merick, has open placed under orders to abark for South Africa, for duty with the 7th ivisional Telegragh Company, R.E.

On Tuesday a large hayshed, containing beween fifty and sixty tons of new hay, belonging Mr. Michael M'Mahon, of Nenagh, was burnt amage to the extent of £260 being sustained.

Mr. P. J. Roche, B.E. the Irish sprint chamion for some years, and international athlete, eft Cork on Tuesday night en route for Rongoon there he takes up a lucrative engineering ppointment.

At the recent examination at the School of Musketry' Hythe, Licutenant E. W. Gower. 3rd Sattalion Royal Munster Fusiliers (regular establishment), passed successfully, and qualified is an instructor.

The Lord Chancellor of Ireland and Lady Walker are now at Castle Gore, Co. Mayo, which they took for the season from the Earl of Arran. They will return to their Dublin house next month.

With reference to a report widely circulated that Signor Marconi was ill ou board the steamer Princess Mafelda, it is announced that the Marconi Argentine Co. wired on Tuesday that Signor Marconi is in excellent health.

With deep regret the news was received in Tralee on Monday of the death, after a shortillness, of Mr. Wm. Lunham of Dundalk, only son of Mr. Wm. Lunham of Trales. The deceased gentleman was manager of the Dundalk branch of Messrs, Lunham, Cork.

At Kilrush Town Court the magistrates presiding were Mr. J. S. Dowling (in the chair), and Mr. Batt Culligan. Several cases of drunkenness were disposed of. At the Petty Sessions some parties were fined for drunkenness on the race days.

The marriage arranged between the Rev. R. B. Ebbitt, Diocesan Curate of Waterford and Lismore, and Anna Josephine, younger daughter of the late Dr. Hewetson, Clonnel, is to take place quietly at St. Mary's, Clonnel, on October 18th.

Sergeant Major P. Devanney has been gazetted Quartermaster in the Royal Munster Fusiliers, with the honorary rank of Lieutenant. Sergeant-Major J. Anderson is gazetted Quartermaster of the Black Watch, with the honorary rank of Lieutenant.

At the City Police Court this morning, before Mr. E. F. Hickson, R.M., a man named Patrick Lynch, an old offender, was charged with drunkenness by Sergeant Conroy. It was stated to be Lynch's fourth offence of the kind in the twelve months, and in the circumstances he was sent to gaol for a month, failing to pay a fine of 40s.

The death has occurred at Enniscorthy, in his 57th year, of Mr. Richard Murray Evans, manager of the local branch of the National Bank. Mr. Evans caught a chill a few days ago and pneumonia supervened. He was a native of Limerick, and had been in Enniscorthy for about four years. A wido ver, he leaves a young family, for whom great sympathy is felt.

The Tipperary Technical Instruction Committee on Monday appointed Mr. Thomas M'Grath, Tipperary, as preparatory commercial teacher and assistant secretary, by twelve votes to five for Mr. C. Deer, Tipperary. The Committee also unanimously elected Mr. James O'Brien, Tipperary, as half-time instructor, of higher commercial subjects at £75 rer annum.

We are very pleased to learn that Mr. F. A. Haran, National Bank, Limerick, has been promoted Teller in the Bruff Branch. Mr. Haran on tone repulate afficial and his well-deserved for trial at the approaching Quarter Sessions.

B.D., Succentor of St. Mary's, and the Rev. W. L. Shade, B.A.

The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. J. Butler Ievers, looked lovely in a gown of avory satin, embroidered in silver, and draped with Limerick lace; a tiara of orange blossoms was arranged with her Limerick lace veil, and she carried a bouquet of white lilies, the gift of the bridegroom.

There were two bridesmaids, Miss Atkinson and Miss Furnell (cousins of the bridegroom) who wore pretty frocks of pale pink satin, embroidered with silver, black hats, and they carried sheafs of white lilies, which, with gold ox brooches, were the gifts of the bridegroom.

Captain Victor H. Kavanagh, Royal Irish Fusiliers, was best man.

Prior to the arrival of the Arrival of the Arrival Organist of the bridal of the Mr. Cathedral played "Marche Nuptiale" (Guilmant), Humoresque (Dvorak), and Rondo (Hellins). The Bride's March from "Rebecca" (Barnby), was played while the party had retired to the vestry to sign the register, and then as the newmarried pair passed down the carpeted aisie the glorious strains of Mendelsshon's Wedding March issued forth from the organ.

After the deremony a reception was held at Bellfield by Mrs. levers, and later on Captain and Mrs. Atkinson left town on their honeymoon tour.

The presents were very handsome and numerous. The bridal bouquets were made and supplied by Messrs E. Kidd & Co.

THE CITY SUDDEN DEATH.

The circumstances touching the sudden death of Wm. O'Hea, shoemaker, Nicholas street, on Tuesday were communicated to the Coroner Mr. J. F. Barry, J.P., yesterday by the Mary street police. It was explained to the Coroner that the deceased had been in indifferent health for some time, and having regard to this statement an inquest was not considered necessary.

CHARGE AGAINST GERMAN OFFICER.

At Farcham yesterday, Lieutenant Siegfried Helm, the alleged German spy, was committed for trial, charged with having sketched a number of forts at Portsmouth. The defendant reserved his defence. Bail was granted the accused in £1,000, and two British subjects each in £500.

THE RINK.

Electric Picture Palace.

Last night Mr. Willie Lee commenced his return engagement at the Rink, and was accorded a hearty reception from a full house, leaving no doubt that he is a great favourite with Limerick audiences. His programme last night was everything that could be desired. He will give a varied selection each evening this week. The pictures also are exceptionally good, especially those of the Eucharistic Congress at Montreal. This up-to-date film is much appreciated.

CHARGES OF EMBEZZLEMENT AND PURSE SNATCHING.

Yesterday Mr. E. F. Hickson, R.M., held a Special Court at the County Courthouse, for the purpose of completing the depositions in two eriminal easer, and finally committing the accused sympathy with him on the The letter was ordered minutes.

ALL-TRELAND INDUST

The Chairman said t adjourned until that day received from the Cork Association to attend or s Industrial Conference to the 4th and 5th of next would read the agenda, fi him (chairman) that the r a resolution of approval of the Vice-Regal Commi

Mr. Boyd amounced tl tion to attend the joint n of Commerce to be held October at 12.30 to consid the reports of the Viceres railways.

The Chairman-Now, is the advisability of se places, because if you sen authorise them to take u is a question of whether t of Commerce would not !

and dignified way of deal Mr. Holliday-I quite The Chairman-I we duties of this Confere Chambers of Commerce Associated Chambers of more authority in dealing any trade association. 1 send any delegates to Mr. Roche concurred man. Mr. Quin said a questi of the Viceregal Comm could be more carefully Chambers of Commerce.

Mr. Power thought th was the best to pursue. Mr. William McDonnel being unable to attend t

The Chairman said as majority report of the ways was that the railw by the State and manag of Ireland. That was I report,

Mr. Power-Unfortu -to be purchased by th Mr. O'Mara-I take i send no delegates to Co The Chairman-That meeting I think.

Mr. O'Mara said it railways were to be ma Councils. In his op necessary in the mana Ireland. As they all k treated at the present t he need only refer to h paying 27s a ton for th Liverpool, while they landed in Limerick fro ton. The majority rep change was necessary, an improvement on t

Mr. Power considere would be for the wo practicable. It would a great many years proposal that would no people. He thought should be referred Chamber. None of sides, but as business r examine the reports, a advantage of the count suggestion that it was Administration to Park in