

ly, and I think it is better for us r courage to the sticking place on our own, unaided powers to ory out of a contest, to which I e are fully adequate."

another Correspondent, Dec. 3. to what you will find in the Star, in the North of Europe received by day, seem to agree in stating, that be expected to take an active part iers keep passing between St. Peter-n, Vienna, Copenhagen, Paris and an unusual degree of celerity. In the rcles it is asserted, that the Emperor borne incredible insults from his de-th the peace of Europe; and that iation which has lately been carry-aid before Parliament, it will place vernment in such a light as must alto-not infatuated or mad. Prussia, it be suffered to remain neutral! not d, like the southern states, offer to ulgence: this, however, is less cerrmer intelligence. Russia is recruit-nd fitting out its navy; and a milis been ordered for instructing the in all the necessary tactics required ood by infantry, cavalry, artillery,

It is not doubted here, that the ffador has quitted Paris, by this time, r days."

her correspondent we learn, that on e above letters, a Privy Council sat e of dispatches of importance receiv-Court of Vienna; and from the rapid ocks it was supposed that the intelli-e Continent was highly suspicious to and necessarily those of Europe. A ry current, after the breaking up of that Mr. Fox was immediately to be abassador to the Court of Peterburgh. great pleasure in having to mention activity of our defensive preparatipart of this Island, where the exerernment do not fall short, in every ent, to those so formidably displayed tain. A careful survey of the whole been made by the most intelligent ers, and in consequence many new have been formed, and the old ones e effectual. A correspondent informs eably to this plan, the town of which is contiguous to the Fort, is down, to prevent the possibility of availing himself of advantage through e. The improvements made also at commensurate to the importance of station. Indeed there could not be

LIMERICK, DECEMBER 10.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, has been eased, to approve of the Gentlemen who were omitted Licutenants of Divisions for the County Limerick.

Yesterday, one of the Assistants at the Butter Weigh-house was convicted before the Rt. Worshipful Mayor, for Counterfeiting the Inspectors Brand, in two casks of Butter, with an intent to defraud Mercantile House in this City, and for buying and selling said Butter contrary to Law;—he was ined Forty Shillings, and the Committee for super-tending the Butter Trade, immediately dismissed him from their employment.

MARRIED.—On Saturday last, at Churchtown, County of Cork, Villiers Perceocke, of Doonen, in this County Esq; to Miss Ellen Purcell, daughter to John Purcell, of High Fort, County of Cork, Esq.

DIED.—On Wednesday evening in Broad-street, much regretted, Mrs. Russell, wife of Mr. John Russell, Woollen Draper.

Prices of New Butter this Day 1803. 1043.
98s per Cwt.

PORT NEWS, Nov. 30.—Arrived the Albion, Lane, London, provisions.—Dec. 5: Lord Duncan, Daniels, do. do.;—Alert, Glasgow, Learn, wheat; Katty, Corry, Liverpool, oats and skins.

☞ A Pack of BEAGLES, of the very best Strain, to be sold, at the house of Mrs. Joice Gun, Ballyboonion, Tarbert. 4P Dec. 9, 1803

☞ Wanted a GOVERNESS, who must be a Protestant, and is to reside in the Country, none need apply whose character will not bear the strictest enquiry; apply to Mr. Watson.

N. B. Wanted on Unexceptionable Personal Security, £400—the Interest of which will be paid Half Yearly, in Limerick; apply to said Watson. (2) Limerick, Dec. 7, 1803

☞ Wanted a TRUMPETER, for the Small County Cavalry; enquire of Captain O'Grady, at Klballyowen. 3P Dec. 5, 1803

☞ Wanted at Interest, 1400l. solvent Security will be given; apply to DANIEL GABBETT, Esq; Attorney. Limerick, Oct. 19, 1803

TO BE SOLD,

A Fashionable Horse, which would answer for Gig or Chair—application to be made to George Drew, Patrick street.
Limerick, December 9, 1803

TO BE LET,

THE entire Lodgings of No. 13, Charlotte'squay: apply to Christopher Boland, Patrick-street.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL WINE, AND SPIRIT WA.

GEORGE'S QUAY, near BA

PETER CLEA

GRATEFUL for the past fahim, since his commenee begs leave to inform his friends a he has arrived to him this day a Teas, from the last India Sales, and Currants, &c. &c. also Ten Jamaica Sugar, which will be so Plain Congou Tea 5s. 6d. F Best do. 6s. 6d. Best Souchong Green 6s. 6d. Evening do. 10s. 0 per pound;—Best Jamaica Sug 11s. 6d. Third do. 10s. 10d. per Lump 15s. 1d. Second ditto 10 1s. 4d. per pound.

P. CLEARY, being determi article in the above line, at prices, he hopes no person wi being refused Credit; as he House opening Accounts in the cannot do justice to his Credit Himself; therefore the Cash m Market to advantage.

* * * An Apprentice, of ge wanted. 1P

BOTTLED PORTER

Of a Superior Q

ROYAL Stire and Golden Cider, of a most excell ready for sale at O'HOGAN Stores, adjoining his Establis posite Bridge-street, by the De

He is also well supplied with and Bottled Porter, all of wh cheap: Hours of delivery fro that, all commands will be tha at his Lodgings, over Mr. Jo Corner of Meat-Market-Lane.

He has also for sale in his Ar gany sideboard, breakfast gany and rush chairs; settee-c calico hangings; cupboard and feather beds; pier and dressing cheque window curtains; oak a variety of plated candlestick large kitchen table; multip with sundry articles of kitche

A large, scarce, and valuabl on surgery, physic, law, divi osophy, and all the various br a variety of framed and glaze some model of a man of war excellent Cots, and a few gal lamp oil. 1P Limeric

A REWARD OF TWE

Two fine Bre

MY property, branded o the initials of my name on the night of Sunday last, Dreghadarfaa; I will give