

an inquest held on Joseph
 ry, who died suddenly ear
 t was said through ill-treat-Dispensary apothecary, at ged mistook axillary at eu-patient. A company of the r Capt. Norris, with Ensign to protect the medical gen-ry, in making a post-mortem long inquiry the verdict was,
 of God."

part of our last impression:
 Lord John Russell attended to-day; both were cheered.
 led.

have granted a conditional ration of Cork to grant com-
 n Newsom; also conditional es of Burgesses improperly a the roll by the late Lord

has not pressed for judgment of the Newry Examiner and defendants having expressed cation of the libellous articles ere written under feelings of umed a comparatively mild week or more. The sharp which, at the close of last rald a rigorous and severe ded by genial rains and occa-

 sunshine, which are of incang wheat tillage.

itz-Gibbon left Mountshan on
 The numerous friends of the Clare will be delighted to hear roaching to a perfect recovery,
 for the first time since her room of Naas was hung with as a mark of respect to the deed Master, Capt. Madden, who

a public entry into the city of ay last. Many and great were for the occasion. The Io Tri- Cæsar" were sounded with all Repeal Press: but a fall of rain
 the "millions;" the meeting,
 a sorry gathering; and though faint shout "shewed that still soon became as silent as mutes appeared "so poor to do him vor and other members of the ed of course in the train—or in Liberal press; "ranked in the
 of the Liberator's carriage."
 John's College, with their pro-also made part and parcel of trades, with banners, &c. were order: but perhaps the most ne exhibition—even not except-himself—was a printing press,
 at full work. and the persons entered the results of their labour

Miss Margaret Brady, of Dublin.
 At Malta, at the Palace Chapel, Charles Richardson Johnson, Lieut. R.N. to Julia, daughter of Major-General Bredin. R.A.

DEATHS.

