

erty has resigned the Duke of Northumberland, and Sir H. Hardinge is to sit for it.— it is said, has purchased the borough of for 800*l*.

rd Chancellor, Sir Anthony Hart, has declared that he is about to vacate his office, and that he succeeded by Lord Plunkett.

ke and Duchess of Northumberland take their departure from Ireland on Tuesday next.

f Northumberland's plate value £60,000 is Lloyd's for 7*s*. 6*d*. per cwt, on return to ecorder Shaw, M. P. presided at the annual meeting of the Dublin Auxiliary Bible Society, y, in the Dublin Institution. It appears this the Society put into circulation in the past bibles, and 827 testaments.

King's Bench yesterday 100*l*. damages were st Alderman West, the late Lord Mayor, for weight and beams belonging to Mr. John N. and assaulting him. There was no defence.

of Croke v. O'Grady and Bevan, was fixed his day in the Common Pleas, before Lord Plunkett Special Jury, and damages laid at £3,000 ; hearing that the Lord Chancellor was unwilling the memorial of the Magistrates on which the founded, the trial is of necessity postponed Plunkett confers with the Chancellor.

case of O'Connor v. Lloyd, an action of slander to stay judgment was refused with costs. rd Chancellor has said in Court that there is chance of fraud or corruption on the part of the on in the management of the metal main tax.

rebrated Richard Radford Rowe has applied to r of the Rolls, for liberty to prefer an indictment for perjury at the next Commission, against Mr. Mahon, and his Attorney Mr. Cullen—Case r for argument.

neral meeting of the Newspaper Proprietors r-press Printers of Galway, on Sunday last, olutions were adopted, and a petition to Par- ounded thereon, praying for a repeal of the e Union.

as a numerous meeting at Kilkenny on Sun- ition for the Repeal of the Union.

as a meeting of the Letter-press Printers of Tuesday, to petition Parliament for Repeal of as a meeting at Cashel on Sunday to petition of the Union—Mr. Paul Phelan in the chair. s not a Roman Catholic name in the Belfast n against a Repeal of the Union.—Belfast litors of the late bank of Newport and Co. are being paid off the fourth dividend.

w bridge built by the Duke of Devonshire at n, cost his Grace 30,000*l*.

ke, the Chief Remembrancer, has transmitted lway, towards relieving the distress of the ashermen by the late dreadful storm.

ne, a respectable linen merchant of Armagh, dead on the road near Newtownbreda, on ht. There were in his pocket 40*l*. in cash, and check for 131*l*. There was no clue to show f his death.

posed to assess 500*l*. on Christ Church Parish, pendent of 500*l* private subscription, for re-

Church, in consequence of the dry rot which d the principal timbers. It appears that Paul's e Methodist Meeting-house, and the old As- ns, Cork, are also attacked by the dry rot.

y Rev. Dean Lee, of Waterford, has accepted ar for the Vicarial tithes of Dunhill, in that ers of the St. Patrick's Assurance Company s very unsatisfactory state, and the Directory debt.

The command of the Edinburgh Recruiting station, is vacant by the removal of Captain Caneh, 5th Regt.

Captain Gordon, h. p. has entered a student in the senior department of the Royal Military College.

The office of Deputy Paymaster-General of the army is not yet filled up

The Royal Scots Greys are to accompany their Majesties next year in the Royal visit to Scotland, and to form a guard of honour. During the late alarms in London, this distinguished Regiment remained under arms for four successive days and nights in the Riding School, Fimlico, the officers and privates never changing dress or resting on a bed. They were subsequently introduced to her Majesty and most graciously received.

The 15th King's Hussars have left Nottingham for Birmingham and Coventry.

The 3d Light Dragoons have moved to Nottingham.

The 43d Light Infantry were to embark on Monday se'nnight at Gibraltar for England, This distinguished corps left Ireland in 1823.

Lieutenant Henry, of the 56th Regiment in this City, is appointed Aid-de-camp to his Excellency the Marquess of Anglesey, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Some of the London and Dublin Papers stated that Lord Glentworth, eldest son of the Earl Limerick, is appointed Governor of Botany Bay. This command has never been filled except by General Officers, and the present Governor is General Darling, Colonel of the 57th Regiment. We attach no credit to the statement.

The Earl Grey is eldest son of the late General Sir Charles Grey, who was Aid de-camp to Prince Ferdinand at the battle of Minden, and afterwards held a command in the American war.

The Magistrates of Galway have agreed to leave the appointment of sixteen Police Constables for preserving the peace of that town, to Major George Warburton.

