

...were his Royal Highness's Guard
 ...panies of the 49th Regiment, under ...Beauchamp, have marched from ...route to Chatham.
 ...panies of the 74th Regiment move
 ...th.
 ...ies of the 35th Regiment have arrived
 ...wes.
 ...ort, of 252 tons, and the Amphitrite,
 ...appointed to convey the 9th Regiment
 ...nbarkation for Ireland.
 ...ndostan Regiment, was raised about
 ...immediately afterwards sent to India,
 ...itself on numerous occasions— espe-
 ...Dieg, and Agra. For these services
 ...return to England in 1806, the hono-
 ...Elephant, surmounted by the word—
 ...nce that period it has served in Spain,
 ...ore—in the expedition to Walcheren,
 ...Chatham—in Spain and France under ...ngton (when the word " Peninsula," ...appointments) and subsequently, in-
 ...has just returned, after a service, in ...teen years.
 ...o facings; but the idea that they have
 ...entirely unfounded; many Regiments

...ed, owing to various causes,
 ...of the Colonel determines the matter.
 ...e 76th has been detached to Wexford,
 ...the head quarters.
 ...ment of Foot, commanded by Lieut.-
 ...received splendid new Colours at Ply-
 ...e Lady of Major-General Sir John
 ...eday. The old Colours were given up ...on and Burslem, senior Ensigns, to ...hip presented the new standards. The ...s encircled by the Depots of the 43d,
 ...6th Regiments.
 ...ines, under Colonel Savage, at Chatham,
 ...with new colours on Wednesday, by her
 ...the Duchess of Clarence, in presence of ...ord High Admiral, who delivered an
 ...ited address to the corps, enumerating
 ...various parts of the Globe, and exhorting
 ...honours. One of the colours bears the
 ...be, with the motto, per mare et terras.
 ...Circular, dated the 11th of August last
 ...ments to officers of the Navy and Royal
 ...nk not inferior to Captains in the Army,
 ...at New South Wales and Van Dieman's
 ...eculiar advantages in consideration of
 ...They are not to make deposits for their ...Officers of twenty years' standing to be ...all quit rent; of fifteen years' standing
 ...or the first twenty years; of ten years' ...een years; and of seven years' standing ...r ten years. Officers to enter into bond
 ...reside for seven years, and not to sell
 ...until they have expended a certain sum ...half a crown an acre. The quantity of ...ted will be in proportion to the quantity
 ...he officer has, as in the case of ordinary ...will depend on the value of the land he ...ther from local circumstances, or from ...aracter on it—points which can only be ...in the Colony. Officers to provide them-
 ...lies with passage.
 ...o Military Promotions in the London
 ...day.
 ...Hays, Esq. is appointed Lieut.-Colonel
 ...von Militia, vice Fulford, resigned.
 ...Church Missionary Society is to meet on ...Mr. Mayers, the converted Jew, is to be ...in the Royal College of Surgeons com-
 ...20th instant.
 ...sessions commence on the 11th, and Trale
 ...toher.

rence Peel, Esq. of Elm Field.
 At the Friends' Meeting House, at Kendal, Charles Fox, Esq. of Wellington, Salop, to Sarah, daughter of William D. Crewsdson, Esq. banker.
 At Rathfarham, Mr. James Cummins, of Saggard Mills, to Mrs. Norton, of his Majesty's Treasury, Dublin Castle.

DEATHS.

