

in health by his trip to the attended Divine service at n Castle, on Sunday. The the Rev. Charles Fleury. s of the late Master of the n to purchase an estate for most eligible mode of proving t worthy man and excellent he remains of this lamented between this and Wednesday, l they will be removed tem- of the Conception, in Marl- t nine o'clock, the funeral ic Church will be performed as, we believe, the desire of our distinguished countryman, be conducted with as much sistent with propriety; but it ble to repress the feeling s and classes of our fellow- ve are proud to say, is ntlemen of all shades of d politics, to mark their res- the deceased by their pre- y occasion. In the meantime atter of certainty, that the e Church will have concluded e o'clock on Wednesday, at nd mourning coaches, which e church door, will proceed e, and will be followed by the will form in Sackville-street, street, in the direction of the le men renounced the Roman t. Audeon's Church, in the congreagation. Four others nverts partook of the Lord's renunciation roll, hree pence in the pound to ed by the new Corporation, is and remains for inspection at

B. Bishop, and 21 Priests, y, to give evidence for the before a Court of Inquiry, nvestigation has now assumed Mr. Wood, Chief Commis- London, and Col. Brereton, enue Police, have arrived to week imported from Ireland he whole Continent of Europe nine weeks of open trade, to of Great Britain. Liverpool d 6949 Irish sheep.

Powerscourt Castle, county of Wicklow, is being splendidly repaired and embellished by the noble proprietor, in the confident expectation of a visit from Royalty next summer.

Sir John Kingston James, as Director of the Grand Canal Company, James Ferrier and Chas. W. Williams, Esqrs. of the Dublin Steam Navigation Company, after making an inspection of the various navigable and commercial points of the Upper Shannon, on Monday morning left this city by the Erin steamer, Captain Kennedy, on a tour of inspection of the lower Shan- non, and of the river Fergus, to Clare, whence they proceeded to Kilrush, and nigh to Carrigaholt, return- ing same evening to Limerick, much pleased with their excursion, and the improvements visible at both sides of the navigation.

A few nights since Sub-Inspector Comyns of Thurles, aided by Constable Barrett and party at Littleton, County Tipperary, apprehended four men, charged on oath with having forcibly entered the dwelling of Edmond Cowin, at Ballybeg, demanded his money and inflicted injuries upon his person, for which three of them are to be tried at the assizes of Nenagh.

A countryman of the name of James Ryan, on Monday surrendered himself to the Ballyneety police, for the murder of Mr. Patrick Shine, of Carrigparson, and is committed to gaol for further examination.

A countryman of the name of John Conway, from Cahirconlish, was killed on Saturday night, at Boher- buoy, by his horse and car driving over him.

The Right Hon. A. R. Blake, Chief Remembrancer, left Dublin for England, on Saturday, to attend the funeral of his late friend and patron, the Marquis Wellesley.

The Provincial Bank, Ennis, has opened an agency office at Ballinasloe during the fair, to facilitate the operations of buyer and seller.

The St. George Steam Packet Company have re- duced their fares from Dublin to Liverpool.

Mr. James Werland is appointed Valuation Reviser of the Cork Union, at a salary of £100.

* * A Cork cotemporary, whose professional malign- ity often evaporates in foul abuse, has favored his readers with a synopsis on the incongruous topics of "hanging," and "duelling." Our Southern neigh- bour must be aware that the man who cuts his throat does not, in all such cases, cut the thread of his existence, but has been known to consummate his deadly purpose by strangulation. The Newspapers give frequent instances of this, and we guess the maniac retains cunning enough to do the deed in- bed, as well as out.—The determined bravery of Capt. Smith, 27th, in the duel with an American, at Gibraltar, however paradoxical it may appear to the Reporter, is matter of fact; but it must signify very little to any of that officer's friends whether the Reporter will have it or not.

"CLERICUS" in our next.

tion of Lieut. Mayne, Captain Eyre, 74th, Captain W. J. Stoke lery, from Woolwich, Wynne, have arrived Dublin.

The 12th Lancers ca leaving Dublin for Dur

The death of the ve Chief Magistrate, of G has put the whole islan one son, who has been Regt. at Bermuda, and pany in the last Gazette of Guernsey is in the Capt. Bushe, 1st Dr sign Matthews, 41st, C Fothergill, 50th Regt Friday.

Lord Cardigan and Colonel St. Quintin, and thomas Jex, E Richardson, Oxford B guese service, attende Fair last week. Horse at very high prices, w were not in demand. great avidity. Good c ble, and found ready horses were purchased

Mr. Hodgson, who Gibraltar, by Col. Can ral Hodgson, Colonel Regiment.

Lieut Du Bourdieu company in that Regt. at Gibraltar, and will

Lieut.-Col. Lord Cl left on a special miss invest that Sovereign

The municipal auth ham, and Bolton, hav their own police, Sir Capt. Burgess, Police Government, received will be dispensed wi be appointed Commiss Capt. Kincaid, late o date for same.

Col. Falla, Town-M from 9 months' leave official duties. Capta master, acted as T absence.

The gross fallacies only find a parallel in dity. For "back nu on the ex-War Office cious specimen of Mu