepossessing, or a disposition more engaging than he possessed—innocent, honorable, cheerful and affectionate, he could have no enemy, and all who knew him were his friends; thus he passed through life, and in an humble but confident hope inspired by a due sense of the Christian Religion, he resigned himself to the will of his Creator, on the bosoms of his afflicted and disconsolate family.

On the Causeway, Ennis, Mrs. O'Connell, widow of the late Maurice O'Connell, of Rouska, Esq.

At Glasshouse, County Waterford, aged 87 years, Mrs. Nuttall, mother of Charles Nuttall, Esq.

At his lodgings in Nile-street, Cork, much regretted by his family and friends, Mr. Thomas Howell, Printer. The wife of Mr. Walter Keating, of Clonmel.

At Leixlip, Jane, relict of the late John Halpen, Esq. of Sackville-street, Dublin.

In Main-street, Clonmel, the wife of Mr. N. Fell.

In Merrion-square, Dublin, Mrs. Armstrong, sister to John H. North, Esq. M. P.

At Garlough, County Wexford, Mr. William Day, an eminent architect.

In Dublin-street, Clonmel, Miss E. Harvey, daughter of Mr. J. Harvey.

Mr. Edward Campion, schoolmaster of the Parish of Kilqueane, in the County Cork.

In Back-street, Wexford, Miss Fanny Vicary.

In Abbey-street, Dublin, Mr. Nicholas Walsh, grocer.

In Clonmel, Mr. Julian, sen. coach-builder.

At Clonakilty, aged 22 years, Jane, daughter of Thos. White, Esq. Barrackmaster of that town.

In Holles-street, Dublin, Mrs. Verner, relict of James Verner, of Church-hill, County Armagh, Esq.

Mr. John Bingham, of Belfast.

At Belvidere Cottage, County Cork, Miss M'Clure, sister of the late Robert M'Clure, Esq.

In Charleston, South Carolina, Gerald Blackall, Esq. late 83d Regiment, and of Clongriffin, County Meath.

In consequence of a fright occasioned by the sting of a wasp, Mrs. Pritchard, of the Nag's Head Inn, Ross.

James Buller, Esq. of Downes, many years Representative of Exeter in Parliament.

At Cheltenham, Eliza Boden, aged 19, daughter of the late Colonel Joseph Bodin, of the Bombay Army.

At Kingston, near Portsmouth, Ann, wife of Major Robert D'Alton, aged 41 years.

Mark Temple, Esq. Postmaster of Leeds.

On his passage from Rio Janeiro, John Little, Esq. late Assistant-Surgeon of the Dumfries Militia.

The Rev. Morgan Jones, of Bludbury, Berkshire.

At Charlbury, aged 42, Mr. John Hutchings. He sat down in good health to dinner, with his family, and being seized with apoplexy, expired in about an hour.

At Dundee, Mr. Thomas Donaldson, bookseller, in the 52d year of his age; and on the following morning, his daughter, Jane Williamson, aged nine years.

At Geneva, United States, suddenly, on the 10th ult. Mr. Arthur Bruce, jun. bookseller, late of Greenock.

Aged 71, the Rev. Thomas Ward, M.A. Vice-Dean and Prebendary of Chester, Vicar of Neston, and Rector of Standley, in that county.

At the Parsonage, North Burlingham, the Rev. J. Danison, Rector of Hautbois, and Vicar of Loddon, aged 77.

Defendants. } the second day of 1827, I will, on the 12th of No next, at the hour of One o'Clock in the afternoon my Chambers, upon the Inns Quay, in the City of Dublin, set up and sell by Auction, all that and the town and Lands of Gurteen, Gurtrou, and C... situate lying and being in the Baronies of Cosh Upper Connelloe and County of Limerick, in the... dings and Decree in this cause mentioned, or a copy part thereof, for the purposes in said decree mentioned. Dated this 30th day of August, 1827.

RODERICK CONNELL, J. and J. M. Hewson, Solicitors, 105, St. Green, Dublin.

CHANCERY
Abbott and Wife, } PURSUANT to the Decree of his Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland, made in Cause, bearing date the 6th of March, 1827, I will, on WEDNESDAY, the 1st day of October next, at the hour of One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at my Chambers, Inns Quay, Dublin, set up and sell by public Auction to the highest and fairest bidder, all that and those, the Town and Lands of the parishes of Cloghy and Gortacaha, Gortavillane, and Shyan, the Bogs thereunto belonging, containing 373a. 1r. 10p. or thereabouts, situate in the Barony of Longford, County of Galway, and also all that and those the lands of Fairy Hill, Willmount, otherwise Fortnalough, Cappahulack, which said several Lands and parcels are situate in the Barony of Longford and County of Longford for the purposes in said Decree mentioned. Dated this 29th day of August, 1827.

RODERICK CONNELL
The above lands are highly improved, and are immediately adjoining the Town of Portumna. For Rental and further particulars apply to William Smith, Plaintiff's Solicitor, No. 21, Fleet-street, Dublin.

KING'S COUNTY.
Edward Pierce Leake, } WHEREAS by Act of Parliament made in this behalf bearing date the 15th of June, instant, The Lord Chancellor's Remembrancer is required to Set, by public Auction, to the highest and fairest bidder, all that and those the lands of CLYNO, otherwise KEJINO, otherwise CLYNO, containing in or about 115 acres late Irish measure, situate in the barony of Clonli... King's County, granted in Custodiam in this cause three years, from the first day of May last, if the Plaintiff's interest shall so long continue.—Now I do give notice, that I will, on Monday, the 23d of July inst. at the hour of Two o'clock in the Afternoon, at the Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer's Office, Inns-Quay, proceed to set that part of said premises the possession of the defendant, containing about 115 Acres, for said term, pursuant to said order.—Dated this 16th day of June, 1827.

H. & M. STEWART, L.
The setting of the above lands is adjourned to Monday, the 23d day of August next, at the hour and place above mentioned.—Dated, this 23d day of July, 1827.
H. & M. STEWART.
The above setting is further adjourned to Monday, the 10th day of September next, at the hour and place above mentioned.—Dated this 23d day of August, 1827.
H. & M. STEWART.
The above lands are of the best quality, consisting of pasture and meadowing, and are situate within the parishes of the post town of Moneysgall, and six of Newry. For further particulars, apply to W.M. Smith, Plaintiff's Attorney, No. 21, Kildare-street.

H. & M. STEWART, L.
The setting of the above lands is adjourned to Monday, the 23d day of August next, at the hour and place above mentioned.—Dated, this 23d day of July, 1827.
H. & M. STEWART.
The above setting is further adjourned to Monday, the 10th day of September next, at the hour and place above mentioned.—Dated this 23d day of August, 1827.
H. & M. STEWART.
The above lands are of the best quality, consisting of pasture and meadowing, and are situate within the parishes of the post town of Moneysgall, and six of Newry. For further particulars, apply to W.M. Smith, Plaintiff's Attorney, No. 21, Kildare-street.