

In Wexford, Richard Standish Dowsley, Esq. Collector of Customs at that port, to Mary, daughter of Wm. Dudley, Esq.

DEATHS.

At Portobello Hotel, Dublin, John Reynolds Peyton, Esq. D.L. of Laheen, co. Leitrim, formerly of the 60th Rifles, only son of the late John Peyton, Esq. Colonel of the Leitrim Militia.

In Clonmel, of hooping cough, John Leslie, only child of the Rev. John Hewitt Wren, Vicar of Rathronau.

Yesterday, at his house in William-street, suddenly, Johanna, wife of Mr. Gilbert Dowling, Hat and Cap manufacturer, leaving five young children to her afflicted husband.

At his brother's house, Blackrock, Cork, Mr. Thomas Seymour.

Margaret, daughter of William D'Alton, of Athassal Abbey, county Tipperary, and sister of the late Doctor Edward D'Alton of Bansa, a young lady whose death is deeply regretted by her relatives and friends.

At Proburst, county Cork, Elizabeth, daughter of the Rev. James Roe, minister of the parish of Partou, N.B. and wife of Henry Rmanuel Turner, Esq.

At Greenfield, Ballincollig, Frederick C. MacCarty, Esq. M.D.

At Dormstown, county Meath, Anna Maria Roberts, relict of the late Rev. John Roberts, of Rathcore, county Meath.

At Eyre-square, Galway, on Thursday, Mr. Martin Swift, Apothecary—a gentleman whose death is deeply deplored by the poor of the town, and regretted by a numerous circle of friends.

Jeffrey Browning, second son of Joseph Hone, jun. Esq. of Herbert-place, Dublin.

At Banagher, Mr. David Thompson Glenn.

Aged 87 years, Mr. John Nolan, of Coolroe, county Cork.

At Oranmore, Mr. Thomas Kelly, brewer.

At the Dominican Nunnery, Taylor's Hill, Galway, Sister Sarah Monahan.

Mr. Timothy Cleary, of Urard, county Kilkenny.

In Drumshambo, county Leitrim, John Charles, son of Mr. Miles Tobyn, of Capel-street.

In Lower Dorset-street, Catherine, eldest daughter of the late Hugh Bleakly, Esq.

At Merrion-square, Eleanor Mary, eldest daughter of the late Theodore Baillie, Esq. Tirnaskea, county Tyrone.

At Reamore, county Meath, Miss Connor.

In Belfast, Alice, wife of the Rev. J. Mack.

At the Old Men's Asylum, Russell-place, Mr. George Payne, aged 94 years.

At Dungannon, William Robinson, Esq. Superintendent of National Schools.

At Guernsey, Narissa, relict of Doctor Michael Quarry, of Cork, and eldest daughter of John Hutton, Esq.

At Bath, Jane, wife of Major-General P. Bunbury, K.H. commanding in Jamaica, aged 72.

At Bembridge, Isle of Wight, the Hon. Miss Colman, Maid of Honour to her late Majesty Queen Charlotte.

Ann M'Nabb, widow of the late Captain Simpson M'Nabb, of Liverpool.

At Southampton, Major Gordon, late 2d, Queen's.

At Pimlico, Harriet, relict of the late H. Rolleston, Esq. of the Foreign-office.

Henry Bentley, Esq. late of Argyle-street, Argyle-square. Suddenly, in London, Alexander Craig, Esq. of Glasgow.

At Rodney House, Clifton, T. Perrott, Esq. aged 79.

At his lodgings, Princes-street, Cavendish-square, Michael O'Callaghan, Esq. of Carracas.

At Daleerf Manse, the Rev. Dr. Russell.

At Chelsea, Charlotte Eliza, widow of the late Capt. W. R. Maidman, of the Bengal Army.

At Claremont-terrace, Pentonville, the Chevalier Antonio Da Costa, Brazilian Vice Consul in London.

At Stoney-Creek, Western Canada, Charles George Brabazon, late first Lieutenant Royal North British Fusiliers.

Tuesday night, at his seat, Kilmore, in this County, suddenly, John Tenthill, Esq., son of the late John Tenthill, Esq. of this City—a young gentleman very much regretted.

At Exmouth, the wife of Captain Stawell, lately appointed Barrack Master at Lullamore.

At Boulogne, of paralysis, Augusta Louisa, wife of Colonel Demetrius Browne, of Brown-hall, Mayo.

At Goringslar, Brevet Major Balfour, 32nd Regt.

prime quality; about remainder for Dairy C
Proposals will be rec
George-st., Limerick.

TO

And immedi
THAT Large Plot o
rere of the Artille
Road to the Old Cork
sion of Mr. Sandwith.
well built, 10 foot Wa
Timber o r Coal Yard space. There is a la Garryowen Road. It v
any capitalist desirous having a large Frontag
Application to Rob
Limerick.

Sale of Incu in I

Notice to Claim

In the matter of the E
JOHN L. BENNETT
FREEMAN CROFTS, F
Owners and Petition

ordered that the Land
situate in the baronie
Fermoy, and in the bar
lyroc, situate in the bar
and in the said count roghtonbroe, held und able for ever, and Prem adjoining, the town of
of lives renewable for Orrery and Kilmore, an said, and the Lands
north liberties of the C
the purpose of discharg

Now, all Persons cla the said Premises, who hereby informed that any application which bring before them, on Office, 14, Henrietta-st month from the date he
And all Persons claim on the said premises, or to lodge a brief-statem
the said Office, within t date hereof, and also to in order that they may in what manner their c

Dated this 21 day of
HE
WM. MAGRATH, Sol
proceedings, 36, South Charleville.