

The mail coach from Cork to this City, broke down on Sunday morning, a little beyond Mallow. The fore axletree gave way and brought the coach forward on the wheel horses, who plunged violently to extricate themselves, as the foot board pressed against their backs. In this emergency the driver contrived to keep his seat and held them in with great difficulty, until the passengers, most of whom leaped off at the first alarm, assisted in liberating the horses, and thus averted worse consequences. The mail-bags were sent on and arrived here at four o'clock in the evening, by a post-chaise, in care of the guard. The coach and passengers arrived soon after.

Daniel Meaher, mason, a native of Castle-Connell, was drowned by falling into the Long-Dock, late on Saturday night. The unfortunate man is supposed to have been in a state of intoxication when the accident occurred. The body was discovered at an early hour next morning, when an inquest was held by the Mayor, and a verdict of accidental death returned.

Mr. Cox, Coroner, on Saturday, held an inquest at Broadford, near Mount Plummer, on the body of Connor Histon, who it appeared in evidence was killed at a quarry near Droumdeveen, by the bank falling in on him. Verdict, accidental death.

At Doone, in this County, about twelve o'clock on Sunday, two factions commenced a dreadful engagement and the result was, one man, Thady Kearney, killed, and another man, from Murroe, died on Monday, of a desperate beating inflicted by those savages, whose acts continue to reflect such disgrace on the country.

On Saturday, a man named John Lynch fractured the skull of a person named Patrick Walsh, by a blow of a stone, in a fight at Abington.

Monday a labouring man named Hickie, passing over a ditch near Ballysimon, slipped and fell upon a scythe which he had in his hand. He was dreadfully cut across the back, and his spine is seriously injured.

The Lord Lieutenant has been pleased to respite Nicholas Nugent, who was sentenced to death at Mayo Assizes, till further pleasure.

On Thursday, a labouring man named Connor, was killed at Killarney, by a horse and car laden with timber, passing over his head.

At the fair of Ennis on Monday, there was a large show of cattle and sheep. The latter were in good demand. Some sales were effected in black cattle and at good prices.

At the fair of Connolly, County Clare, on Saturday, two factions met for the purpose of deciding an old quarrel, being well provided with fire-arms and scythes. All business was totally suspended, and rioting continued to a late hour in the evening.

The Florentia, Billett, from London, with 176 male convicts, for New South Wales, has put into Cove of Cork.

The Marquess of Huntley, Ascough, from London, has arrived at Cove, to embark male convicts for New South Wales.

There are no convicts from the County or City of Limerick now in Cork, having been all forwarded in the last vessels.

The Lord Bishop of Waterford and Lismore has been pleased to present the Rev. C. H. Minchin to the Prebend of Kilgobinet, in the Diocese of Lismore, vacant by the resignation of the Hon. and Rev. George Bourke.

Judge Vandeleur has arrived on a visit at the seat of his brother, (the Right Hon. John Ormsby Vandeleur,) Killrush, after concluding the Connaught Circuit.

Mr. Kingdom, Store Keeper, at Hawlbawling, near Cove, is appointed to the Dock-Yards, at Chatham, and is to be replaced by Mr. Grant.

At a meeting of the Corporation of Kilkenny, held on Wednesday last, Thomas Neville, Esq. was elected an Alderman, and on the same day, Henry Gore, Esq. Dr. L. C. Kinchela, W. H. Bracken, D. Recorder, and Ambrose Shearman, Esqrs. were elected Common Councilmen.

The best running ever known was seen at Mallow races, on Saturday—two distinct plates were won by Mr. A. G. Creagh, of Laurentinum, and Mr. Smyth, of Castle-Widenham. There was no running on Monday, in consequence of constant fighting between the country people, which attained such an alarming height, that a military force was sent for a distance of two miles. Several persons were seriously injured.

Tuam races commence on Monday, the 17th September, two days after the Limerick meeting.

Sir Robert Shaw, Bart. and family, Lieut.-Colonel Grey, and Major Lord Arthur Hill, M. P. of the Scots' Greys, have arrived at Killarney, to visit the romantic and enchanting scenery of the Lakes, at this desirable season; also the Hon. Major Abercromby, and Captain Meham, of the 3d Dragoon Guards.

SICK & INDIGENT ROOM-KEEPERS' SOCIETY

PURSUANT to the Standing Rules, there will be a Monthly Meeting of the SOCIETY to said Society, held on FRIDAY next, the 7th Instant, at One o'Clock, at the Commercial Buildings, Limerick, 4th September, 1827.

WANTED

FOR THE CITY LIMERICK GAOL, A School Mistress,

TO EDUCATE THE FEMALE PRISONERS. A WOMAN of good character and ability will be elected by the Board of Superintendance, who will meet at the Gaol, on FRIDAY, the 7th September, at One o'Clock; at which time the Board will receive written Proposals for supplying TURF by the Boat, and STRAW by the Ton, to be paid for on delivery. Proposals to be sealed and directed to the Board of Superintendance, City Limerick Gaol Board Room. August 18.

