

talk about PATRIOTISM,
heard for years.
dient servant,
AMUEL DICKSON.

Mulholland, Esq. this the Mechanics Insti-

appointed Rector of the rt of salt to the East nn.

Queen's County, lately
he lands of Erry Arm-se lands he handed over has many hands emg the property, Howived, through post, a e from his employment intend his works.

farmer named Daniel n, near Birr, was disanding that assistance quantity of corn was

l of Limerick, accom-Esq. and J. Brockett, visited the celebrated aves, near Pery-square.
h those extensive con-nliness, regularity, and ent, called forth many probation and after a detail connected with l force, expressed his apt a branch of local e enquiries from the d amount of remune-to which were most eral sum to be distrideparture amid the has favored the entees, with large orders.

of Birr, and Webb, of d to exchange stations
, was this week cut of nnistymon. The first nd fourth hay

ERICK CHRONICLE.
Achill Island, Sept. 24.
pers a paragraph cal-
that a Rev. personage,
, had absconded, taking een collected for build-ts in this settlement, the report is utterly occurred.

ient servant,
DWARD NANGLE.

In Cheltenham, Aeneas Ranald M'Donnell, Esq. to daughter of Major-General John Briggs.

At St. Marylebone Church, Thomas Hagarty, Esq., of Dublin, to Malvina Jemima, only daughter of John Richards, Esq., Wharncliffe-terrace, St. John' Wood-road.

DEATHS.

At Rye-field, county Roscommon. the residence of her son-in-law, Christopher K. Taaffe, Esq. in the 74th year of her age, Catherine, relict of Michael Lynch, Esq. of Granagh, county of Limerick.

At Mellifont-avenue, Kingstown, Mary, the wife of Mr. Thomas Williams, Builder, eldest daughter of the late Captain Henry Harding, of Bilboa, county Limerick.

In her 88th year, at her residence in Granby-row, Mrs. Bennett, widow of the late Francis Bennett, of Thomastown, King's County, Esq.

At Rose Cottage, Doonass, Mary, daughter of the late Michael Dondon, Esq. of this City.

At his lodgings, Touriene Terrace, Passage, Mr. Samuel O'Brien, of Great George's-street, Cork.

At Newcastle, near Blarney, Thomas Fuller, Esq.

At Castle-street, Mr. James Le Bass, aged 79 years.

At Gort, Eliza, wife of Mr. Patrick Burke.

In Castlebar, Mr. Thomas Flannery, Printer.

At Fintona, Hamilton Watt, Esq. for many years postmaster of that town.

At Carysfort Avenue, Joseph Montgomery, eldest son of Richard Montgomery, Esq. North Great George's-street, Salicitor.

Mr. John Fisher, Newtown, Kildare:

At the house of her grandmother, Pakenham-place, Reilist, Matilda, daughter of L. W. Dickson, Esq. of Drogheda.

At the residence of Mr. Barry, of the Theatre Royal, Hawkins-street, after having given birth to a son, Louisa, wife of B. Baker, Esq. the comedian.

At the residence of her brother, Mr. John Mulholland, Belfast, Catherine Ross, relict of the late John Ross, Esq. of Sheep-hill, Londonderry.

In Omagh, Mr. C. W. Klophe, formerly Master of the Band, 50th Regiment.

Mary, wife of Mr. John Miller, merchant, Larne.

Le'and Hutchinson, Esq. of Ballyrath, near Armagh.

At Bath, aged 83, Mrs. Elizabeth Close, last surviving sister of the late Sir Barry Close Bart.

In Nelson-square, London, William Penn, Esq. great grandson of the late celebrated William Penn, founder of the province of Pennsylvania.

At his Villa, near Exeter, aged 63 years, Colonel John Carter, K.H. late of the 1st Royal Regiment, and father of Captain Carter, of that Regt.

John Morley, Esq. Charles-street, Berkeley square.

Aged 83 years, at Manchester, John Bracewell, supposed to be the last man living who was in the action with Admiral Rodney in the destruction of the French fleet, under the Com-de Grasse, in the West Indies, on the 12th of April, 1782.

At Bath, William Ross, Esq. formerly Attorney-General, Jamaica, aged 74.

At Greenwich, Ann, widow of Capt. Edgar, R.A.

At Suffolk-place, Pall-mall-east, Margaret, widow of D. Renoldson.

At Jersey, William Robinson, Esq.

At Loodianah, Lieut. and Adjutant Crowe, 50th Regt.

At Poonah, the wife of Quartermaster Young, 22d Regt.

On the 19th inst. at his residence in London, John M.
Esq. for several years an eminent export merchant of City. He was a gentleman of the highest commercial bity, in whom the utmost confidence was reposed in all actions. The warmth and sincerity of his feelings pleasacontrasted with the simple and unobtrusive deportment which he observed through life.

On Arthur's-quay, Capt. James Henderson, of the schooner Ballin Lass.

At Connaught Terrace, Rathmines, Emily, wife of Charles Gavan Duffy, Esq. proprietor of the Nation newspaper.

At Turlough, county Mayo, suddenly, Lieut.-Colonel Edward Fitzgerald.

Mr. Thomas Jones, Excise Officer, Enniscorthy.

In London, Harriet, relict of Henry Clark, Esq. of the 54th Regiment.

In Cheltenham, on Saturday, Mr. W. Abraham, the cebrated Optician,

man that it has been ap-talent and respectability i to whom he can with ple monials he can willingly
N. B.—Country Famil
notice.

Mr. F. also intends op at the Northumberland F

Equity

The Rev. Edward Fitzgerald
Conyers, and wife, a others.

Plaintiffs.

Pierce Crosbie, Barry Dent
and several others,

Defendants

Chambers on the Inns Q to the highest and fairest Towns and Lands of Clon
heige, Dunmuntane, Bal Clahandysse, Clahane, Shi
otherwise Ballylonglane,
macaddy, Drumgour, Dr
Caherulla, and Clanhudac
Meenogahane, Ardanght Tulloghna, situate in the County of Kerry; and als
Lisboughtin, Rusheen,
Aghnagreene, and Raint
Iraghticonnor and Coun
competent part thereof, fo mentioned. Dated this 1
The C

The above sale is adjou 12th day of November r aforesaid.

Dated this 9th

For rental, statement o
apply to Messrs. DELMEC
Attornies, 10, Lower C
Rathkeale, County Lim
STOKES, Esq. Attorney f
Gloucester-street, Dublin

LIMERICK

THE GUARDIANS o
contract for a supply
CUP or CROW POTAT
next, to the 1st AUGUST be required.
Sealed Tenders on the Clerk's Office, will be rece at 4 o'clock, to be laid b lowing day.

September 27, 1845.