 Yesterday, several cars, containing metal beds for the Army, passed through here, from Clare Castle for A melancholy accident occurred on Monday evening, in Mungret-street, where a woman, named Mary Cunneen, servant to Mr. Bassett Dickson, was laying clothes to dry on a line outside a four story window.— She unfortunately overbalanced herself, and, the line breaking, was precipitated from a great height on the flagged pavement. Her head was fractured, and in an instant, life was extinct. The Mayor held an inquest yesterday, when a verdict of accidental death was returned.

 The Court of King's Bench have granted a conditional order to set aside the verdict obtained at the last County Limerick Assizes, by Mr. Atcheson against Bolton Massy, Esq. late High Sheriff.—It is to be argued this day.
 At the meeting of the Hibernian Banking Company Shareholders, last week, Mr. James O'Shaughnessy said he had no doubt but that the deputation intended to carry the promises they made into effect, and that they regretted as much as any Proprietor present that they were not.
 We understand that the Limerick Auxiliary Bible Society's annual meeting is fixed for Thursday, the 22d instant, when a powerful deputation from the parent institution is expected to attend.
 The first meeting of the British Reformation Society

 The attention of the public is directed to the Stammering Institution in this City, under the able management of Mr. Conroy; and we recommend to their perusal a Certificate which appears in our advertizing columns of this day. Surely such of our towns-people as are afflicted with that difficulty will not hesitate to seize the opportunity now offering to remove the obstruction. Stammering is a lock-up on the mind—painful to the afflicted and when attempting to overcome it, distressing to the hearers.
 Such as may be anxious to complete their Setts of Family Likenesses, in the peculiar style of the Artists, in George's street, must immediately apply, or the opportunity will be entirely lost.
