

... said, that Mr. O'Dwyer, rector, in Dublin, had expressed the proceedings of the Board of ... it had been declared to him by of Dublin, that he had foreseen company from the conduct of the ... the recent reply of the ... Company to the ... Shareholders, it was evident ... of dissolving the Company, ... holders.

... remarked, that the Company could ... all the shareholders were unani- ... This was pronounced to be a ... en the managers of the concern ... the persons interested. It was ... Company was embodied by no ... ent; they acted merely under the ... which likewise privileged the ... that the Legislature could not ... without repealing that Act.

... as, which appear in our columns, ... m the chair, and carried unani- ... d general feeling of indignation ... meeting at the conduct of the ... fitable concern, and subscriptions ... rther proceedings, if necessary.

... Connell applied to the Court of ... trial, in the case of Tuthill, v. ... rdict was had for plaintiff at the ... Mr. O'Connell contended that a ... on the trial, the Chief Baron had ... for plaintiff suggested, or rather ... Mr. Pennesfather appeared as ... e to oppose a non suit. The Chief ... opinion the law of the case should ... Prius, but in the Court above. ... cted that Mr. O'Connell should ... on Monday.

... t, has, within those few days, ... riating to his own use a letter ... him by his master for conveyance ... money not having arrived at its ... made an affidavit that he had ... An investigation took place, ... s General, and it was ascer- ... ned the letter, which he destroyed, ... note at a shop in town. He was ... Through the active exertions of ... ctor of the Post-Office, this infan- ... ted, and brought home to the ...

... est was held near Feacle, County ... William Neale, when a verdict of ... ed against Thomas Healy, who ... one on the head, which caused ...

... serious affray took place between ... Regiment and some of the popu- ... ones were thrown and bayonets ... was severely fractured, and some ... ayonets.

... el were disgraced on Monday, by ... a violent factions, and it required ... he Mayor, Police, and Military, ... eace.

... nora Connors, and their daughter, ... ford Gaol, for the murder of ...

... esday, disappointed public ex- ... le of every sort much depressed. ... which was held on Monday last, ... it was a large fair, and several ... Cows went off at from 7L to ... to 10L; in calf Cows from 4L ... 18s. to 25s., and Wethers from ...

... this City to Waterford starts now ... o'clock. The line of road is

... Esq. of Millview, Co. Cork, to Elizabeth, daughter of the late Richard Brew, Esq. of Clonkerry, Co. Clare.

The Rev. Henry Rochfort, rector of Newtown, Westmeath, to Sarah Deborah, daughter of the late Robert Rochfort, Esq. and niece of William Lambert, Esq. of East Cowes, Isle of Wight.

Laurence Rorke, Esq. of Neatstown House, County Dublin, to Theresa, youngest daughter of Wm. O'Neill, of Mount O'Neill, County Waterford, Esq.

In Waterford, Philip Walsh, Esq. of Beline, to Maria, daughter of Henry Smith, Esq.

In Dublin, Richard Robinson, Esq. of Moore Park, Parsonstown, to Eliza, daughter of the late William White, of Castleview, County Tipperary, Esq.

In Ennis, Mr. Denis Keane, to Susan, second daughter of Mr. Patrick Powell, of Ennis.

At Kineraig, Colonel Hugh Fraser, to Mrs. Cameron, widow of Captain Allen Cameron, Bengal Artillery.

At Kinlochmoidart, Henry Wight, Esq. Advocate, Edinburgh, to Margaret, fourth daughter of Lieutenant Colonel Robertson M'Donald, of Kinlochmoidart.

At Michelmersh, the Rev. Henry Barnaby Greene, Vicar of Long Parish, to Amelia Woodcock, youngest daughter of the late John Woodcock, Esq. of Lincoln's Inn.

DEATHS.

At Castle Otway, November 5, Harriet, fifth daughter of G. H. Wilson, Esq. aged 15 years.

At Caherconlish house, on Tuesday last, Harriet, youngest daughter of Thomas M. Wilson, Esq.

On Arthur's Quay, Mrs. Supple, wife of Mr. J. Supple.

In Upper Dominick-street, Galway, much regretted, George Martyn, Esq.

