

At Stuttgart, Countess Caroline, daughter of R. G. Thomas, Esq. of Llanon, Carmarthenshire.

At Dacca, Lieut. Thomas Harmar Sibley, 62d Regt. B.N.I. Sub-Assistant-Commissary-General, to Marian Eliza, daughter of William Anley, Esq. of Calcutta.

At Sydney, Captain Augustus Frederick Jenner, 11th Regt. Major of Brigade, son of the Right Hon. Sir Herbert Jenner Fust, to Caroline Catherine, daughter of Major-General E. B. Wynyard, C.B. commanding the troops in Australia.

DEATHS.

At Innishannon, Anne, daughter of the late Robert Spread, Esq. of Ballycannon.

At Nuns' Island, Galway, Celia, wife of James Martyn, Esq.

At Millstreet, Matthew Rearden, Esq. aged 84 years.

In Killorglin, Kerry, on Sunday, Mrs. Frances Cunningham, at the advanced age of 107 years.

At Castlerickard, George L. Nugent, Esq. aged 88.

The Rev. Cornelius Downing, P.P. of Stradbally, Queen's County.

In Ennis, Mr. Anthony Greene, Victualler.

At Summerhill, county Meath, in the 16th year of her age, Maria, daughter of John Williams, Esq. of Dublin.

At Richmond Avenue, Margaret, wife of G. Whistler, Esq.

At Lower Gardiner-street, John Barlow, Esq. aged 73 years.

At College-green, Catherine, wife of Thomas Simpson, Esq.

On 28th ultimo, near Gravesend, Kent, of malignant scarlet fever, Barbara, youngest child of H. Comyn Staunton, Esq. of this City, aged 18 months.

In Huddersfield, Mr. George Rice, eldest son of the late Mr. John Rice, of Cork.

At Noel House, Kensington, Annie Maria, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Richardson Auldjo, Esq.

At Leamington, William C. Russell, Esq.

At Rochester, aged 81, David B. Lewis, Esq. town clerk.

In Howland-street, Lieut.-Colonel W. C. Lewis Bird, formerly of the 2d Bengal Native Infantry.

At his house, York Terrace, Regent's Park, Robert Abraham, Esq. F.S.A. in the 77th year of his age.

At Woolwich, Lieut. Dunbar, R.M.

At Wimborne, Dorsetshire, of apoplexy, Lieut.-Col. Thornhill, formerly of the 7th Hussars.

At Tarvin, aged 79, Sarah, relict of Mr. R. Littler, and aunt to Major-General Sir J. H. Littler, Deputy Governor of Bengal.

At Chambly, Edward Southouse Glen, Esq. late Captain in the 3rd West India Regiment.

At Montreal, Daniel Ward Eager, Esq. and James, only son of Mr. Thomas Leslie.

At Malta, on his way home from India, Sir Francis Ford, Bart. Captain in the 20th Regiment Bombay N.I. aged 32.

At Cape Town, Africa, on the 5th of October last, P. Leahy, Esq. Civil Engineer, late County Surveyor of Cork.

On the 8th inst. at his seat, Rockvale, county Clare, after a short illness, and with all religious consolation, Isidore D'Arcy, Esq. The sorrow of his family and friends is proportionate to his sincerity in friendship; his strict integrity in various relations, and warm-hearted benevolence, more valuable by the intelligence which accompanied it. Mr. D'Arcy was formerly in charge of the Limerick district under the old Irish Board of Stamps, for an interval of three years between the appointment of distributors; and many in our City still recollect his excellent qualities as a public officer.

On Tuesday, aged three years, Mary Elizabeth, the interesting and promising child of Mrs. Leycester Greaves, lace manufactory, Patrick-street.

Anna, wife of Marcus Jackson, Esq. governor of Waterford Penitentiary.

Mary, wife of Sampson Carter, jun. Esq. County Surveyor, Kilkenny.

At Ballydavy, near Holywood, John M'Dowell, Esq. in the 78th year of his age.

At Belfast, Mr. Edward Cochrane.

In Newry, Mary Catherine, wife of John O'Hagan, Esq.

At Gaddesdenbury, Herts, Captain Hoare, R.N.

In Paternoster-row, John Goss, Esq.

H O R S E

TO Sportsmen, Agriculturists, and all Proprietors of Horses, particularly recommended in all Cracked Heels, Loss of Appetite for Coughs, Colds, Fever or the best Medicine that can be given, their operation, though effectual, require no alteration of diet, a mash on Saturday night will ensure the ensuing week's regular work.

NEAT CATTLE

The Constitution Balls are recommended by many highly respectable gentlemen, for Cows and Oxen as a preventive in cases of Hove or Blow out to grass, or from bad food, Loss of Appetite, Staring Cough or Influenza. Bullocks fat more readily giving a Ball.

Prepared by

FRANCIS CUPP

Author of the "Prize Essay on the Liver of the Horse," Diss. No. 1, a respectable Medicine Vender's Packets, six Balls each, 3s 6d per giving full directions for the treatment of the Horse while living. Pamphlet of Testimonials from many who have used the Balls in various cases.

Any Gentleman using the Balls, the Proprietor gratuitously either by post or in person.

To be Sold

BY order of the Commissioners on SATURDAY, the 7th inst. at 2 o'clock p.m., at the Piccadilly, she now lies, the HOLLAND Revenue Cutter, late in the Royal Navy, in the possession of the Guard.

This Vessel is strongly built, Coppered and Copper Fastened, and has the attention of Shipowners, both in the Home and Foreign trade in particular, as capable of being employed in any service.

An inventory of her Stores, and of her Accounts, in relation to the Inspecting Officers, and at the Custom-houses of the several Ports, viz. Bristol, Liverpool, London, Cork, Limerick, Galway, and the Custom-house, Limerick, will be published on the 7th inst.

7th December, 1850.

FREDERICK THOMAS

JOHN W. TROTT

Dec. 11.