...DEATHS.
 ...On Thursday, at his house in Waterford, aged 85 years,
 ...the Venerable George Lewis Fleury, D. D. Archdeacon
 ...of the Diocese of Waterford since 1773.
 ...On Thursday, the Rev. Mr. Ryan, P. P. Knocklong.
 ...At her residence in Tipperary, on Saturday last, the ...29th inst aged 74, Mary, relict of the late John Power,
 ...Esq. of that town. A Lady of whose eminently useful
 ...and exemplary life it is impossible to speak in terms of ...adequate panegyric; few persons having possessed
 ...throughout so great a share of public esteem and private
 ...friendship, and none more abundantly gifted with those ...qualifications that secure the one and adorn the other.—
 ...Of this amiable woman it may be truly said, that in her ...charity were united, all those solid virtues of the heart,
 ...the remembrance of which, though it may heighten
 ...regret for her loss, affords at the same time the best
 ...means of consolation to allay it—of these, her benevo...lence, generosity and disinterestedness, were ascendant
 ...qualities, that however estimable in themselves, derive a
 ...lustre and a value from the peculiar urbanity of manner,
 ...and cordial sincerity of disposition, with which they ...were uniformly exercised. In her intercourse with the ...world, her integrity and moral justness stood unblemished
 ...and inflexible, but above all, her numerous charities
 ...deserve to be recorded, as alike distinguished for the ...liberality and privacy with which they were bestowed,
 ...and the universal philanthropy from which, alone, they
 ...emanated; her pure and enlightened mind recognising
 ...no difference between those who sought her assistance,
 ...than what their wants and infirmities applied—in a do...mestic point of view, every tender, attentive, and affec...tionate duty was fulfilled to its utmost measure, and the ...deep affliction of her disconsolate family, the unaffected
 ...regret of an extensive connection and acquaintance, and
 ...the tears of those whom her bounty so recently relieved
 ...from indigence and distress, amply attest her exalted
 ...worth, and become the best posthumous tribute that can ...be paid, to the memory of such a parent, friend, and
 ...benefactress.

...On Monday evening, at her son's house in Cecil-street,
 ...Mrs. Sullivan, relict of the late Daniel Aldwell Sullivan,
 ...Esq.
 ...In Waterford, Frances, wife of Richard Fogarty, Esq.
 ...In Sligo, Mr. Robert Moran, late of Dublin.
 ...In Marrowbone-lane, Dublin, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilde.
 ...Mrs. Catherine Ryan, of Townshend-street, Dublin.
 ...At Cove, Mrs. Kenney, wife of the Rev. Thomas
 ...Kenney, of Donoughmore.
 ...At his lodgings in Mary-Street, Cork, after a long ...and painful illness, Harmer Tisdall, Esq. deeply regret...ted by his relatives and acquaintances.
 ...At Cove, after a severe and protracted indisposition,
 ...which he sustained with that christian fortitude which so
 ...proudly marked his character, Mr. Jeremiah Murphy,
 ...for over half a century one of the Governors of the ...County Cork Gaol.
 ...In Newry, Mrs. Monteith, relict of M. Monteith, Esq.
 ...Benjamin, eldest son of Mr. P. Lalouette, of Dublin.
 ...At Lismore, Richard Collender, Esq.
 ...On Tuesday, at Blackrock, Cork, Catherine, wife of ...Thomas Deane, Esq.
 ...In Clonmel, Mrs. Morton, wife of Captain T. Morton.
 ...The relict of Mr. Francis Murphy, of Clonmel.
 ...The Rev. William Moreland, Presbyterian Minister
 ...of Portaferry.
 ...At Belfast, in his 55th year, Mr. Hans O'Prey, 20
 ...years a teacher in that town.
 ...In Cork, Mr. Alexander Callanan, baker.
 ...Mr. William Rumney, of Nile-street, Cork.
 ...At Carrick-on-Suir, Deborah, relict of John Jephson,
 ...Esq. and mother of the late Lorenzo H. Jephson, Esq.
 ...In London, Mr. Thomas Mitchell, of Newry, printer.
 ...At Brighton, the Rev. Doctor Bogue, of Gosport.
 ...At Heston, Middlesex, John Mac Arthur, Esq. many
 ...years principal conductor of the King's Printing-office.
 ...Near Leeds, Lady Georgiana Cat cart, of a daughter.
 ...At Erskine, the Honorable Caroline Henrietta Stuart,
 ...youngest daughter of Lord Blantyre.
 ...In Edinburgh, Captain Charles Greig, late of the East
 ...India Company's service.
 ...At Bath, Mrs. Brymer, relict of the late Alexander
 ...Brymer, Esq.
 ...In Upper Harley-Street, London, Walter Fawkes,
 ...Esq. of Farnley Hall, Yorkshire, twice High Sheriff of ...that County, and a short time its representative in Par...liament. He was a descendant of the noted conspirator
 ...of that name, of which he was not a little proud.
 ...At Southampton, Captain Alexander R. Mackenzie,
 ...of the Royal Navy.

