Malloy and Limerick Junction when he found the defendant on the train without a ticket. When asked to pay the fare, 6s 2d, he replied he had no money, and would pay when he had it. Checker P White stated that on the 25th June he was checking in a train between Ralybrophy and Limerick Junction, and found defendant travelling without a ticket. When asked for the fare he replied he had no money. The fare was 6. 8d.

Checker G Lunney said he also found the defendant travelling without a ticket between Limerick Junction and Kingsbridge on the 30th July. The fare was 17s 10d.

The father of the defendant attended Court, and stated that his son was an ex soldier, and had been in a mental hospital, and therefore was not responsible for his actions.

Mr Dodds said that he would ask for 15s costs. The Chairman said he would not rule the case until next Court in order to give the defendant an opportunity of paying £2 5s 8d, as the father had undertaken that the money would be paid.

DEATH OF MR M. FOLEY.

The death, which we announce with regret, took place on Thursday evening of Mr Michael Foley, 7 Sir Harry's Mall, at an early age. The deceased was oldest son of the late Mr M Foley, and had been in indifferent health for some months past, so that his death was not unexpected. He was a young man of a singularly cheerful disposition, and by a large circle of friends his demise has been learned with sorrow, and sympathy will be offered to his family in their bereavement. The remains were removed from Barrington's Hospital to St Mary's Catholic Church last evening, and the funeral will take place at 3.30 to morrow for Mount St Lawrence Cemetery.

SOUTHERN HORSE BREEDERS' ASSOCIATION.

At a meeting of the South of Ireland Horse Breeders' Association, held this evening at Cruise's Hotel, Mr George Hartigan presiding, it was decided to request stallion owners to receive a deputation relative to the reduction of services fees, and the maintenance of mares.

Ireland, and Dail Eireann should take the matter up of establishing an Irish Film Censorship. Mr O'Brien seconded the motion which was adopted.

REGISTRATION OF VOTERS.

A communication was received from the Executive Council of Sinn Fein with reference to the question of registration under the Voters' and Jurors' Acts. The Council suggested that at the forthcoming sitting of the Registration Courts voters should claim their voters in the ordinary way, and objections should be made to those who were not entitled to be on the register. The Deputy Mayor explained that
