DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE.

GALWAY, Sept. 12. At a general meeting the inhabitants of the town of Galway, held the Tholfel of said town, this day—Thomas aylor, Esq; in the Chair: the following resolutions were moved, and unanimously agreed viz.

Resolved, that the thanks of this town are due to the officers of the 27th and 40th regiments, now quartered here, for the good and gentlemanlike conduct.

Resolved, that the thanks of this town are due to the officers of the 27th and 40th regiments, now quartered here, for the good and gentlemanlike conduct.

Resolved, that we will collectively and individually support the magistrates and other peace officers, in maintaining the peace of this town, and in preventing any person or persons of any rank or description whatsoever, from disturbing that harmony which hath hitherto subsisted, and which, we trust, will continue, between the military and the inhabitants of Galway.

Resolved, that the chairman be requested to present a copy of these resolutions to the commanding officer of each regiment, now quartered here, and that the chairman may request the commanding officer to communicate the same to the corps under their respective commands.

Mr. Taylor having quitted the chair. Resolved, That the thanks of this assembly be due to Thomas Taylor, Esq. for his ready to be transported for life. — Denial Carroll, ditto.

TOBACCO.

ACQUAINTS his Friends and the Public, that his Vaults in Mill-Lane, are well stocked with best old CLARET, PORT, and White WINES, in Wood and Bottle, which he will dispose of on the most pleasing Terms. Limerick, Sept. 27, 1791.

Fashionable Millinary. DYPHNA GARDNER, RUTLAND ROW, LIMERICK.

MOST respectfully solicits the attention of her many respectable Friends, and the Ladies in general, to an entirely new, elegant, and very fashionable Assortment of Millinary, Laces, Muslins, &c. all of which are of the best Quality, and in the most genteel and prevailing Taste of the present Season; having been selected by herself with much Attention from the most capital Stocks of the first Houses, and principal Manufactories of London, and other Places. Choice of Haberdashery, &c. &c.

Mrs. Gardner's long and intimate connection with many eminent Houses in London, will afford her the most immediate Means of procuring a constant succession of the newest Fashions; and she has engaged a young lady from London, with the Assistance of whom, she has additional Hopes of pleasing in the tasteful Execution of every Article of fashionable Dress.

By uniting Economy with Elegance, she further hopes to deserve the Encouragement of her numerous Patrons and Friends, and to insure herself the Approbation of a generous Public, as she is determined to render every Article, and to execute every Order with which she may be honoured, upon the lowest Terms.