On Sunday last, in Gort, William Crawford, Esq.

In Tralee, of fever, Edward D. Rae, of Derraquay, near that town, Esq.

In Killarney, Martha, wife of Mr. Mathew Riordan.

In the prime of life, David, eldest son of Mr. John Dunne, Corn-market, Dublin.

In Bandon, Mr. Thomas Lovell.

At Kilbeggan, County Westmeath, John M'Laughlin, late of North Anne-street, Dublin, Esq. M. D.

At Saggard, County Dublin, Edward Byrne, Esq.

At Usher's-quay, the wife of John M'Loughlin, Esq.

At Camberwell, Lieut.-Colonel Christopher Baldock, East India Company's service.

In St. Audley-street, London, John Malpas Talbot, Esq. formerly of the Guards, only son of Colonel Talbot, M. P. for the County Dublin.

At Maperath, County of Meath, after a long and painful illness, endured with patience and fortitude, Eliza, wife of Thomas Taylor Rowley, Esq. daughter to the late Daniel Toler, Esq. of Beechwood, County of Tipperary, (long one of the Representatives for that County,) and niece to the Earl of Norbury.

At Beverley, aged 80, Lieut.-Colonel Macnell.

At Lima, of fever, Jocelyn Alcock, Esq. youngest son of Alderman Thomas Alcock, of Waterford.

On the Castle-hill, Windsor, the Hon. Mrs. Egerton, many years attached to the Royal Family.

At Bosworth Park, Leicestershire, Sir Willoughby Wolstan Dixie, Bart. He is succeeded in his title and estate by his eldest son, Wolstan, now in his 11th year.

In London, Captain James Coxwell, late commanding the East India Company's ship Lady Raffles.

Mrs. Price, of Great Ormond-street, Queen-square.

Captain Francis Vesey, Royal Navy.

At sea, of fever, Lieut. William Lamb, Royal Navy, Commander of the ship Prince Regent.

At Farnley, near Leeds, the Rev. Thomas Pullan, Minister of that place.

33

Nov

But for a very short time

YOU may have an EXACT LIKENESS and Glass included, for ONE SHILLING Minute!—at No. 15, GEORGE'S-STREET, Machine of UNERRING PRINCIPLES, by Mr. P. late of the Strand, London, with Mr. LOW Assistants. PORTRAITS and MINIATURES on Canvas and Ivory, at moderate charges.

Open from Eleven till Seven.

N. B.—The same Artists who took so many Likenesses this year, during a five months' tour, at No. 5, Grafton-street, Dublin; and almost all last three months, at No. 30, on the Grand Canal, Limerick, Nov

BOYD,
GUN MANUFACTURE

GENERAL GUNPOWDER MERCHANT
No. 43, PATRICK STREET,
Opposite the Commercial Buildings, Lin

HAS, this week, received per the Fel and Marquis Wellesley, from London Patent Shot; also a fresh and general assortment of Gunpowder.

November 10

EAST INDIA
Tea Company's Ware
7, BANK-PLACE, LIME

FISHER & WOOD

APPRIZE the Public that they have this season from on board the London Packet, a consignment of the East India Tea Company which will be sold as before, specified, made in packages, from an ounce to a pound, of every weight and with which they expect to be CONSTANTLY EXTENSIVELY supplied.

They offer for sale a quantity of M. FLAX, at No. 7, BANK-PLACE, which is well supplied with Home-Made and Fine L. SHEETINGS, DIAPERS, DAMASKS, KINS, DOWLASSES, TICKENS, &c.

Fashionable Winter Goods

JUST ARRIVED AT THE
BRITISH AND FOREIGN SILK
SHAWL WAREHOUSE,
No. 110, George's-Street.

MRS. CARROL

BEES leave to inform her Friends and the Public she has just returned from Dublin with a large and fashionable Stock of Winter Goods, containing articles of the very best and newest kind now in London, viz:—Rich Genoa Black and Co. Valence, Rich Gros de Indes, Gros de Saxe, &c.

Extensive and Fashionable
ARRIVALS
AT THE ESTABLISHED
WOOLLEN, LINEN, MANCHESTER,
MUSLIN, AND HAT
WAREHOUSE