...On Friday evening, the Ennis Quarter Sessions con...cluded, and immediately after the Assistant Barrister pro...ceeded for Dublin.
 ...In the Sessions Court, Cork, on Monday, Noble Bar-
 ...ron and Daniel Sheehan, journeymen slaters, were tried
 ...and convicted of riotously assembling and assaulting the ...habitation of William Martin, of the same trade. Sen...tence is not yet passed.
 ...The members and friends of the Limerick Mechanics'
 ...Institute, entertained Mr. S. Rice, M. P. to dinner,
 ...yesterday, at the Assembly House, Mr. Philip Doyle,
 ...President. The affair would be infinitely more gratify-
 ...ing if the party separated in that spirit of harmony and ...good feeling, with which they sat down. One person
 ...fell over the bannisters to the ground, a height of nearly
 ...fifty feet, and was seriously injured. He continues
 ...under the care of Surgeon Wilkinson. We are prom...ised a faithful report of the occurrences of the ...evening, with the speeches.
 ...Mr. Palmer, Inspector-General of Prisons, visited the ...County Infirmary and County Gaol last week, and
 ...expressed himself very highly pleased with the excellent
 ...system of discipline and economy observed in both estab...lishments, which reflected infinite credit on their respec...tive officers.
 ...The recent Act of Parliament allows newspapers to ...be sent to these places only to which Packets are for...warded, at the rate of 1½d. each being paid at the ...Post Office, on day of publication; and as no Packets
 ...are dispatched to New South Wales, newspapers can ...only be sent there under the same regulations as letters.
 ...The fair of Quin yesterday presented a large show of ...stock of various sorts, which fully maintained the present
 ...advanced prices, and numerous lots were disposed of.
 ...Slaughtering of 70 head of Cattle commenced here
 ...this day, for the house of E. Ryan & Sons, Esqrs.
 ...Alderman Watson, Treasurer to the house of Industry,
 ...acknowledges to have received from William H. Bourne,
 ...Esq. Two pounds Sterling, for the use of that Charity,
 ...being part of fines ordered by the Mayor, to be paid by
 ...two men for having, during the recent suspension of the ...toll bar at Anacotty, evaded the gate at Ballyhane and
 ...struck off at Anacotty from the turnpike road, to avoid
 ...the payment which might otherwise have been made at ...Groody.
 ...Mr. ROGERS, in his lecture, the other evening, whilst
 ...eulogising the establishment of Mechanics' Institutes,
 ...remarked, that, from the rapid diffusion of knowledge,
 ...through such means, in the space of another generation,
 ...an ignorant man would be regarded in the world as a
 ...monster, fit only to be exhibited among the sea snakes,

SWINBURN'S ASSEMBLY-ROOM, LIMERICK
MR. ROGERS,
 F. S. A. and Member of the Philosophical Societies of London and Norwich,
HAS the honour to announce to the Nobility and Gentry of Limerick, and its Vicinity, that he purposes, on the Evenings of Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, 2d, 3d, and 4th, November, 1825, to deliver his LECTURES on ASTRONOMY;
 in which he will answer, and demonstratively refute the objections which infidels have pretended to draw from the Science against the truth of Holy Writ. The various phenomena pertaining to this sublime subject will be very familiarly explained and illustrated by a new transparent
OPTERY.
 At the conclusion of each Lecture, Mr. R. will introduce his newly invented grand transparent MICROSCOPE,
 Indisputably the most powerful and perfect Apparatus the kind ever yet constructed. To those whose high cultivated minds delight in observing the beauties of Nature, this superb instrument will open an ample field for wonder and contemplation.
MORNING LECTURE.
 By desire of a party of Nobility and Gentry of Castl Connell, Mr. ROGERS will give One General Lecture including all the Scenery, on Saturday morning.—
 commence at One o'clock.
 A SYLLABUS, with particulars, may be had gratis.
