

Jane Morrison, niece of Captain O'Shaughnessy, Queen's Own Light Infantry.

DEATHS.

At 12, Marino crescent, Dub'lin, on the 19th inst. of inflammation after whooping cough, to the deep regret of her sorrowing parent and family, aged six years, Thomasina Jemima, youngest daughter of the late Thomas Locke, Esq. J.P. Castleview, county Limerick—a most gifted and affectionate child.

At Annaholy house, on Monday last, aged 28 years, Henry, only son of James Dundon, Esq. deservedly regretted by his family and friends.

At Ballyconnell, on the 20th inst. Elizabeth, youngest daughter of Thomas Bennett, Esq. of Eastwood, Templemore, to the inexpressible grief of her sorrowing relatives, whose only consolation at the bereavement is to feel that she died supported by that staff which leads to salvation.

At Temp's hill, Blackrock, Cork, John Webb Shenkwyn, Esq.

At Bellville, Galway, of consumption, Isabella, eldest daughter of Major Mahon.

At Myrtle hill Terrace, Cork, Jane, relict of the late Capt. Thomas Erwin Ewen, aged 77.

At Kilmallock hill, Mary, relict of the late James Hannan, Esq. and mother of the Rev. Michael Hannan, Halifax.

At Broomhill, Kilmush, Miss Anne Bourke, aged 16, daughter of the late Serjeant Bourke, Clare Militia, Ennis.

At Manch-honse, Cork, the son of D. Conner, jun. Esq.

At Clareville, Oughterard, Major Martin, late 1st D. Guards.

At Loughrea, Joseph H. Ridge, Esq.

At the Vicarage, Eyrecourt, Frederick James, son of the Rev. R. B. Eyre.

John Charles, infant son of Henry Gason, Esq.

At Carrick-on-Suir, Miss Larkin, sister of the Rev. Edward Larkin, P.P.

In Tralee, Mr. James M'Gowan, master painter.

In Nenagh, Mr. Philip Clarke, watch and clock maker.

Robert, seventh son of Capt. Burgess, late of Carlow.

At Lower Dorset-street, Dublin, Mary, relict of the late Peter Alma, Esq. of Blackrock.

Miss Maria Woodward, daughter of the late Charles Woodward, Esq. of Dublin.

In Heytesbury-street, Emily Caroline, wife of Mr. Richard Meredith.

At Dalkey, Rosalie, daughter of James Milner Barry, Esq.

Mr. Alexander Steyenson, of Cookestown, county Wicklow.

At Inn's-quay, William Connick.

At St. Columba's college, Rathfarnham, aged 13, Henry, son of Henry Falls, Esq. of Lower Dominick-street.

The infant daughter of Mr. J. Barker, Eden-quay.

Margaret, eldest daughter of the late Patrick O'Brien, of Mary's-abbey.

Of fever, in the Hardwicke hospital, Acting Sergeant David Coll, C. division, a native of Brures, county Limerick.

At her villa, near Windsor, Lady Gore, relict of the late Vice Admiral Sir John Gore, and mother of the Countess of Howe.

At the residence of his son, the eminent lithographer, in Great Russell-street, Bloomsbury, H. C. Maguire, Esq. for some years editor of the Journal of the Fine Arts.

Mr. F. Knight Hunt, author of "The Fourth Estate," and for a long time editor of the Daily News.

At Clifton, the Rev. T. Scott Smyth, vicar of St. Austell, Cornwall, and prebendary of Exeter cathedral.

At Bagshot, Surrey, John Mears, Esq.

At Neston, aged 84, the Rev. Thomas Collingridge.

Miss Howard, of York-place, Portman-square.

At King's-road, Chelsea, Major John Ward, late Madras N.I.

At Brompton, Capt. Page, of the Hon. E. I. C. service.

Anne, Lady Pearl, relict of the late Sir James Pearl, St. John's, Newfoundland.

At Hawkhurst, Kent, the Hon. George Hope, Captain R.N.

At Pusey, Lady Emily, wife of P. Pusey, Esq.

Charles Henry Parnther, Esq. of the Foreign office.

Frederick Rowton, Esq. of London, one of the directors of the National Freehold Land society.

At Hazlewood house, Shooters' hill, Kent, Louis Matilda, daughter of the late Sir Henry Crowe.

At Blackheath, George Oliver, Esq. aged 86.

Suddenly, the Rev. William Cowpland, rector of Acton Beauchamp.

Of cholera, before Sebastopol, Lieut. Gardiner Trouton, Acting D. A. Commissary General, son of Charles Trouton, Esq. Lower Gardiner-street, Dublin.

Killed in action, Oct. 25th, at the battle of Balaklava, Cornet Hugh Montgomery, 13th Light Dragoons, eldest son of Hugh Montgomery, Esq. Ballydrein, Antrim.

At Varna, Joseph B. Smyth, Esq. of the Commissariat service, son of Daniel H. Smyth, Esq. of Newgarden, near Tralee.

In the Island of St. Kitt's, the Rev. James T. Wright, son of the late Samuel Wright, of Moneymore, co. Londonderry, Esq.

At Madras, of cholera, Major W. E. Lockhart, 45th Madras Native Infantry.

At Cashmere, Julia, wife of Henry Brackenbury, Esq. Lieutenant H.M.'s 61st Regt. and daughter of the late Major Robinson Sadleir, 94th Regt.

At his residence, Charleville Mall, William Augustus Hunt, Esq. brother of the late Colonel Arthur Hunt, Royal Artillery, in the 75th year of his age.

At Rutland-square, Mrs. W. V. Condel.

At Dundalk, M. Delap, Esq. Collector of H.M. Customs.

ded, at 24s per T
Ex AROFURUS, at F
Genuine Orrell, the Best
this season. At 27
The greater portion of
previous to arrival.
Early application is re
William-st; or to the Ta
IRON AND Upper V

Ch
John Baker Graves, Esq.
Plaintiff.
William James Grave
Esq., and others
Defendants.
Susannah Sarah Wallco
and another,
Plaintiffs.
John Baker Graves, Esq.
and others,
Defendants.

Quay, Dublin, Set up a fairest bidder, for Seven
from the 1st day of Nove
The MILL of
In the Town of BALLING
nedy's Mill; together wi
of Land, and a small M
Land and Premises are s
of a mile of the Town of Limerick, late in the p Brownrigg, being part of ings mentioned.

Dated this 18th day of
JEREMI
The Tenant to take o
course of the Court.
Application to be mad
Esq, the Receiver, 40,
and MICHAEL DRISCOLL,
den-street, Dublin.

Incumbered
si
Notice to Claimants
In the Matter
JOHN DARC
O
Ex
JULIUS DELMEGE
Pet

THE Commissioners
undivided fourth part
one undivided fourth part undivided fourth part of the within the Barony of Cork; the Lands of Cool
ate in the Barony of Orr
of Cork; part of the Land
the Barony of Upper Co
rick; and the part of the
tuate as last aforesaid, ca
Lease, dated the 18th Da
William Upton to Jam objecting to a Sale of the thereon, are hereby req
order.
Dated this 14th Day o
DELMEGE and FERG
tioners, having the car
Gloucester-street, Dublin