

not proceeds abruptly from the head not bin. The colour does not vary, the back the appearance of a uniform polished y have each but one fistula or spout hole, t far behind the eye, through which they ities of water at intervals, causing the a marine Jet d'eau ascending to a vast maxillary bone of the largest of these fish t three feet and a half, the fish themselves to 30 feet in length, the circumference feet, and the height, when lying, being each being in size equal to six large cows—hat they will produce to the captors about rich oil, from 80l. to 100l. wor. h. They cess of cutting up, and the oil is being ptors.

MILITARY SHAM FIGHT.

It took place on Friday, between Kinsale Ballyhasset and Five-mile Bridge. By an t gallant officer, Sir George Bingham, the 19th and 22d Regiments marched from a o'clock, in the morning, under the com-respective Majors, (Raper and Craster,) manded as a provisional Battalion by Brevet-on, of the 19th Regiment. The two depots about 260 men; 19th, 80 men; 22d, 180 air packs, and one day's provisions cooked. a of eight miles to the position this little ined to take up, (little, compared with the force it was destined to cope with,) it saw the 3d Dragoon Guards, the 11th Depot, Regiment, posted on a strong position at the of Ballyhasset. The provisional Battalion assume the importance of a Brigade, and was the command of Colonel Mansel, of Sir ham's staff, who lost no time in making a his little force. He ordered Major Craster, ter part of the 19th and 22d, to take up a road to the right of the Bridge, which he attack immediately. He then placed Lieuteof the 22d, with a company of men, in an sition, behind a new ditch, which enabled the Colonel's advance to the Bridge—and emy at the other side. Every thing being ew moments, the gallant Colonel then placed e head of his remaining troops, with Majors ad Raper, and commenced his advance to the ch was to be contested. At this time, there g fire kept up by the sharpshooters of the were far advanced on each side of the Bridge; ttle band got half way over, they were charged ody of Dragoons. The two companies of the the command of Major Raper, fired a volley agoons, when they were quite close, and imme-ne to the kneeling position to receive the id commenced a sort of street firing, (as the of the Bridge prevented the Major extending when the Dragoons saw with what a reception likely to meet on the tops of the bayonets, they n excellent style, and went threes about, at ent Major Raper fired his kneeling ranks into y retreated. Although victorious one moment, oon to give up the conquest of the Bridge, in-turn before a superior force; the main body and the guns commenced a fire. Colonel ducted his retreat in good style, retiring on ster, who, as before stated, was posted on the right; this retreat was covered by Lieutenant rty, who also covered the advance; Lieutenant joined Major Raper's party. Colonel Mansel he right, in order to possess himself of the d Bridge, called Five-mile, about a mile and a ce from him, before the enemy could reach it, were endeavouring to do on the other side of Major Craster was ordered to advance, and e Bridge and Village, which he did, although y the 53d Light Company, and part of the 11th Major Craster had two companies with him in occupy this Bridge and Village; one company h, under the command of Lieutenant Burns, pany of the 22d, under Ensign Bayly. The of Captain Smyth, of the 41st Regiment.

In London, the Rev. Ralph Lewin Henson, Rector of Easthope, Shropshire, and son of R. Benson, Esq. M. P. to Amelia, only child of John Dyer, Esq. and granddaughter of Lieut.-General Sir George Sackville Brown.
At Dover, Archibald Barklmore, Esq. of Bloomsbury, to Miss Hessey Owens, of Tildarg, Ireland.
At Westminster, Philip Burgess, Esq. of Duke-street, to Sophia, second daughter of the late Major Crampton Green, of the Bombay Establishment.
At Bolton Peny, Yorkshire, the Rev. David Markham, grandson to the late Archbishop of York, and one of the Canons of Windsor, to Catherine, second daughter of Sir William Milner, Bart. of Nun Appleton.

DEATHS.

On Tuesday evening, at Adare, in this county, Eliza, wife of William Fosbery, Esq. Few possessed more amiable qualities than this lady; she was an affectionate wife, a tender parent, and a sincere friend, beloved by all who knew her, and sincerely regretted by a large connection and numerous acquaintance—she resigned her soul to her maker, with an humble hope of a blessed resurrection through the blood of her Saviour.
In Dublin, Mrs. Forster, mother of the Rev. Doctor Forster, of this City.
At Gorey, in the 40th year of his age, the Very Rev.
John Francis Dunne, Provincial of the Order of St.
Francis, in Ireland.
In Dungannon, Mr. John Hurst, Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Preacher.
In Belfast, Mrs. Anne Crawford, aged 105 years.
In the 20th year of her age, Mary, eldest daughter of Laurence Strange, of Aylwardstown, Co. Kilkenny, Esq.
At Ballymannion, County Mayo, the Rev. John Mannion, Parish Priest of Kilcrist, in same County.
In Dublin, Maria, wife of Joseph M'Cormick, Esq.
At Sandymount, Dublin, Miss Charissa Dawson.
Mr. John Cahill, of Ballymurphy, County Clare.
At Leamington, Jane, eldest daughter of Richard Guinness, Esq. of Dublin, and wife of Thomas Dixon, late of Castle-Court, Shrewsbury, Esq.
At Clonegal, County Carlow, aged 73, Mr. Abraham Hope, formerly of Gorey.
At Salisbury, near A'hy, Christopher, eldest son and heir of Colonel Johnston.

