

that there is no to rescind the £20 due of the ve my voice for grant; with the en he put in the order being made.
are of—it in fact ar it.

ed without a dis-man Bodkin's reuch a manner, I ut forward mine, of the Roman Cay it.

from the council to the chair.

de-ation of tenders Old Town. Mr.
ctor on a division, er yard, though his n that of Mr. Wm.
o declared contrac-e Long-dock, at a otion for the first rial the Lord Lieu-Municipal Act, for Court of Quarter the trial of civil

Monday, the 19th.

ER 12.

gh, Commander of ley, her Majesty's r and the Colonies, onial office.

ment of Barcelona continues, and the urrender they will is rising en masse
the English ships ce.

geon, brought an nst the London and over damages for set of the train, in ber twelve-month, ed by the violent ound a verdict for orning of trial he r of £500.

upset on Thursday, l, by the fracture 30 miles an hour, unded as not to be
rs. Boyd of Ayles-ce dead.

of the Smithfield at the Freemason's l Spencer in the returning thanks for situation of life had they were responsi-nearly upset. Happily the open did not exceed a foot or so, else the consequences might have been disastrous. No damage was sustained.

In further corroboration of the unprecedentedly vast area of seed corn laid out at this side of Christmas, in the South of Ireland, we have to state that the blades of grass corn look most vigorous and healthy, giving early indication of a still larger crop of wheat in the next year, and there is anticipated a more plentiful harvest, generally, than we have had this season, all-sufficient as it was.

The wife of a respectable farmer, who had come in from the country on Monday, was suddenly taken with the pangs of childbirth, while walking George-street, and turning into the next medical gentleman's house, was very soon and safely delivered of a fine male infant.

On Monday morning about two o'clock, a fire was discovered in a bed-room at O'Brien's Hotel, William-street; the Constabulary under Sub-Inspector Williams, happily succeeded in extinguishing the flames before any damage was occasioned more than the destruction of a matress and bed curtains.

An inquest was held on Monday before the Mayor and T. P. Vokes, Esq. on the body of a young woman named Margaret Smith, found drowned on that morning at Meade's Quay. From the evidence adduced, it appeared that deceased was labouring for some time under frequent fits of insanity. A verdict accordingly was returned.

Major Priestly, K.H., Provincial Inspector, was for two days occupied at Killeacle, inquiring into the circumstances of Mr. Scully's murder, and has returned to Nenagh to investigate the nature of the outrages in that quarter.

Mr. Keefe, steward to Mathew Pennefather, Esq., was shot at and dangerously wounded on Friday evening, at Newpark, about three miles from Cashel.

Archibald Murphy, steward to Gen. Kearney, was fired at and wounded on the 8th instant, at Black-field, county Kilkenny.

Cullewaine, where W. Bergin was fired at and severely wounded, is on the estate of Henry Smith, jun., Esq., and not on the property of Dean Holmes.

One of the party that attacked the house of Slattery, pound keeper, at Ballywilliam, Tipperary, and fired at him, has been identified by the family, and committed for trial.

W. J. Gilbert, Esq. Poor law Commissioner, is appointed Auditor of the accounts of the Union comprising the counties Limerick, Clare, part of Tipperary and Kerry. He has fixed the 24th instant for auditing the accounts of this district.

Dr. Phelan, Assistant Poor Law Commissioner, inspected the medical department of the Newcastle workhouse last week, and expressed much satisfaction at the order, cleanliness, and regularity of the arrangements, under the superintendance of John Power, Esq. M.D.

Dr. Wayte, the Inspector-General of prisons, aided by the attendance of a Sub-Committee, held a second enquiry at the Carlow Lunatic Asylum to ascertain how far the remaining servants were implicated in the guilt of those who were dismissed, when circumstances were developed with reference to the profligacy of several persons in the institution, exceeding belief.

of the Crescent, Grand Cross of Cross of the Hanoverian order.

DEATH OF LORD

This melancholy event, which some time, we regret to state, day last. His lordship expired the morning, at his seat, Har-Shrewsbury. For some weeks had been confined to his room, been gradually declining. His have been unremitting in their and his last moments were cheer-of those who were nearest and

His Lordship was born August second son to the late Sir John store, who married Mary, one co-heiresses of John Chambre, which lady he had sixteen whom survived their mother. the army in the sixteenth year first commission was an ensign Regiment, subsequently Lieut-He proceeded to Toulon, and was de-Camp to the three successive ing there, namely, Lord Mulgrave, Sir David Dundas. His next company of the 53d, with which duty in Scotland and Ireland. He ous duty with the 90th at Gibraltar and had his full share in the campaign. Very soon after the from Egypt, the 90th was ordered Scotland to Ireland, and Colonel remittingly to perform his reguwas appointed Brigadier-General.
His principal stations in that co-way, and Fermoy; the inhabi-manifested their approbation of addresses. On leaving Cork he the freedom of that city. Early 1808, he embarked with his brithe army in England destined to and most of our readers are in pos-sion of the facts connected with his lordship.
At the battle of Talavera, General wounded on the head. His Majesty appointed him Colonel of the 95th the inhabitants of Shropshire column, a testimony of esteem.
May, 1814, General Hill was created of Hawkstone, and an annuity was voted by Parliament to his heirs male, with remainder to his His Lordship had a horse shot and his two brothers were In 1828 his Lordship was appointed Commanding in Chief of the Army at the Horse Guards which he served in successive ministries. His year, and is succeeded in his title by his heir, Sir Rowland Hill, Bart. which will consequently cause a discontinuation of the northern division.

There is no present intention