

Manners, Accomplishments, &c.—We have seen the M.S. of this work, dedicated, by permission, to Lady Peel. It is evidently the production of a man of genius and considerable research. It is unquestionably one of the most cleverly written and valuable works on the subject. Our attention to other duties prevents us from further remarks at present; but, if what we have said shall aid in the circulation of the principles which constitute the matter of this performance, we shall have gained an object, and the friends of Religion and Morality will have abundant cause to rejoice.

Durham Stock. (Bird-XL) is highly valued, valuable and Nenagh, nine miles from each, on the Mail Coach Road.) There has never been an Auction in Ireland offering inducements like the present, to Purchasers of the Improved Short Horns. This is not the sale of part (often the rejected part) of a Stock; but of the entire collection. It has been carefully and personally selected in the County of Durham, by Mr. Atkins himself, without regard to the enormous prices there charged for pure blood. Many of the Cows were in-calf at the time, to Match'em, one of the most famed Bulls in England, and the remaining part have been bred from the imported stock; they are in-calf to Cupid, and the young stock is of the finest class. The Sale will be an open, fair, unreserved one. Every particular will be given relative to the Cattle, and may be relied on as strictly correct.
Mr. Atkins' Stock has obtained Prizes of a greater extent than any Breeder in Ireland for his time. There cannot be a finer or better bred Bull than Cupid, and the Cows are the largest Milkers in the County Limerick.
Sale to commence at 11 o'clock.

Extraordinary Gifted Spolasco.
AND of his wonderful Cures, as performed on Mrs. Catherine Gleeson, of Honan's-quay, Mother of Mr. Wm. Gleeson, ship-broker, of Arthur's-quay, both of Limerick. It may be as well that the public should know that this is but one more of the many cases difficult to effect, but by no means so to Dr. S. who has cured effectually the most unyielding cases, which have baffled the skill of all the supposed "first-rate practitioners" in the different Cities through which Dr. S. has passed, which must, and will be, apparent to the public, as the Doctor is determined to insert in the Limerick Chronicle an advertisement weekly, from such of his patients as will permit it, during his sojourn, for one year and a half more, which he proposes staying in Limerick.
"I, Catherine Gleeson, do hereby certify, that I have suffered under an affection of one leg for 18 years, swollen to three times its natural size, on which I had at least a dozen ulcers. I have consulted and tried many Doctors, but could get no benefit, till the great and good God sent Dr. S. to Limerick, under whose valuable surgical care I was not more than three weeks till I had the happiness to find that all my ulcers were not only cured, but my leg was restored to the natural size and soundness. May the Great God ever protect Dr. Spolasco. Given under my hand, this 15th day of September, 1836.
CATHERINE GLEESON."

N.B.—Though Doctor Spolasco cannot waste valuable time in replying to every unconnected and unmeaning paragraph Mr. Hadyn may choose to publish—paragraphs that want sense as much as the * * *—still Spolasco cannot see without some remark, the name of a resident Surgeon of Limerick lending his pen to assist the Times, whose gross and palpable falsehoods ought to have prevented Surgeon's foolish letter in the last Times. Should Spolasco review the practice of Surgeon —, and he begs to remark it would not occupy much time, how would that individual like it? Spolasco considers that the more his own patients are spoken of, the more his fame shall extend; so let the Times and the Surgeon write on; Spolasco can easily prove his own statements, for which purpose he affixes the signature of not only Grimes, who God be praised is now in perfect health, but also of those respectable Farmers who accompanied him to the C. L. Infirmary.
