

At the Cape, the ship had been sent to the Rear Admiral Sir H. Blackwood, was gone to the Liverpool to Calcutta; and the Curlew was The Voyage, at the Island of France, was healthy to return to Trincomalee, as soon as she was a vessel from the Cape.
 before the Minerva left the station, the following died:—
 Surgeon; Mr Maffatt, Assistant-Surgeon, and Royal Marines. Whilst lying at the Cape, son, a Midshipman, also died.

Sweeting, Royal Artillery, and Lieutenant of the Honourable East-India Company's Regiment—passengers from the Cape.—The Minerva on the 27th August, on the Line, and in W. long. 22.
 Company's chartered ship Clyde—all well.

DUBLIN—OCTOBER 25.

Monday, Judge Daly, Mr. Sergeant Joy, and sons of distinction, arrived at Howth by the Steam Packet, from Holyhead.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaquiere, Mr. Newton, and many other persons of distinction
 at Howth, by the Ipswich Steam Packet, Holyhead.

at Conway's Hotel, George's-street,
 The Right Hon. Lord Carbery and suite
 O'Connell; and William Wrixon Esq. M. P. &c. &c. on his return to Dublin.

Lord Lieutenant has directed the Comptrol-furnish the accounts of the Pipe Water with.

Recorder is perfectly recovered—he sat at
 on Tuesday, and several were convicted.

Irishman, a paper published at Belfast, censured at the conduct of Lord Donough-being so hostile to the Queen, and ends that the petition of four million of his men, shall not be allowed to remain in his p's name.

men Board is established at Killarney.
 have just been informed that the rumours in circulation for the last week, respecting ure of a large Smuggling Schooner, are d, his Majesty's ship My, Captain Collin, taken the Maria, from New-York, with off Broadhaven Bay. This vessel is d to the bends, and copper fastened, and for 14 guns. Seven of the crew escaped, re-taken. Two other smugglers in company haced in the same quarter, but escaped.—

Paper.
 are happy to find it announced, by Proclathat the Irish Government have, at the station of the respected Sovereign and other inhabitants, appointed that Sessions of the hall in future be held in Belfast, as well as m and Carrickfergus. This will be found ure of considerable importance to the town neighbourhood, great inconvenience having herto experienced from the want of such a Belfast.—Belfast Paper.

CRUETS—John Kelly, of Dublin, Brewer;
 and Pat. Flood, of Dublin, Woollen

STOCKS—Gov. Deb. 3½ per ct. 73½—ocks, 3½ per cent. 73½—Gov. Deb. 5 per 24—Gov. Stock, 5 per ct. 102½—Grand
 oan. 6 per cent.—Bank Stock—exchange—Dublin on London, —5.

Henry Cole, Esq. Pro-Commodore of the amphibious animal produced forty-four gallons of oil of superior quality.

The funeral of the lamented Francis Wheeler,
 Esq. whose death was stated in our last, took place at Meehan's Church yard on Thursday. The procession was attended, not only by numerous friends, but by the different Masonic Lodges in the City. The following was the form of procession which moved from Henry-street, through George's-street, Patrick-street, Rutland-street, Back-porch, Charlotte-quay, Mary-street, Nicholas-street, to the Church:—

- Tyler of 871.
- With sword and insignia.
- Two Deacons, with wands.
- The Band of the County of Wick Militia.
- Two Wardens, with truncheons.
- Junior Brethren, two and two.
- Senior Brethren, two and two.
- Brother, carrying the Bible, covered with crape.
- Brother, carrying the Warrant, covered with crape.
- The Master of 871—and Past-Master.
- The Tyler of the Waterloo Lodge (of 19th Regt. 22).
- Two Deacons, bearing staves reversed, with doves, covered with black crape.
- Head of the 19th, drums muffled.
- Two Wardens, with truncheons, covered with crape.
- Visiting Brethren from the Army, two and two.
- The Bible, borne on a crimson velvet cushion, by two Brethren, with insignia, &c.
- The Master of the Lodge, and Past-Master.
- Tyler of Union Lodge, No. 18.
- Two Deacons with wands.
- The Band of the City Militia—Regt. muffled drums, &c.
covered with crape.
- Visiting Brethren.
- Two and two in mourning.
- The Members of 13, two and two, in mourning.
- Treasurer, Secretary.
- In rich scarlet cloaks, crape hat bands and white wands and crape knots.
- Wardens, crapes with black crape,
Senior wands.
- Junior wands.
- In rich scarlet cloaks, black crape hat bands and white gloves.
- The Royal Arch, with the Lodge within, borne by two,
covered with crape.
- The Past-Master.
- With scarlet cloak, and in mourning.
- The Worshipful Master.
- With rich scarlet cloak, set in mourning.
- Four women, in white lines.
- Medical Gentlemen, in scarfs and cypresses.
- Three Clergymen.
- In gowns, scarfs, and cypresses.
- The Chaplain of Lodge, No. 13.