At Roscrea, on the 26th ult. in her 34th year, after a short but painful illness, Mrs. Catherine Smith, wife of Thomas Smith, Esq. Barrack Master, leaving five sweet children, the objects of her most attentive care. The universal and deep regret excited by this event, proves how highly her many virtues were appreciated.—In affection as a wife, in tenderness as a mother, in every domestic excellence, in gracious demeanor to all, in judicious and constant liberality to the poor, and in sincere devotion to God, it may be truly said, she was an ornament and example to her sex.
 At Parsonstown, sincerely regretted, on Friday, the 21st instant, aged 50 years, Harriet, relict of James Connolly, Esq. late of that town. She was endowed with the most exalted virtues that could render her valuable to society—an affectionate wife, an indulgent parent, a warm and sincere friend, and had a charitable sympathy for the misfortunes and failings of mankind; she bore a long and lingering illness with the most steadfast resignation, and when she departed with a firm faith and confidence in Him in whose hands are the issues of life.
 On the Glanmire-road, Cork, Miss Eliza Rawlins.
 At Ballyknocken, County Cork, Mr William Orr.
 At Grange, near Waterford, Joseph Jacob, Esq.
 At Tivoli, Cork, Maria, the infant daughter of James Morgan, Esq.
 In Baggot-street, Dublin, aged 25 years, Thomas, eldest son of Robert Holmes, Esq. Collector of Sligo.
 At Enniskillen, Mrs Drummond, widow of Lieutenant Drummond, of that town.
 At her lodgings, Parliament-Bridge, Cork, Mary, relict of Benjamin Orpen, of Coolkerane, Esq.
 At Bordeaux, Elizabeth, wife of Samuel Rothwell, of Kingstown, County Meath, Esq.
 In Tralee, Mrs. Eagar, wife of Mr John F. Eagar.
 In Wexford, Lieutenant Charles King, Royal Navy.
 In Killarney, Mr. John Glissane.
 In Parsonstown, Elizabeth, relict of Mr. White, of Castleventry, County Tipperary.
 In [redacted] John Ashmore, late of Belfast, Esq.
 Mr. [redacted], formerly of Bray.
 Mary, wife of Mr. Thomas Kennan, formerly of Fishamble-street, Dublin.
 At Castlecomer, Robert Kane, Esq.
 At Menlo Castle, County Galway, aged 15 years, Eleanor, second daughter of Valentine Blake, Esq.
 At Mandy, near Cardiff, Captain Ray, many years Adjutant of the Glamorgan Militia.
 At Swansea, T. Chadlecott, Esq. late of his Majesty's Customs at London, nephew of the late Rev. Dr. Watts.
 In Liverpool, Alderman Jonathan B. Hollinshead.
 On the 23d of March last, on his passage home from the East Indies, Mr. William M'Carthy, second son of the Rev. Daniel M'Carthy, Donovan-street, Cork.
 In the prime of life, at Whitehaven, in England, Mr.
 Alexander Morgan, of Edendariffe, near Seaford, in the County Down, Linen Merchant. After taking a hearty dinner, he only survived a few hours.
 After a short illness, at his sister's, Mr. Whattey, in Queen-square, Bath, Bulkley Gould, Esq. only son of the late Colonel Nathaniel Gould, of the Guards.
 At Lower Gardiner-street, Dublin, John Battersby, second son of Robert Battersby.
 At Billericay, Sarah, daughter of Capt. P. Tomlin-son, R. N.
 Of a consumption, at his Lodgings on Shirley Common, aged 28, the Rev. R. Pollock, A. M. of the University of Glasgow.
 At Manchester, aged 75, Mr. Charles Wheeler, the original proprietor of the Manchester Chronicle.

Twelve Poor Widows, who are each to receive allowance of 24l. of the late Irish currency are to occupy the Twelve Alms Houses which are lately built in the Parish of St. Munchin, in Limerick, under and by virtue of the last Will and Testament of the said Hannah Villiers, and under the virtue of a certain Decree of the Court of Chancery of Ireland, made and pronounced, for the carrying into effect the trusts of the said Will into execution. And the Executors and Trustees hereby require, that such persons as are seeking to be so selected and appointed, do send a written statement respectively, to be directed to the said Executors and Trustees, and left at the house of the Rev. JOHN PINK one of said Trustees, in Glentworth-street, Limerick, on or before Saturday, the 20th day of October next, signifying such their wishes, and specifying their places of residence and means of living, and the places of residence of their respective Husbands living, and the time of the death of such husbands, and what families such Widows now have. And it is hereby required, that such claimants do send said Mrs. Hannah Villiers did by her said Will "that in such selection or appointment of Widows related to her own family should be preferred to any Widow or Widows not related to her own family." It is hereby required, that such claimants do send themselves to be related to the said Mrs. Villiers, in their written statement their precise degree of relationship, with inaccuracies. And further that the truth of the facts to be contained in such statements respectively, shall be authenticated by certificates to be annexed thereto of the respective Justices of the Peace and Magistrates residing near to the places of the respective claimants. And it is further notified, that if any person claiming the benefit of the said charity, shall make any representation by such certificate which shall not be well founded, she will be excluded from being entitled to the same: and no application on the part of any Widow, made after the date aforesaid, or at any time after said 20th day of October, instant, will be attended to.

CHANCERY.
 William Carr, Elizabeth Carr, } PURSU and Isabella Carr, } final Plaintiffs. } Majesty's H
 Charles Sainthill Smith, a } Chancery, Lunatic, by John Wilmot } made in this Smith, his committee. } ing date the Defendant. } March, 182 Wednesday of November next, at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at my Chambers, on the Dublin, set up and Sell, by Public Call, to the highest and fairest bidder, all that part of the Land called the Castle Park, the Bog Clover Field, the Orchard, and the Field thereto, and the little piece of ground there-unto, called the Spur; also that part of the Land lying westwards of and adjoining the Little Garden, commonly called the Coach-House Garden; Cow Field, adjoining the Castle Park, containing the whole 25A. 3R. 11P. plantation measure, in the Liberties of the City of Limerick, or a part thereof, for the purposes in said Decree mentioned.
 Dated this 4th day of August, 182
 J. S. TOULSON
 Title will be made from the Lease of 16th 1763, only, under which said Lands are held for a term of years, of which 186 years are unexpired, at a rent of £47 16s. 6d. present currency.
 Those Lands are at present Let under a Lease, and the Purchaser will be entitled to the possession of said letting.
 For particulars of Title, apply to ED-MUND SEYMOUR, Plaintiff's Solicitor, 104, Dublin.