

...s undertook
 ... (16 miles)
 ...d.
 ...estival dinner
 ...Wednesday last.
 ...enlivened the
 ...300 in hands
 ...nized by the
 ...eir inimitable
 ...Crozier, is in
 ...cal Profession
 ...rait on Lord
 ...g the objects
 ...re, is for sale.
 ...will be made
 ...popular feel-
 ...ins of Dwyer,
 ...e, some dozen
 ...We are per-
 ...ck, to mislead
 ...tradesmen of
 ...d propriety of
 ...ch in its result
 ...nvolve a crisis
 ...ions of excite-
 ...s mechanics of
 ...tality, for it is
 ...n to the living
 ...e, which poli-
 ...l. Our opinion,
 ...e account from
 ...ure, which has
 ...The Autho-
 ...repress tumult
 ...day of the des-
 ...other.
 ...ad in a dyke at
 ...ridge.
 ...corn-dealer,
 ...erdict insanity.
 ...the Rev. James
 ...urch, on Wed-
 ...am James Wall,
 ...to the office of
 ...of Kilrossenty,
 ...Meany.
 ...O'Connell, in
 ...r, had all been
 ...ackson, the bar-
 ...tal acknowledge
 ...and £1 from

to Agnes, youngest daughter of John Morrison, Esq.
 At Cawnpore, 4th July, Lieut. Daniell, Adjutant of Horse Art. to Lucy Anna, youngest daughter of the late Major Bristow, Brig.
 Major of his Majesty's Forces in Bengal.

DEATHS.

At Kilfinan, on the 1st of December instant, Mrs. Lourina Massy
 Devereux, relict of the late Robert Devereux, Esq, barrister-at-law.
 She was a Lady of superior intellectual endowments,—humane and charitable to the poor, who have cause to regret her. She relied only on the immortality of the Lord's promises and faithfulness as the hope of salvation, through the atoning blood and righteousness of the Lord Jesus.
 In Cecil-street, Elizabeth Waller, daughter of Francis Hewson, Esq. late of Garden-Hill, in this county, and youngest daughter of William Waller, Esq. formerly of Castle Waller, in this county.
 At Clareville, near Ennis, Mr. Daniel Powell, for many years an extensive, skilful and successful farmer, who in his numerous dealings sustained a character for unsullied honour and strict integrity.
 On Sunday night, at an advanced age, in George's-street, Cork, where he had arrived en route to Bath, the Rev. Charlton Brown, Rector of Kilmaccabea, Diocese of Ross.
 In Merrion-square, Dublin, in his 76th year, Richard Dease, Esq.
 of Firmount, county Kildare.
 In Baggot-street, Dublin, Mrs. Elizabeth Sheil.
 In the Royal Barracks, Mary, wife of Lieutenant John Hurford.
 Mrs. Murphy, mother of the Rev. James Murphy, of Denmark-street Chapel, Dublin.
 At Mr. M'Caul's School, Kingstown, Master Ponsonby Pratt, youngest son of the Rev. H. Pratt, Rector of Donagh.
 At Mallow, Anna, daughter of William Nicholson, Esq. of Mallow-street, in this City.
 Brigdet Sarah, only child of James Sarsfield Hill, of Barnhill, Kildare, Esq.
 At Clare Castle, much respected and lamented, the wife of Barrack Sergeant Midgley.
 At Knocklyon House, the residence of her son, Dr. MacDonnell, F.T.C.D. Susanna, aged 70 years, widow of Robert MacDonnell, of High Park, near Cork, Esq.
 At the residence of her son, the Rev. T. E. Gill, P.P. of Oranmore and Ballynacourty, Margaret Gill, aged 75 year.
 At Green Hills, Louth, daughter of Henry Osborne, Esq.
 At Thomastown, Fermanagh, Dr. Wilson.
 Mrs. Magee, relict of the late Thomas K. Magee, Esq. Surveyor-General of the Revenue.
 Mr. William Armstrong, of Westport, printer.
 In Cork-street, Dublin, Mrs. Esther Mary Spratt, mother of the Very Rev. J. Spratt, in the 65th year of her age.
 In London, Mr. Mathew Carroll, of Waterford, wine-merchant.
 In Hill-street, Berkeley-square, Major-General the Hon. Sir C.
 Greville, K.C.B.
 At his house, Grosvenor-place, Camberwell, Richard Boyman, Esq in his 90th year.
 At Camberwell, Emily Harriet Harding, in her 20th year.
 In Burton-crescent, the Rev. Wm. Dixon, of Yaldhurst, Hants.
 At Brighton, Philip Staunton, Esq. formerly an officer of the Hon.
 East India Company's Service on the Bengal Establishment.
 At St. Alban's, Lieut. H. W. Grey, of the 4th Foot, aged 50.
 Coote Carroll Nelson, Esq. Lieut. R.N. youngest son of Lieut.-
 General Nelson.
 At Bath, Mrs. Montgomery, eldest sister of the late Rev. Robert Montgomery, of Beanlieu.
 At Sidmouth, Captain Thomas P. Durell, R.N.
 At Glasgow, Margaret, relict of the late Rev. Dr. Couper, Professor of Astronomy, Glasgow,
 At Santa Cruz, of fever, Randal W. J. Birch, youngest son of the late Rev. George Birch, of Comber.
 At Jamaica, Mr. Robert Rennells, late of Plymouth, one of the stipendiary magistrates.
 At Nice, John Abraham Mason, M.D.
 At Lucknow, Ensign Charles Cornwallis Skelton, of the 47th Bengal Native Infantry, eldest son of Captain D. J. Skelton, late of the Royal Artillery.
 At Vellore, Lieutenant Duncan Charles W. Campbell, 9th Native
 Infantry, eldest son of Lieut.-Colonel C. S. Campbell, C.B.
 At Trichinopoly, Captain Philip Mandithon, of H.M. 54th Regiment,
 At sea, Assist.-Surg. Robert Power, Medical Department,
 At Grenada, West Indies, aged 47, John Stokes, Esq.

superb Frames, Chimney
 Organ, with three Ba
 The Implements co
 on the most approve quantity of Spades, R ing Pots, &c. &c. ;
 Casks, Barrels, and
 Liquid and Paste Bla
 The entire w
 JO
 70, C

AGRICULTURAL

36 OMAGH-

AT a Meeting of t
 of the Agricultu held at the Bank Hou
 W. F. M'CU

It was moved by W
 A. Walker, Esq. of
 That having the ut
 Agricultural and Con
 act in conformity wit
 payment of the Thir

W. F. M'Culloch,
 Buchanan, Esq. havi
 the meeting were vot conduct in the Chair
 the interests of the B (Signed)

CONVA

His Excellency
 John Boyse, se
 John Russell,
 Mrs. FitzGerald
 Dr. Thomas Ca
 Messrs. T. & F
 National Bank,
 William B. Ke
 Robert Saunde
 Archdeacon Fo
 Doctor O'Calla
 Sir Edw. O'Br
 Lady O'Brien,
 Mr. Cruise,
 John M'Nama
 Messrs. Caswe
 William H. Ha
 Michael Kear
 Fitzgerald & D
 Messrs. Todd
 Earl of Clare,
 Marquis of L
 Mrs. Gubbbin

December 7.