A new writ will be immediately issued for the borough of Bandon, whose representation is vacant by the succession of Lord Viscount Bernard to his deceased father's title and estates.

A public meeting is called at St. John's Chapel in this City for to-morrow, to petition for Repeal of the Union.

The Election for the Borough of Tralee, commences this day—when Mr. Verner Smith, will be re-elected.

Mr. Commissioner Burrowes arrived in town from Tralee on Wednesday, and next day held a Court for relief of Insolvent Debtors in this district, when the following were discharged from the City—Michael Harty, Patrick Kirley, Daniel Hannan, John Herrigan, Denis Hannan, Michael Carmody, Philip Kirby, William Healy, Michael Dwyer, Michael Haugh, Pat. Teesy, Maurice Harnett, John Ryan, Patrick Shaughnessy, Isaac Floyd, Thomas Healy, Cornelius Kennedy, and Timothy Corbett. The petitions of Edmond Fitzgibbon and Edmond Welch are dismissed.

From the County were discharged Thomas Hanly, William Browne, John Molony, John Nash, and Jeremiah M'Mahon, none remanded.

This day Mr Burrowes sits in Ennis for the relief of insolvent debtors.

Forty-eight Insolvent Debtors were discharged at Tralee by Commissioner Burrowes, on Monday last, and the petitions of two were dismissed for concealment of property.

John Cox, Esq. Coroner, held the following three Inquests in this County, last week :—One on Saturday last, at Amigan, on the body of Timothy Flanagan—verdict, died of apoplexy ; and two on Monday last—one on the body of Michael Deely, near Rathcahill—verdict, found dead ; the other near Ashford, on the body of James Jordan, Clerk to Ashford Chapel—verdict, found dead, believed to have been occasioned by accidental suffocation.

At the Petit Sessions on Wednesday, the informations of Francis M'Namara, a working mason, were taken against three of the trade for assaulting him.

A report is in circulation that two men were killed near Tipperary last night.

Alpna, Lowden, London, coal, Naid, Berry, Liverpool, coals, Acorn, Heard, Newport, coals a

BIRTHS.

At Smyrna, on the 16th October the Rev. William B. Lewis, of the

On Tuesday last, at her father's house the Lady of D. R. Keane, Esq. survived a few hours.

At Touraine, the Lady of James daughter.

At Salt Hill, County Galway, Kearney, Esq. of a daughter.

In Baggot-street, Dublin, the Esq. of a son.

At Cork Barracks, the Lady of L Regiment, of a daughter.

At Erin Cottage, the Lady of Esq. of a son.

MARRIAGES.

At the Church of Kilsannel, Gabbet, Captain Gill, to Miss Bathkeale.

John Abbott, Esq. of Glasgow, to the late George Harden, of Temple

At Killenaule Church, William lyline, County Tipperary, to Catherine the late Thomas Hughes, Esq. of County.

In London, Henry William Colcoln's Inn, to Miss Isabella Manners his Grace the Archbishop of Canter

By the Bishop of London, the R Louth, to his cousin, the Honourable ter to the Hon Mrs Burton, and grand Dunsaney.

DEATHS.

At her house, Fitzwilliam-square, of Kilkenny, sister to the Bish

In Patrick-street, Francis, W. S. Fraser.

Suddenly, at Kinsale, R. N. late of this City.

William Bustred, Esq. In Dublin, Bridget, only daughter champ Colclough, Esq. of Baber wife of Allen Cameron, late Major and relict of Lieut.-Colonel W. King's County,

At Philipstown, William Scully, Esq.

Mr John Star, of Lower Ormond In Coleraine, the Rev James Dan

At Crosshaven, daughter of the late Thomas

Mrs Bushall, wife of James vanghan, and daughter of the late the Tipperary Militia.

In Bristol, Mr William Cornack. The Rev John Foley, Parish Priest

County Kerry. Ellen, eldest daughter

Esq. of Dublin, At Sligo, Mr. John Archbold, Clerk of the Peace for that County.

In Killarney, aged 73, Miss Letic

At Milltown, Mr Marcus M'Cart

Mr Edward Forrest, of Mardyke

In London, the wife of Sir William At Clapton, T. Nisbett, Esq. of

At Brighton, Caroline, wife of Li Royal Artillery.

At Acton, Colonel Peacocke, late In London, suddenly, Henry Lord Tullamore, M. P. and grand Charlottesville. At Nottingham, the mother of Carbineers.