

the French King's plate value of about fifty thousand —The plate of the British valued at half a million, besides jewels to a vast amount.— The King has a diamond in his crown worth one hundred and several rubies of the richest and value as belonging to the Region will not be disposed of.— Jewels, composed of the finest brought on the disgrace of and a French Countess, (the made her escape out of the Paris some time since) was worth of livres, but her ornament given up; her Majesty is of external show, and is, no doubt and charming figure.
 Madras, mentions the mirable mate of a vessel, who forty-two feet and a half in in proportion.—This is not when we read in history, eighty feet in length, which of the whole Roman army, river in Africa, under the celebrated consul Regulus, but a stone thrown from one of attacking the walls of fortified of the enormous monster was centuries after. This country India or Crete, as also Ice-parts of the habitable globe from serpents, vipers, toads, and other creatures.—In warm climates, scorpions, &c. are to be persons are destroyed by them. the basilisk, and the asp, are reckoned.
 We hear that the Dutchfrigate-boat, did last week safe-passengers at Holyhead, after dangers of a dreadful storm, rendered still more tremendous having sprung a leak, when she sailed to the Eastward of Howth and was carried away before the Welch coast.
 Advertisers in this city advertise &c. at a low price, and even gratis; the public ought to be on their guard against such swindlers; the security of some established by buy tickets.
 The persecutions have made in the sister kingdom: 'tis

CANDIDATES.

To the GENTLEMEN, CLERGY and FREE-HOLDERS of the COUNTY of LIMERICK.

I AM induced by the most flattering promises of Support, to request the favor of your Votes and Interest, at the next GENERAL ELECTION, and be assured, if I shall be Fortunate enough to be the Object of your Choice, I shall endeavour by my Conduct, to shew you how highly I regard your Confidence.

I have the honor to be,
 GENTLEMEN,
 With the greatest respect,
 Your devoted humble Servant,
 JOHN WALLER.

Castletown, Oct. 11, 1789.

To the GENTLEMEN, CLERGY and FREE-HOLDERS of the COUNTY of CLARE.

WITH whatever anxiety I may have aspired to those Honours which my Family have so repeatedly received from the County of Clare, I should not have presumed to Solicit your Suffrages at so distant a Period from the probable Determination of the present Parliament, but that I might be thought deficient in Attention, where other Gentlemen had offered themselves to your Consideration.

Presuming then on that partiality which you and your Ancestors have so repeatedly shewn to mine, and feeling that I inherit from them at least one Merit, the strongest Attachment to the County of Clare, I take the liberty of offering myself as a CANDIDATE, for your Favour at the next GENERAL ELECTION.

I am GENTLEMEN,
 With the highest respect and esteem,
 Your most faithful and very humble Servant,
 FRANCIS NATHANIEL BURTON.
 Ennis, 10th October, 1789.

To the GENTLEMEN, CLERGY and FREE-
 HOLDERS of the COUNTY CLARE.

A CANVASS having taken Place in your COUNTY, for the HONOUR of Representing you in Parliament, and least my Silence may be thought a Neglect, I beg leave to assure YOU, nothing but an absolute Necessity, which materially concerns my Family, (and which every humane Mind will excuse) should prevent my Personally waiting on You, to solicit a Continuance of that Support I have repeatedly experienced, in so flattering and distinguished a Manner.

There is no Duty or Respect, which I am bound to shew to You, that any MAN can be more forward to Prove, than I shall on every Occasion; and most cheerfully seize the first Opportunity of expressing my Gratitude to You for former Favours, and hoping a Continuance of them.

If I am so Happy to be again honoured with your Confidence, (which I TRUST I have in no ways forfeited) it shall be the Study of my Life, as it is the Wish of my Heart, to prove myself Worthy of your Choice.

I am, with every Regard,
 GENTLEMEN,
 Donals, Your faithful and obliged Servant,
 Sept. 29, 1789. HUGH DILLON MASSY.

 HOLDERS of the COUNTY CLARE.

A Diffolution of the Parliament being shortly expected, I presume, at the Instance of several Independent Gentlemen of your County, to offer myself a CANDIDATE, on the ensuing GENERAL ELECTION, to Represent you in Parliament: And if I shall be so Fortunate
