

...pool next week, and pany assembled at the on Thursday evening, to Limerick Academy Band.
re splendidly executed,
novelty in the arrange-y all present. Mr. Nøgle

t of our last impression :
mail steamer, Caledonia, Liverpool, after a passage ax, having encountered e Great Western, which reached that port when York papers announce e of the President of the h sailed on Saturday for l omnibusses for crossing eam-boat to ply on the

er. was leaving Bristol on ne had proceeded outside through a leak in her nfit for the voyage. She ect being rectified, she

on Friday for Germany.
ng the Special Commisrefused to admit Arthur chester inform us that er all through the manuoperatives have generally surmise that they intend rtly.

on Guards has arrived at l Commission, for trial of r Belfast, has arrived at on a visit to his father-in-erick.

l the Hon. H. Murray, Western District, the ow regularly paraded in unt Wyse, every Wednes-

ess Lists at Waterford
e Daniel Kinahan, Geo.
l M'Kenna, and Walter isters appointed by the but a dozen persons in connected officially with ors, &c. The Barristers re-appear on the 25th icipal Elections.

ublin, is to preach at the p, Bedford-row, on Sun-

Henry Brisbane, R.N. and grand-daughter of the late Admiral Brisbane.

In Belfast, Michael John Andrews, Esq. of Ardoyne Cottage, to Margaret, eldest daughter of Thomas Tripp, of Brookfieldt, Esq.

At St. Margaret's, Westminster, Joseph Cubitt, Esq. of Great
George-street, to Ellen, daughter of the late Lieut. J. Moore, R.N.

DEATHS.

At Longfield, county Tipperary, in an advanced age, Mrs.
Long, relict of the late Richard Long, Esq.

Mrs. Payne, the beloved wife of the Rev. Somers Payne, sister of Sir Augustus Warren, and mother of the Rector of Castle-connell.

At Ballybunnion, county Kerry, the Rev. John Quill, Parish Priest of Lisselton.

George Purdon FrenJ, aged 14, second son of George C. FrenJ, Esq. of Rosetta, near Cork.

Eliza Maria, wife of G. Browne Grant, of Grafton-street, Esq.
At Curragh, near Dunmore, Galway, Gerald Fitzgerald, Esq. at an advanced age.

At Kilmannham Wood House, county Meath, Miss Honoria
Boyle, sister of the late James Boyle, Esq. of Tullivin, county Cavan.

Mr. Myle Burke, of Galway, rope manufacturer.

At Upper Brook-street, the Hon. Caroline Montagu, granddaughter of Robert, third Duke of Manchester.

At Sutton House, Lancashire, Jane, eldest daughter of John Gower, Esq. of Roundwood Park, county Wicklow.

At Midealder Manse, Edinburgh, the Rev. John Sommers, D.D. aged 78.

At Kentish-town, Mr. William Farrar, late of Bread-street, Cheapside, and of Horsey, aged 68.

At Cheltenham, in his 70th year, William Tove, Esq. of Southeruhay, Exeter, many years civil judge at Gibraltar

At Portsmouth, William Butterfield, Esq. Rear-Admiral of the Red, aged 78 years.

At Airdrie, Mr. Thomas Shanks, 22 years a member of the Airdrie Troop of Lanarkshire Yeomanry Cavalry.

Maria, the wife of Major Travers, Barrack-master, Portsmouth.

At Edinburgh, Mr John Fletcher, bookseller.

At Bonnington Castle, near Lanark, Lady Mary Ross, eldest daughter of the late, and sister of the present, Duke of Leinster.

In St. James's-square, Lieut.-Colonel George Thornhill, C.B. formerly of the 13th, and late commanding 14th Foot.

At West-hill, Cowes, Georgina Emma, eldest daughter of the late Rev. J. D. Ward, Rector of Kingston, Isle of Wight.

At Castle House, Wiveliscombe, Somerset, Major-General
Charles Augustus Walker, of the East India Company's Service.

At Sherrifold-park, Sussex, Harriet Martha, daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel By, Royal Engineers.

At Hampstead, James Ivory, K.H. LL.D. F.R.S. and Member of the Institute of France.

Wednesday, at his house in the Crescent, to the general regret of his fellow-citizens, and the deep affliction of his family and friends, John Rochford, Esq.—an eminent merchant of this city, and a leading member of the Chamber of Commerce. The feelings of sympathy and concern (so prevalent for the death of this much respected gentleman) merely echo the public voice as to his genuine moral worth, whether we regard the uniform rectitude of his life, the integrity of his principles, or the courtesy of his manners. Religion afforded its consolations at the bed of sickness, and he died in faith and resignation to the Divine will. Mr.
Rochford's remains will be interred at the family burial place, St.
Mary's, on Saturday morning.

In Dublin, on the 4th inst. after a tedious illness, William D.
Creaghe, Esq. of Glin, in this county.

At the residence of his father, Thomas Byrne, Esq. Meadow Brook, county Dublin, Richard Byrne, Esq. Solicitor.

After a few hours' illness, John De Villers, Esq. at the Bank, Henry-street.

At Notting-hill-square, Dean Raynor Pike, Esq. aged 73.

At Southwell Cottage, Hampstead, Marmaduke Langdale, Esq.
eldest son of Marmaduke Robert Langdale, Esq. of Gower-street, Bedford-square.

Suddenly, the Rev. Dr. Molloy, of La Motte, Jersey.

At Stonehouse, Devon, Capt. Hugh Palliser, Royal Marines, a descendant of Admiral Sir Hugh Palliser.

At Essex-square, Hyde-park, Lieut.-General Sir John Sinclair, Bart. of Dunbeath, North Britain.

At Montreal, Mr. William Mitchell, a native of Fermanagh.

between Music and Fren
M. C. teaches the Fre on a new system, by memory, which discoura almost wholly avoided.

The great improve
Five years of his forme considers the strongest refer, with confidence,
City and surrounding Co

N. B.—Commands ad Roche's-street, corner of Corbett and Son, 39, Pa fully attended to.

NO
To Landed
WILLIAM SOUTHWELL
Gentlemen of this ties, that he has rece improved principle, Two-which has given facility (with less power,) free fr and failures attending equ
defective construction.

SOUTHWELL has erecte have most satisfactorily su
for the undernamed Gen rized him to state" that a
as to his abilities, will me

SOUTHWELL has also g Altering, Repairing, and expense, part of the V
power and speed were ins

References can be mad
Killfane, county Kilkenn Ballyline, county Clare ;
do. ; E. W. Burton, Cl Corbally, do. ; Charles S
do. ; Captain Kingsmill, C Cragg, do. ; John Power
ford ; Edward Synge, S
Thomas O'Regan, Moun
and William Montgome
Cork.

Any commands address
No. 21, Catherine-street
tually attended to.

TO B
For such Terms as
THE HOUSE, OFFICE
ANN Situate within 8 miles of one of the post to CONTAINING 3
Application to be made
field, Ballynacally, Ennis, information.