

of the barque, Mr. Henry Keane, the complainants. Plaintiff, said—This I emphatically instructions solely n, for though Mr. money in his pocket, rds Mr. Studdert. on, gentlemen, if he have acted suggestion made have had a covert re any man will ed other than the ited the Captain entire household a covert design I say they have tempting to make impeachable char, the good sense of he had the least would not have purpose? roll, Head Consta- box were examined gment of the court re considered most a case that involves high respectability, this county, and eat deal of evidence ully gone into, and a sides with ability. the evidence, and a that there can be Mr. Studdert, and charge. They are rroll, who brought in the yard with- d that Mr. Studdert when he gave up Before I sit down es present concur meed of praise to humanity, great that occasion, and ected with Kilkee a this most melan- effects the greatest have so promptly man Catholic cler- through their exer- the possession of he character of the said that Irishmen

At Catton, near Norwich, the Rev. George Coucher, of Botesdale, Suffolk, to Jane Sarah, daughter of Rear-Admiral Charles Sibthorp Hawtayne.
At Mussourie, Christopher W. Fagan, Esq. Bengal Civil Service, son of the late Major General Fagan, to Henrietta Emily, daughter of Col. Williamson.
At Calcutta, Captain W. O. Harris, 32d N.I. to Georgina, daughter of the late Don Marianno Castilla.

DEATHS.

Sunday last, at Hamilton Terrace, Glin, Martha, daughter of Dr. Thomas Enright, County Coroner.
Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. J. P. Evans, oil and colour merchant, William-street.
On the 8th inst. of a few days illness, at Rockwell, county Clare, Isidore D'Arcy, of Fisher Hill, county Mayo, Esq.
On yesterday morning, aged three years, Mary Elizabeth, the interesting and promising child of Mrs. Leicester Greaves, lace manufactory, Patrick-street.
At the Royal Hospital, Dublin, Frederick, fifth son of J. W. Macauley, M.D.
At Bayview Avenue, Launcelot Fisher, Esq. aged 82 years.
At North Frederick-street, on the 7th inst. in her 96th year, Letitia, relict of the Rev. John Jones, formerly Rector of Temple Harry, diocess of Killaloe.
At Greenville, King's County, William H. Marsh, Esq.
At Tralee, Lieut. Samuel Collis, R.N.
At her house, in Mallow, Catherine, relict of the late Joseph Ring, Esq. of Cork.
At Ardman, Skull, of scarletina, Robert Hungerford and James Hopper, sons of James Keene, Esq.
Maria, daughter of Captain James Wm. Harvey, late of Park House, Wexford.
At Whiteabbey, Catherine, wife of Richard H. Reade, Esq.
At Ballydavy, near Holywood, John M'Dowell, Esq. in the 78th year of his age.
At Belfast, Mr. Edward Cochrane.
In Newry, Mary Catherine, wife of John O'Hagan, Esq.
In Tuam, the Rev. Patrick Prendergast, R.C.C. Headford.
In Carlow, suddenly, Mrs. Philip Nolan.
At Seapoint Terrace, Monkstown, Alan, son of the late Frederick Beckford Long, Esq. Inspector-General of Prisons.
At Lower Mountpleasant-avenue, Margaret, daughter of the late Laurence Finn, Esq.
At his residence, James'-street, Mr. Richard Dempsey.
Charles Joseph, eldest son of Captain Byrne, Park-avenue, Sandymount.
Caroline Isabella, relict of the late Patrick Persse, Esq. of Spring-garden, county Galway.
In Carrick-on-Shannon, Launcelot Lawder, Esq. Distributor of Stamps for the co. Leitrim, and Collector of Public Cess.
At Sligo, Rebecca, wife of Doctor R. H. Wood.
Gowan Gillmor, Esq. of Ballyglass, one of the oldest grand jurors and magistrates of the county Sligo.
At Carrickacommon, county Cavan, Dawson Richard, son of the late Charles Coote, Esq. of Bellamont Forest.
At his residence, Daisy Hill, Clogher, Andrew Millar, Esq. late Captain and Paymaster in the Royal Tyrone Militia.
On the 5th inst. at Park-crescent, aged 74, Louisa, Marchioness Cornwallis.
Peter Nimmo, Esq. Depute Clerk of Session, Edinburgh.
At Chatham, Patrick Brodie, Esq. late Assistant Surgeon, 13th Light Infantry.
At Gaddesdenbury, Herts, Captain Hoare, R.N.
In Paternoster-row, John Goss, Esq.
In Albion-terrace, Canonbury, Mrs. Sarah Baker, aged 82 years, relict of James Baker, Esq.
In Grove-street, Hackney, the Rev. H. H. Norris, Rector of South Hackney, and Prebendary of St. Paul's and Llandaff, aged 80.
Mr. Thomas F. Jessep, Steward of Greenwich Hospital.
Captain Mathew Robert Grey,
At Glasgow, Mr. Fawcett, of the Caledonian railway.
At Umritsir, in the Punjab, George Forbes M'Leod, Esq. son of Major-General Duncan M'Leod, Bengal Engineers.
At Malta, Thomas Joshua Rutter, Esq. the Ordnance Store-keeper, one of the oldest English residents.
At Belle Vue, Cape of Good Hope, Edith Constance, daughter of Capt. Colin Campbell, 91st Regt.

JAMES M.
WILL sell by Unreserv
DAY next, the 1
Large Yard, Upper Cecil-st
FOREST AND ORNA
which will be sold in asso
and situations. This choice the celebrated Nursery of KILTANNON,
for convenience of sale, a lots by Michael Little, the
The lot will consist of 5000 Six year old
5000 Four do
5000 Five As
5000 Three d
4000 Six Be
2000 Poplar,
1000 Five year ol
3000 Do, L
4000 Three d
3000 Four So
3000 Four and F
50 Prime Apple
Also the following Ornam
Spanish Chesnuts, Horse
Hickory, Grafted Elms,
Sycamore, and several thou
The Forest Trees will be and the Fancy ones by the Terms at sale.
JAMES
26, George-st., Dec. 7.

MR. MARSHALL
Will hold his next Policy of
INTEREST IN B
Annuities, Rev
and al
Transferable
that ma
On THURSDAY, the 12
AT LIMERICK COM
for which early en
Mr. MARSHALL will,
&c., gratis, make liberal cription of property placed served Auction; give his sales entrusted to him (no
make immediate settlemen
OFFICE, NO. 96,