The arrival of Lord Westmoreland in Dublin is now expected there with certainty. By a letter from France, we hear, that General Bryan, brother to James Bryan, Esq; of Jenkinstown, in the county of Kilkenny, chosen by the inhabitants of the city of Limerick to command the National Militia, in preference to every Frenchman in the country: A very great honour, and the well-earned reward of his virtue!

Wheat, corn and barley are not the only grain lately exported to our hungry neighbours, the French; for by one of the late London printed Gazettes, we find an exportation from that port of Havre de Grace, of 300 tons of rice.

We have great pleasure in informing the public, that there is now a certainty of that great and interesting work the Canal from the bogue to the deep water above Killaloe, being completed in a very few years. — The sum of 16,600l. which is to be paid into the National Bank, on the 25th of December next, and new Subscribers is nearly completed, at which time the Company is entitled to receive from Government in addition to their fund 100,000l.

to the GENTLEMEN and FARMERS of the Neighbouring Counties.

WHEN I consider the great encouragement given to Agriculture by our Government, but more, by the demand for Corn from foreign Nations, I cannot but lament, that a more liberal and spirited mode of Culture is not adopted, for the improvement of the Staple as well as more abundant production of Grain. — It is universally admitted, that our climate and Soil, are peculiarly adapted to the purposes of Agriculture, and nothing is therefore wanting, to render this Island the Granary of Europe, if a determined, considerate, and scientific Policy of the cultivation of Corn. — In the Kingdom, the art of husbandry, having fallen into the hands of the middle class of Men, possessed of understanding and moderate capitals, flourishes in an eminent degree, and the admiration of the world; and why should we, divided only by so narrow a channel from her, emulate, if not exceed her in the improvement of rural knowledge. Sorry I am to Mr FERRAR acknowledges the receipt of one Guinea from Dr. Sayers, by the hands of Col. Pery; one Guinea from Mrs. Mary Lloyd; also half-a-Guinea from Mr. Pat. Henesy, for the use of the House of Industry.

DIED. Last Sunday at Ennis, Mr. John Pressly, formerly master of the Black Horse Inn, at Thomond gate. — Last Tuesday night, in Broad-street, sincerely and deservedly regretted by a numerous acquaintance, Mr. Mathew Carey, grocer, a man of the strictest probity.

To the MEMORY of Miss TUTHILL, of Faha, who died last Tuesday, aged four Years.