On the 8th inst. at Cross Avenue, Booterstown, near Dublin, John Ryan, Esq. for many years Collector of Excise in Manchester, and formerly of Cork.
 At Youghal, Elizabeth, relict of the late Robert R. Aldworth, Esq. Newmarket House.
 At his residence, Sheepwalk, county Wicklow, Thomas Murray, Esq. brother of the Most Rev. Dr. Murray, R. C. Archbishop of Dublin.
 At Mungret-street, in advanced age, Christina, widow of the late Mr. John M'Mahon, merchant. Few persons were more deservedly admired in her walk of life for genuine charity, and fervent piety.
 Of Croup, at Tulla, on the 12th inst. Kate, infant daughter of Alexander Heard, Esq. S. I. aged 19 months.
 In North Frederick-street, Catherine Maria, wife of John Johnson, of Warrenstown, county Meath, Esq. and daughter of Wm.
 Murphy, Esq. of Mount Merrion, county Dublin.
 At Harcourt Lodge, Trim, Eleanor Olivia, daughter of Joseph Lightburne, Esq.
 At Roseville, Carlow, the daughter of Thomas Crauford Butler.
 At Raffeen, Anastatia, relict of the late George A. Drinan, Esq.
 At his father's house, Mount Verdon, Sampson, only son of Thomas Austen, Esq.
 On the 11th inst. Emma Susanna, daughter of E. H. Baglee, Esq.
 At his residence, Cardistown, James Caraher, Esq. sen.
 The Rev. William Blundell, aged 78.
 At Gallowgate, Mr. J. Bryce, Surgeon.
 At Kirkaldy, Mr. W. Williamson, ship-owner.
 Thomas Browne, Esq. late Provost of Rutherglen.
 Mr. Ellis Jones, officer of Excise, Kirkdale.
 Mr. Joseph Baker, of the Sampson and Lion, Birmingham.
 Robert Smith, Esq. formerly Magistrate of Edinburgh.
 At Paisley, Mr. J. Monroe, senior Serjeant Renfrew Militia Staff.
 At Vernon-place, Bloomsbury-square, Emily, wife of William John Whyte, Esq.
 Lieut. J. R. Wellsted, Indian Navy, author of "Travels in Arabia and the Red Sea."
 At his residence, Torquay, Charles Dawson, Esq.
 At Braefoot House, Kilmarnock, Archibald Finnie, Esq. of Springhill.
 At Circus Place, Edinburgh, Alison, daughter of the late Wm.
 Johnstone, Esq. Willow Park, Greenock.
 At Airdrie, Mr. William Campbell, late distiller, Linlithgow,
 At Kilmarnock, Mr. John Brown, writer.
 At the Manse of Kilconquhar, James Lindsay, son of the Rev.
 Dr. Ferrie, minister of Kilconquhar.
 At Brompton, Rosina Sarah, second daughter of the late Capt.
 Heyman, 13th Light Dragoons.
 Mrs. Florentia Robertson, relict of Alexander Learmouth, Esq.
 of Crossflatts, Linlithgowshire.
 At Greenock, Mr. Neil M'Millan, Superintendent of the Quay Police.
 At Bitton, Gloucestershire, Catherine, relict of R. Barker, Esq.
 At Great Coram-street, T. Abell, Esq.
 At Nusseerabad, Central India, John Elphinstone Bruce, Esq.
 Captain 13th Bengal Infantry.
 Dr. Loinsworth, Inspector-General of her Majesty's Hospital in India.
 Assistant-Surgeon R. H. Neville, 57th Regt.
 Captain G. Fraser, 1st Bengal Cavalry, and first assistant to the Resident at Nagpore.
 At her residence, Woodville, Cork, Martha, relict of the late Nicholas Marshall Cummins, Esq.
 On the Terrace, Belfast, John Waller, son of the Rev. John S.
 Monsell.
 In Church-street, Redmond O'Byrne, Esq. late half-pay 15th Regt. of Foot.
 At Cork, Richard Ronayne, Esq. of that city.
 At the Barracks, Kilkenny, Letitia, eldest daughter of Captain
 Eaton, Barrackmaster of that town.
 At Magherahamlet Glebe, Ballynahinch, William M. Wilson, Esq. M.D.
 At his residence, Upper Ballysillan, Belfast, Mr. Samuel Johnston, at the advanced age of 106.
 At his residence, Kingstown, Mr. James Gatchell.
 Jane, widow of the late James Macaulay, Esq. of Belfast.
 Laura Georgiana, wife of Gervase Parker Bushe, Esq. attache to her Majesty's Legation at Hanover.
 At Edinburgh Castle, of small-pox, Lieut. H. Martin Atkins.
 53d Regt.
 At Jersey, Colonel Gilbert Cimetiere, formerly a distinguished officer of the 48th Regt.
 At Brighton, Harriet, sister of the late Sir Henry Hawley, Bart.

Of the County

GENTLEMEN,
 A VACANCY having occurred
 CORONER in this County
 offer myself as a Candidate.
 If you should do me the honor shall feel most grateful, and fulfil the duties of the Office
 tiality.

I am, Gentlemen,
 Your most Beechpark, Ennis, Nov. 7

Equity Ex
 John Hunt, Esq.
 Plaintiff.
 Arthur Brooke Bateman, Esq.
 and others,
 Defendants.

respectively the 6th day of Ju-December 1841, I will on M-
 of November next, at the h-
 the afternoon at my Chamb-Dublin, set up and sell to bidder all That and Those t-
 of the Lands of KNOCKE County of Limerick, in the
 a competent part thereof, fodecrees mentioned.

Dated this 11th
 AC
 For further particulars Re-
 Sale apply to CHARLES WHI-
 13, Mountjoy-square, South

SPECIAL S
 County of Limerick, } N
 to wit. } will b
 at the Hou of Twelve o'
 DAY, the 17th Nov. inst. fo-
 the Lists of Jurors for the L
 the said County, for the year
 By

County Limerick Peace C
 November 9.

13 NOTI
AGRICULTURAL AND CO
 IRELA
 THE Committee for win-
 Bank are ready to mak
 liberal terms with all perso Endorsers of Bills are in opportunity is therefore now arranging same, which if n
 will be immediately commen
 full, with costs.
 Application to be made a Dublin.