THE HEARSE.
 With black Plumes,
 Drawn by six horses.
 Covered with black velvet.

THE BODY,
SIR FRANCIS WHEELER.

Grand Prior,
 No. 13.
 In a splendid Coffin, covered with Black Cloth and Gold Mounting.

Chief Mourners, relatives of the deceased, in long mourning cloaks and weepers.

A Knight Templar, in black gown, and full mourning, bearing the black standard, with a gold cross, and the motto of
 "In Hoc Signo-Vincet."

The Brethren, Knights Companies, two and two.
 Private Gentlemen, friends of the deceased, in mourning.

At Davish, Jacques Elizabeth, dau.
 Admiral Sir Thomas Lewis, Bart.—Mary
 of Lieut. Colonel Stephenson, of Mayo London, Major Seymour, late 56th Regt. aged 85. His daughter Lyon, daughter of Lyon, Esq. Advocate—At Roscrea, aged 85
 Esq. for many years a respectable town. His death was perfectly sudden, covering on some domestic business. It be difficult to find a man so very gener-universally beloved. He was honest in most kind and considerate husband; the devoted parent; and he has left a distinguished family to explore so severe a
 At Ockhill, Co. Carub, Fanny, aged 19, 25, daughters of the late Rev. W. Anders of the manor of the ARUNDELL HILL, Esq.
 (What death we should in a
 The eulogium of a devoted friend is to remunerate the worth of this well-respectable Gentleman. It had been the years him to an age which few attain every period of his life that exalted and exalted his life and glory everlasting better. Through his private merit exalted character, esteemed, respected, and his numerous friends. He was imbued devoted, with that religion, wisdom, sense and good quality which constitutes an after "God's own heart"; and, while exa noble friendship, private charity, unknown hospitality, and a kind fatherly duty, renders him worthy of recollection forgotten. He was a kind indulgent never lived a better or a fonder parent.
 father more justly loved and regretted respectable family, whose comfort is that that "he is not lost but gone before."
 "Kingdom of Christ," where, by folexamples he set before them, they may loved, imitated father, where true joy
 and where they'll last for ever!

THE MARKET
 Market Prices this day.—Wheat, 1s
 —Barley, 7d.—Flour, 30
 —Oatmeal, 10s 6d per cwt.—Potatoes, 3d to 4d per lb.—Mutton, 4d to 5d—But-20s per cwt.—Butter, 7s. 6d. 5s. 4d.
 Butter in Waterford on Thursday.—
 General Markets, Wednesday—Butter
 Oatmeal, 13s. per cwt.—Flour, 3s. 2
 Wheat, 1s. 6d. per stone—Oats, 7
 Potatoes 3d.—Wool, 18s. to 20s—Bacon
 Price of Butter in Cork on 7
 Merchants, 7s.—6s.—5s.
 Country, 6s.—5s.—5s.

FESTS IN THE ENSUING
 County Limerick—Monday, 30th Oct
 Keshcawery, and Hospital; Wednesday,
 Gough and Kilmore, 3d, Castle
 County Cork—Monday, 30th October,
 Cornhill; Wednesday, 1st November, L
 Glengowna and Kilmurry; Thursday, 2d 3d, Gilville, Kanturk and Glanbeary.
 County Kerry—Monday, 30th Oct
 Roughtybridge; Wednesday, 1st Novem
 County Clare—Tuesday, 31st, Qu
 November, Scarriff.
 County Galway—Wednesday, 30th County Tipperary—Wednesday, 1st and Clowen; Friday, 3d, Castel; Satur County Waterford—Wednesday, 1st met and Tramore.
 County Kilkenny—Monday, 30th Oct
 Monday, 1st November, Rathbough and 6th, Callan.
 County—Monday, 30th Octob
 Cloughan; Wednesday, 1st November, Duakerrin; Saturday, 4th, Edenderry.
ENGLISH STOCKS—3 per cent
 3 per cent Cons. 67½—Ditto
 4 per cents. 86½—5 per cents.
 Bonds, 22—Ed. Bills, 4 prem.

Two Knights Templars, in full costume,
 with black weepers, and in mourning.
 One armed Knight of Malta.

Two Knights Templars, in full costume,
 with black weepers, and in mourning.
 One armed Knight of Malta.