DENIS COROHEY, Resident of the Lands.

Mitchelstown

TO BE LET, FROM 1st

Or the Interest

THE CONCERNS lately occupied by the Workhouse in Clonmel, are capable of accommodating 1100 persons. The premises were originally used as a Workhouse, and a sum has been expended by the Government in repairing and adapting them for Distilling and Brewing; being in a Grain country, they might be used as Corn Stores. The Lofts are fitted with a patent Pumping Engine, able to raise 1000 Gallons of Water per hour, has lately been adapted for use, and may be disposed of with the premises.

Those concerns are situate at Mitchelstown, Town, from the county Tipperary, and are supplied with a continuous supply of good water flowing from the mountains. They are held under a Lease, dated the 1st of January 1824, for a term of 99 years, subject to a rent of £40. Any further information may be obtained on application at my Office here.

Tenders, addressed to the Clerk of the Poor Law Office, may be received by me up to 11 o'clock, on the 24th prox.

By order,

NUGENT
