 the beloved wife of John Coffey, Esq. to the inconsolable grief of her husband and young family, to whom the unexpected death of this excellent woman is truly a loss that no earthly comfort can repair, or compensate. The deep affliction of her widowed husband and orphan children will find a responsive echo in every respectable domestic circle in that extensive neighbourhood, as well as in the cottages of the labouring poor, to whose wants she oft administered.
 On Wednesday night last, at his house, George's-street, after a short illness, Thomas William Monsell, Esq. Attorney-at-Law.
 Seldom has the painful duty devolved upon us of recording the demise of one so generally—so deservedly regretted. In every position of life, whether we regard him in his domestic capacity as a most kind husband and affectionate father—in social life as a sincere friend, or in his professional duties as the zealous, upright, and faithful advocate, he was peculiarly distinguished. He won the esteem of all who had the happiness of his acquaintance—and as he lived so much respected, so the announcement of his premature death was received by all with heart-felt concern. Mr.
 M. was in the vigor of manhood, and held a first place in his profession in this city—but "in the midst of life we are in death!"
 A tender and affectionate wife, and young family, are left to mourn their sad bereavement.