NOTICE.

THE MAYOR having been apprised that several of the OLD WEIGHTS AND MEASURES are still used by Persons in Business, contrary to Act of Parliament, he thinks it necessary to give this Public Notice, that, in every case, where he can discover such Weights and Measures, not regulated according to the Imperial Standard as required by Law, they shall be confiscated, and the Penalties prescribed by the Statute enforced in every instance.

Mayor's Office, Exchange, Limerick. September 5, 1827.

BIRTHS

At Roxborough, County Galway, the Lady of Dudley Persse, Esq. of a daughter.
In Harcourt-street, Dublin, the Lady of John Theophilus Boileau, Esq. of a daughter.
The Lady of the Rev. Patrick Pouden, Rector of Ballinasloe, of a daughter.
At Clounagh Cottage, near Portadown, the Lady of T. Foster, Esq. Royal Engineers, of a daughter.
In Lower Fitzwilliam street, Dublin, the Lady of Hugh Eccles, Esq. of a daughter.
At the Rocks, County Cavan, the Lady of George B. L'Estrange, Esq. of a son.
At Seafield, Bray, the Lady of the Rev. Edw. Wade, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

At Tallow, Richard Frederick Peard, Esq. to Marian, eldest daughter of Charles Mansell, of Tallow, Esq.
At St. James's Church, London, Edward Lytton Bulwer, Esq. third son of the late General Bulwer, of Heydon Hall, Norfolk, to Rosina Doyle Wheeler, of Lizard Connel, in the County of Limerick, only surviving daughter of the late Francis Masy Wheeler, Esq. of Lizard Connel and Ballywire. The bride was given away by her uncle, General Sir John Doyle, Bart. and the happy pair, after partaking of a cold collation at the house of Colonel Doyle, Montague-square, set off for their seat, Woodcot House, Oxfordshire.
At St. George's Church, Hanover-square, London, Charles Henege, Esq. son of Thomas Henege, Esq. and nephew to Lord Yarborough, to Louisa, third daughter of the Right Hon. Lord Graves, and niece to the Marquis of Anglesen.
At Tisbury Church, Wiltshire, Lord Charles Spencer Churchill, to Etheldred Catherine, daughter of John Benett, Esq. of Pyt-house, M. P. for the County.
At Kilcolgan Church, County Galway, James Cuffe, of Creagh, County Mayo, Esq. to Mary, eldest daughter of Arthur F. St. George, of Tyrone, Esq.
This morning, Mr. Michael O'Regan, of High-street, spirit merchant, to Miss Mary Cronin, niece of the Rev. J. Cronin, P. P. of Patrick's-well.
Mr. Patrick Lacey, to Mary, eldest daughter of Mr. Simon Wall, both of Wexford.
In Dublin, Joseph Wood, Esq. to Mrs. Jesson.
At Booterstown Church, George Smith, Esq. of Golden Bridge, to Anne, daughter of William Nugent, of Dublin, Esq.
At St. George's Church, Dublin, Philips Montgomery, of Eccles-street, Esq. to Mary, only daughter of the late Peter Marland, of Eccles-street, Esq.
At Great Gaddesden, the Rev. G. T. Drake, to Jane,

Woollen,
2 1/2 Ho
131, (C
THOMAS BI
the public h
of Superior Good
low terms as any landed from the
of SUPERIOR Son, London, of Clergymen, Gentle

PUBLISHED

This day
By JOHN CUN

And by B. O'
A TREATISE
INLAND F

By JOHN FINL
This Book contain
land, with the name
those of England.
Trespass—and Appo
on the Army—Gene
in Ireland—Regulat
&c. &c.

Also, an Explan
and Sportsmen in r
cerning Malicious T
a Misdemeanour in Spring Guns—Grass
To this is added

respecting the River
Ireland—The Prop
therein—The Proper
as to Fishing and Ang
those Laws which ap particular Rivers, &c on the duty of Magis Law. The first of v
and the second entire

Of whom may be
1st—A TREATISE
and TENANT in II
2d—The OFFICE
WARDEN and PA
New Edition with a
on the Act of the 7th

History

Dedicated by permis

THIS DAY IS PUBLISHED

BY GEO

106, GE

And may be had of any

THE HISTORY
County and

Rev. P. FITZGERA

case of Emly, and author of The

Revolu

Di

THE first volume co
History and Antie
History—Government
and Music—Progress
Beauties and Antiqui and Antiquities of the Baronial and Parochia
volume are given Syno several Parishes in the
with respect to Popula
&c. Also Tabular Vie
several Counties and P
to the same important taken by order of Parli