Suddenly, on Saturday, at Ballitore, at an advanced age, Mr. William Leadbeater, of the Society of Friends, postmaster of that place, an upright man, who was esteemed by all who knew him. And on Monday evening, almost instantaneously, his niece, Mrs. Fitzsimons, wife of Mr. Fitzsimons, Agent to the Cork Mail Coach Company, &c. in Kilkenny. Mr. F. had parted with his wife she being then in perfect health, in the morning to attend her uncle's funeral. These are solemn warnings to us all, that "in the midst of life we are in death."

In Worcester, the Rev. T. A. Willis, late Chaplain of Cawnpore, in the East Indies.
At Urney, the Honorable Mrs. Jones, wife of the Rev. James Jones.
At Edinburgh, John Moffatt, Esq. of the 92d Regiment, son of the Rev. James Moffatt, of Ballymahon.
Granville Henry, infant son of Viscount Ebrington.
In Cork, Sarah, eldest daughter of Robert Evory, Esq.
In Paris, William Young, Esq. late Secretary to the Lords Commissioners for confirming sales of Ecclesiastical Estates for Redemption of Land-Tax.
Jane, wife of Captain D. Wilson, Political Resident at Bushire, and daughter of the late Professor Young, of Glasgow.
In Cork, Mr. A. Peding, Royal Navy.
At Whalton, in consequence of the overturning of his gig, William Hepple, of Blackheddon, Northumberland, Esq.

PRICE OF IRISH STOCKS—SEPT 10.

Bank Stock, .....	250
Government Debentures, 4½ per Cent. ....	94½
Government Stock, 3½ per Cent. ....	93½
Government Consols, 3 per Cent. ....	86½

TO BE LET,
IN UPPER CECIL-STREET,

Mr. JAMES DELAHUNTY
3/15
AUCTION
TO be Sold by Auction, at SPAHILL FINAN, on WEDNESDAY, the succeeding days, the HOUSEHOLD F consisting of Bedsteads, Feather Beds, Ma ings, Window Curtains, Tables, Chairs, Also Kitchen Furniture, and Farming
Purchasers to pay King's duty.
2/15
GIBULON
Charleville,
Spa-Hill, Sept. 10, 1827.

CHEAP
MUSIC AND PR
ON SALE,
FOR FEW DAYS ONL
THE Nobility and Gentry in Limerick are most respectfully acquainted, th tion of London printed MUSIC is now the usual price, consisting of Lesso ations, Quadrilles, Duets, &c. for variety of Vocal English and Italian a great quantity of Violin and Flute M easy studies for the Flute—also, a v Glees, Duets, Dances, Marches, &c. prices as usual. Catalogues of Half-F Songs to be had gratis at No. 24, Limerick, where may be seen a few and Portraits of the King, Duke of lishing by same) at a very low price.

ALBION
FIRE AND LIFE INSURANCE
New Bridge-street, London AND
No. 9, Cavendish-row, Empowered by Act of Parli
Capital—ONE MILLION PERSONS insuring with the AL will find the greatest security. T are as low as any other respectable Of and the plan upon which the business i as to give every facility and satisfactio Losses are paid within Thirty Day without the deduction of Fees or Co
JOSEPH CHARLE
Agent for Albion Office, No. 3, Cecil-street,
Sept. 12th, 1827.

NOTICE TO MA
THE COMMISSIONERS of LIGHTHOUSES give NOT following Lighthouses, viz. KINN Aberdeenshire; ISLAND GLASS
Isles; MULL of KINTYRE
ISLAND PLADDA, at the entr Clyde, have recently been improv effect, without, however, altering th pearance as STATIONARY LIGHTS. two distinct Lights, the one above t the increased elevation of the Towers appear like Stars of the first magnitu 5 or 6 leagues, and intermediately a of the atmosphere, instead of from 3 as formerly.
2/15
C. CUNING
Edinburgh, 1st Sept. 1827.