

his letter as I may think remain, my dear sir, your faithful servant,
CAMPBELL FOSTER.
 haughnessy, Ennis."
 d, be driven hard for a so petty a trick as this.
 n refutation; for, except n would have neither the ny such "order;" and in else, neither he, nor any to me. I must also do the from his courtesy to me, even of acting so absurdly, on as a dignitary in the nd as a gentleman, ever lience, however, by their ed how worthy they and r, and how utterly unwor-or estimation by decent o remain, Sir,

 our obedient servant,
"TIMES" COMMISSIONER.
 mbria, arrived from Hali-North American mails, s, part of the crew of the g to Cork, who had been authorities, upon a charge to sink the vessel.
 given that the extensive urke, at the Quay, Galway, oke open, to allow water which the fire was extendine, police, and watch. nd the fire was got under,
 o the Britannia Insurance us in his exertions. n knit into stockings, every e.

part of last impression :]
S. DUFFY.
 fy, one of the divisional attached to Henry-street the traversers' bar at the mission this day, and in-part of this year attempted the person of a young lad William Mason, a smith owtown-park, county of
 at the last commission, he statement and evidence Court until three o'clock, amenced his address to the had not concluded when their lordships that he and nous in agreeing to a ver-

Mr. Patrick Ralph, Watch-maker, Castlebar, to Julia Anne Eleanor, daughter of Mr. Patt Ievers, of Minola.
 At Christ Church, Marylebone, H. Cort, Esq. to Elizabeth Ann, daughter of the late Captain Hollingbery, 34th Regt.
 At Edgbaston Church, John Scholefield, Esq. of the Grove, near Birmingham, son of the late Joshua Scholefield, Esq.
 M.P. to Caroline Sophia, eldest daughter of James Shaw, Esq.
 At St. Peter's, in Eastgate, Lincoln, R. Bunyan, Esq. of Grecian-place, to Mary Theesa, daughter of the late Captain Brocklesby.
 At Glen Lodge, Sligo, Patrick, eldest son of George Harkan, Esq. Ross, county Roscommon, to Miss Gardiner, daughter of the late Charles Gardiner, Esq.
 In Scooby Church, R. Canney, Esq. of Galley, county Wexford, to Eliza Ogle, daughter of the late J. Gill, Esq.
 George Kinloch, of Kinloch, Esq. to Margaret, only daughter of George Cuming, Esq. Arbroath.
 At St. Mary's, Cheltenham, I. H. G. Crawford, Esq. Capt.
 R.E. to Isabella, daughter to Major Forbes, 78th Highlanders.

DEATHS.

At his father's residence, Lillrush, of decline, on the 24th ult.
 Charles Lucas, Esq. aged 24, universally beloved and deeply regretted by his family and friends.
 At the Barracks, Clonmel, the wife of Captain Tylden, Royal Artillery, in consequence of a fall from her jaunting-car.
 At Newcastle Lodge, Galway, William H. Persse, Esq. eldest son of the late Henry Stratford Persse, Esq. many years connected with the Customs of that port.
 On the 25th ult. at Lakeview, near Rathkeale, in this County, sincerely regretted by her family and friends, Catherrine, relict of the late James M'Mahon, Esq. in the 65th year of her age.
 At her brother's house, St. Patrick's Hill, Cork, Miss Eliza Denny.
 At Ballyvrin, Kinsale, Mrs. Lucy Murphy, wife of Mr. John Murphy, late Lieutenant of Revenue Police, in her 87th year.
 Suddenly, in Ennistymon, Mr. Wm. O'Regan, shopkeeper.
 At Mallow, Mr. Denis Buckley.
 In Kenmare, Miss Mary M'Crohan, sister to Major M'Crohan.
 At his residence, near Freshford, Henry Gardiner, Esq.
 Lieutenant and Quartermaster of the Kilkenny Militia.
 Patrick Casey, Esq. of K'icock.
 At Ballymacward, the residence of his son, the Rev. John Derry, P.P. Mr. Michael Derry, of Ballinasloe.
 At Ballinteer, Dundrum, Mrs. Catherine Ottiwell, widow of Henry Ottiwell, Esq. formerly of Beresford-place.
 On the 23d of July last. at Macao, China, aged 24, Henry James, youngest son of the late George Osborne, Esq. of Limerick.
 At Parsonstown, Eliza, daughter of Mr. John Brien.
 Ellen Mary, daughter of Valentine O'C. Blake, of Tower-hill, Esq.
 In Portman-square, Lady Stafford, wife of General Lord Stafford, G.C.B.
 At Chatham, Serjeant-Major Henry Parker, of the Provisional Battalion.
 At Brighton, Amicia Bracebridge, daughter of Mr. Dempster Heming.
 At his residence in Wimpole-street, M. Fortique, the Venezuelan Minister.
 At Falmouth, Harriet, relict of Lieut.-Colonel Fenwick, of Pendennis Castle.
 Mr. Thomas Fay, of Temple-bar.
 At Bombay, Captain E. J. Grant, of the 17th Regiment.
 In the neighbourhood of Gottenberg, in Sweden, Talbot Dillon Chester, Esq. late of the 1st Dragoon Guards, and son of Henry Chester, Esq. of Cartown House, D.L. co. Louth, In Thomas-street, John, son of Mr. Thomas Keays.
 In Skibbereen, Kate, wife of M. Doyle, Esq. comptroller of customs.
 At his residence at St. Nicholas, near Cardiff, William Jonas Watson, Esq. Mayor of that town, and senior partner in the firm of Watson and Richards, timber merchants, of Cardiff.
 At Gwersyllt, near Wrexham, Major Gustavus Hume.
 At Stranraer, the Rev. David Wilson.
 Mr. William Blake, of Vigo-street.
 James Pattle, Esq. senior member of the Revenue board.
 engal.

participations in Those who pa
 profits to the ext
 out incurring th
 At the last inv bonus or addition at the rate of £1
 each premium pa
 ing previous bon tled to participat
 Thus for exam
 2s. 6d. of prev
 for
 And had a furthe
 And will, accordi mentioned, be of Profits as a Parties desirou must effect their which date the bo Tables of incre a plan peculiar to may be effected f mencing very low first five years, a during the rema
 SPEC
 PREMI

Age.	First Year.	Seco Year.
30	1 3 9	1
40	1 11 10	1

This Table is the prospect of stances, prefer years, but is als
 with the view o Loans. It is pr be continued to certificates of Premium.

The Company
 ton, Woollen,
 tions, Furniture
 cultural Stock, of every kind, a pending to the Farming Stoc
 and loss and da