

...eley, without, as his quest" of an individo not request but very few orphans
these very young ;
his than his Lord-
did not designate net "anti-scriptural."
eously chosen that ut we cannot avoid s of the Rev. Robert abers of committee.
the schools in ques-
secular and religious good was taught in and improve them—depted the National drew a strong con-under himself, and s predecessor. The r may harmonise this tain our own opinions y respectable man who ver the boys' school.
is lordship and others
nd vindicating "pa-mority, such as they their power in com-
nts, lay and clerical, y also violate in the refuge of "Paren-
it that the parents and properly assume as a body, and not e right of assigning d attend. Perhaps f the very recent conte to the National e a member of the h Education Society
ishop was its Patron.
ary received of the summer of 1848, and report up to that of Down's name ap-mittee as taking part Nov. 2, 1847. Let f he can, his asser-
e conducted on the st nominal adhesion
'till within a year of n and Connor, for we except in the asse-that the Rev. Preben-Testament class" in
ditor,
edient servants,
ting Secretaries, L. P.
Orphan Society.

...late William Harrison, Esq. of Whitburn, Durham.
Frederick Durant Deare, Esq. son of the late Lieut.-Colonel George Russel Deare, 8th Hussars, to Helen, daughter of James Uppill, Esq. of the Green, Bromyard, Herefordshire.
Albert Gahagan, Esq. 10th Madras Native Infantry, eldest son of the late Thomas Gahagan, Esq. Madras Civil Service, to Clara Frances, daughter of Captain Pritchard, R.N. of South-end House, Southsea.
At St. Louis, Missouri, David Middleton Cooper, M.D. of Randalstown, Ireland, to Fanny, eldest daughter of the late Major B. O. Fallon.
At Pazo, Lieut. V. H. Barton, 76th Regiment, to Mary, daughter of R. Blakeney, Esq. Resident of Pazo, Ionian Island.
William Smith, Esq. C.E. Board of Works, to Louisa Crofton, daughter of Lieut. William Dawson, R.N. Coast Guards, Belmullet, county Mayo.

DEATHS.

On Friday morning, the 11th inst., in his 41st year, after an illness of a few days, Edward William Burton, Esq. Staff Surgeon, Senior Resident Medical Officer, General Military Hospital, Dublin. His remains were attended to the grave by a large number of sorrowing friends and brother officers.
On Sunday last, in Ellen-street, at a very advanced age, Miss Helen Meade, an old and respected inhabitant of this City.
On Tuesday, in Ballinasloe, at the age of 24, George Newenham Graydon, Esq. youngest son of Thomas Hughes Graydon, Esq. late of Ardcarne.
At Lismoyle, Clenagh, county Clare, Jane, wife of Thomas King, jun. Esq. and daughter of Thomas O'Donoghue, of Riencams, aged 26 years.
At Phibsborough, Honoria, relict of Major Mannin, 74th Highlanders.
At Tralee, Mrs. Sarah Morris, relict of the late Samuel Morris, Esq. formerly of Ballybeggan Castle, county Kerry.
Mrs. Morris was in her 81st year.
At Cullane, Francis French, Esq. for forty years a magistrate of the county Mayo.
At Rose Cottage, Ballintemple, Fanny, wife of Wm. Smith Esq. R.N.
At Oakgrove, the residence of her son, aged 84 years, Anne, relict of John Bowen, Esq.
At Kingstown, at an advanced age, Anne, relict of the late Wm. Haliday, Esq. Deer Park, Carrick-on-Suir.
At Rutland-square, Margaret Anne, eldest daughter of the late Rev. John Burdett, Rector of Banagher.
At Cavendish-row, at an advanced age, James Denham, Esq.
D.L. late of Fair Wood Park, Enniskillen.
At his residence in Tralee, Mr. William Hilliard, aged 73.
Bidelia, daughter of the late Michael Mullery, Esq. Pro-Collector of Excise for Galway.
At the Wooden Bridge Hotel, Vale of Oroca, Hester, wife of Mr. James Kilbee.
Mr. Nicholas Clarke, of Great Britain-street.
At Lower Charlemont-street, Hannah Dalton, relict of the late Edward Dalton, Esq. in her 85th year.
At Conyngham-road, Michael Thunder, late of Ballyseskin House, county Wexford, Esq.
At his residence in Bridgefoot-street, Mr. Edward Berney.
At Derry Barracks, Mr. James Curry, of the 34th Regt.
At the Byron Hotel, Sutton, Emily Margaret, wife of Wm.
Brooke, Esq. master in Chancery.
Major-General George P. Wingrove, formerly commandant of the Woolwich division of the Royal Marines.
At London, aged 20 years, on her way home from Germany, Sophia, daughter of Mr. James Manly, of Dublin.
At Glasgow, William Dennistoun, Esq. Kelvin Grove.
At his residence, Lansdowne-parade, Cheltenham, at an advanced age, Captain Carpenter, R.N.
At Glasgow, Dr. Thomas Cunningham.
At Wellington Villa, Cheltenham, the Rev. John C. Eggington.
Rev. Daniel Guildford Wait, Rector of Blagdon, Somerset, one of the greatest orientalisists of the age.
At Filey, near Scarborough, the Rev. Henry Wm. B. Daubeney, Rector of Kirk Bramwith, near Doncaster, son of Major General Henry Daubeney, K.H. Colonel of the 80th Foot.
At Morley Rectory, Norfolk, Henry Astley Cooper, only son of the Rev. C. Beauchamp Cooper, aged 19.

most improved prin-
public should guard is a well-known fact but the wild produc-
quality and value fr into them, their rea per lb, when the du 4d to 6d-per lb. I fine old Jamaica, w warranted free from ground to order if

J.A.

(Successor)
Family Tea Dealer
street, next

CL

GENTLEMEN
ply are respect and prices at KEA
rison, will be pro
cheaper, than the
with no other recor cheap, and without 40, George-str

To t

CITIZEN

THE MOTHE
Classical Scho
etor of the largest reduced by a series control, to a state
with this distress th silently and endurin keep open a small s requirements exceed industry, and nothi the workhouse but

As many of the I now occupy most amongst the Citize appeal may not be superfluous to men her 80th year, is a and respectable fa
and her daughter is from resorting to labour for support.

Contributions wi
ful the Mayor ; Re
Rev. L. D. Conway
M'Donnell, O.S.D.
will be duly acknow