

of Dublin. Imme-athew, who accompa-the new cemetery at for Besborough, the Ennis is accounted for alment of £900 to be re begun to ship flour

the West Indies, to who have absorbed

The United States
er to the same great

Irish potatoe crop are Dublin, Cork, Wexford
is it in the English name of the potatoe

me a butter market.—
ged hands. Formerly ere the Kerry people English miles, at an ex-

ge. The buyers now
n Valentia for London only two miles from

ese, butter, and other recently made for being
f the United Kingdom.
eited two importations

“Cork;” this is an gue as respects Dutch ion as if Irish. Last an butter came with a t.” A lot of 100 boxes

Single Gloucester” is eries are on provisions oods sold for the benefit nsist of “nothing good ed.

Foreman in the build-on Ferry, Kerry, sud-

a fine brig, belonging ne last, while on her n reported. The crew eats, and after tossing
a state of great ex-

ERICK CHRONICLE.
ement, Achill Island,
ber 10, 1845.

opy of your paper cone, reiterating the misteagle published on his
to the public, so do I,
come to a correct judg-lished the whole cort, of which I send you
n the CHRONICLE.

ful servant,
WARD NANGLE.

At Jamaica, Doctor M'Ilree, 77th, to Miss Wilson.
At St. Peter's, Pimlico, Charles Rendall, Esq., of Merriott, Somerset, to Helena Florence, daughter of the late Major Worthington, of Tunbridge Wells, Kent.

DEATHS.

At Mrs. Villiers' Buildings, Nicholas-street, aged 78, Mary, relict of James Boland, Esq. of Ennis, Attorney, and one of the original widows in that benevolent foundation.

Suddenly, at the Glebe, the Rev. Bond Hall, for many years Rector of Taghmon, county Monaghan.

Suddenly, in the Confessional of the Chapel of Louisburgh, county Mayo, the Rev. Hugh Malone, R.C.C.

On Wednesday last, in Carr-street, Mr. P. Caulfield, Deputy Weigh-master at the Butcher market.

At her house in Malor-street, Cork, Mrs. Molony.
In Cornwallis-street Mrs. M'Carthy.

At Gurtymadden, the Rev. John Griffin, P.P. of Mulla.

At Waterford, Miss Margaret Henderson.

At Mountpleasant-avenue, Elizabeth, relict of the late Edward Cooney.

At Westport, Mary, relict of Mr. Samuel Bingham, Quarter Master of the South Mayo Militia.

Andrew Trevor, Esq. of Loughbrickland.

In Belfast, Jane, wife of William H. Sproull, and daughter of the late Major Robert Bell Fulton, of the Bengal Artillery.

At her house in Downpatrick, Christina, relict of the Rev.
George Crane, of Ardglass.

At his residence, on East Wall, Derry, David Moore, Esq.
aged 82 years.

At Monksland, Cooly, Elizabeth, sister of Richard De Ver-don, Esq.

Charitie, wife of the Rev. William Stewart, Belfast.

At Fleetwood, Jane, wife of John Galwey, Esq. Belfast, and daughter of the late William Malcolm, Esq. of Comber.

Rosa Emma, relict of Mr. John Kent, of Belfast.

Anne, the wife of William Wyndham, Esq. of Beech Lodge, Great Marlow, Bucks, grand-daughter of the late Edward Stanley, Esq. of Dublin.

At Torquay, Alexander Copland, Esq.

At Montagu-square, Mary, widow of the late Peter Bicknell,
Esq. Kensington Gore.

At her house in Cavendish-square, in the 76th year of her age, Margaret, widow of the late William Mellish, Esq. of Woodford, Essex.

At Rosherville, Northfleet, Anna Amelia, the wife of Captain Michael Rimington.

At Kensington, Anne, wife of J. J. Unwin Clarke, Esq.

At Peckham, Thomas North, Esq. in his 90th year.

At Peasmarsh, Sussex, Mrs. Mascall, aged 80, mother-in-law to H. B. Curteis, Esq. M.P.

At Isleworth, Charlotte, relict of Major Charles Jones, of the 15th Hussars, and Aide-de-Camp to the King of Hanover.

At Burton-upon-Trent, Anne, relict of James Allsop, Esq. of Derby.

At Greenwich Hospital, aged 72, the Rev. David Lloyd, senior chaplain.

At Spring-cottage, Stapenhill, Mr. John Mason, of the firm of Mason and Gilbertson, brewers, Burton-upon-Trent.

At Leamington, Mary Alsager, widow of the late Lieut.-Col.
Tryon.

At Jamaica, Alexander Forbes, Esq. member of the House of Assembly.

At New Orleans, of fever, Mr. James Colquhoun, formerly proprietor of the Ballina Advertiser, Mayo.

Charles Blake, Esq. of Merlin Park, Galway, in the 80th year of his age.

At Loughton, county Kildare, Mrs. Forrest, aged 76, relict of the late George Forrest, Esq.

At Clonsilla, Hester, relict of the late Joseph Pemberton, Esq. Chief Magistrate of Police in Dublin.

At New Ross, Sarah, wife of William Jeffares, Esq.
At Plymouth, Margaret Maria Alicia, wife of Captain Geo
B. Rose, late 69th Regiment.
Mary, wife of Charles F. Brockholes, Esq. of Maines Hall, Poulton, near Preston, and niece of the Right Rev. Dr.
Carruthers, R.C. Bishop, Scotland.
At Baring-crescent, near Exeter, Charlotte, wife of General
Clay, K.C. daughter of the late Colonel Harry Bisshopp.
At Agra, Lieut. Urban Moore, son of the Rev. Edward Moore, Rector of Whitechurch, Oxon, and Adjutant of the 60th Bengal Native Infantry

tenance and working It is proposed in the single line of rails, b on the Ulster Line is sufficient land, and p
Line. The single Lin more than £8,000 pe
Applications for Sh
FITZGERALD, Stock a
Limerick, or to the S
FRIDAY, the 26th I
tion will be received.

(Form of
To the Provisional Western
GENTLEMEN,—I h me Shares
posed Railway, and £2 10s. per Share up pleased to make, and tract, and Subscribers

Dated this day of 1845

COUNTY
GENERAL QUARTER
MICH
DIVISION
Newcastle, Thursd
Rathkeale, Tuesday,
DIVISIO
Bruff, Tuesday, O
Limerick, Monday, O

THE Grand Jury wi
Friday, October s and the Petty Jury o'Clock.
The Grand Jury will October twenty-third,
the Petty Jury on the
The Grand Jury wi
Thursday, October t and the Petty Jury on Nine o'Clock.

By order,
M. F
D.
Printed Bills, g
the above Sessions, can Peace Office, and from George-street, Limerick.