

Director.
 The Clare Liberal Club dined in Ennis, yesterday.
 There are seven foreign vessels now discharging their goods at Galway. The trade of that port has greatly increased, and the average monthly receipt of duties is £11.
 Last week, seven potatoes were dug at Moore-Park, the weight of Lord Mountcashel, which weighed 21 lbs.
 The Fair of Bruss, on Thursday, was numerously attended. The quantity of stock was immense; cows were in brisk demand and extensive purchases effected at an early hour. Store Pigs were bought freely—the finer sort remained on hands.
 The Treasurer of the Mendicity Association acknowledges to have received from the Right Worshipful Thomas Marsh, Esq. Mayor, Thirty Shillings, part of a fine indented for a breach of the Sabbath.
 The Treasurer of the Lying-in Hospital, has received from the Mayor, one pound, being a fine handed over by him for the use of that Institution, at present in the greatest need of assistance.
 A very nearly 100% was collected at the sermon preached in Cork last week, by the Rev. A. M. Clintock, in aid of the Sick and Indigent Roomkeepers' Society.
 A Pointer Dog has been found straying near this City;
 the Owner can have him by paying expences, on application at this Office.
