WICK—SATURDAY, DECEMBER 16.

Tragic Accident—This morning, about during a violent storm from S. S. E. chimney of Captain Hickman's house, roof was blown down; which, falling down, broke it in with a dreadful crash, down all the back-rooms to the ground. Captain Hickman's family, are and the other eighteen months old, and Mr. Hickman's servant, and an woman, named Mary Keily, their grand mother. The Cook was dug out of the ruins dreadfully, and there is but little hopes of her recovery. The poor old woman with the two children were killed. The parents of the children are now in England.

CHARITY SERMON.

A SERMON will be preached in St. John's Church, on Sunday next, by the Rev. JOHN FITZ-GIBBON, Vicar of St. John's, and Chaplain to the Right Hon. the Earl of CLARE, in aid of the Funds of the LYING-IN HOSPITAL.

The advantages of this Institution to the poor of this City, are now so well known and so justly appreciated, that it is unnecessary at present to say more to excite the benevolence of a humane public, than that unless a considerable increase to the funds be obtained, the doors of this Institution must be closed against many seeking for admission. Nearly Four Hundred and Fifty Women have been admitted into this House since 1st January last.

Donations from such as cannot attend the Sermon, will be received by Rev. JOHN FITZ-GIBBON, the Committee of Ladies, or by Rev. WILLIAM D. HOARE, Treasurer.
