

is fined for arresting a process, against whom an issued.

had mistaken her for recognizances were to prosecute Mary an affair of the bawd his usual force of ex- the enormity of the the severest reproach, wished rapacity which of fines by green wax in opinion with the gone before him, and es had been distressed collectors; but it ap- been clearly a mistake t there was no act of his assistants had been ton advised one party to accept compensation, e given to the woman, er confinement, which in a police house.

of the Earl of Meath, without opposition, one hire for the county of Luke Garniner, Esq; -After his Lordship's in a triumphal chair, ough various parts of d by his friends and a populace, to the Par- very part of this in- ived marked testimo- rd so justly due to his merits of his noble has assured us, that ears past—he has no n disorders as are at about this metropolis

e Ministers among the British Parliament for they were then under, inal Articles of the order to be entitled to imes succeeded in the consequence of Lord were defeated in the sequence of an oppo- l Bench. They per- sishops relented; and d successful in both ceasioned in the House pplication, the Arch- called the Dissenting lose ambition," Lord was judging unchari- brought such a charge —Here he paused; e Dissenting Ministers of close ambition — and their ambition is ge of Fishermen, not e doctrine of the in- e decrees of interested They contend for a ptural worship. We a Popish liturgy, and Reformation has laid Let not the Bishops in support of eccle- led for, which would etc. It is said, that great mischief, when restraint; but history cts have ever been were not oppressed ling church."

a General as any most dangerous commander the Brabantine re- volters could encounter.

By the election of Lord Ardee, administra- tion loses a vote in the House of Commons, which his predecessor would in all probability have continued to give in its support. Admin- istration cannot very well spare a vote at this time, but its additional strength in the upper House, will, it is expected, be sufficient to prevent the ultimate success of any great ob- noxious measure that may come forward.

Lord Henry Fitzgerald is confidently spoken of as the person who will represent this city in Parliament at the next election, in the room of Alderman Warren—two thirds of the inde- pendent electors have already declared in his favour—and indeed the young nobleman's own amiable qualities entitle him to the confidence of his fellow citizens.

While government are employed in pre- venting the exportation of grain they permit exportation of our fellow creatures, and those the most useful class of the community—Capt. Nugent's recruiting books will justify the assertion.

We hear with much pleasure, that one of the Twenty Thousand Pound Prizes, lately drawn, is the property of a much respected gentleman—Mr. Warren, of Corduff; to whose incumbered finances it will prove a welcome aid.

DIED. At his lodgings in Grafton-street, J. Maffey Dawton, Esq;—At Newry, in the 82d year of her age, Mrs. Ann Dick, relict of the late Quintin Dick, Esq; of Nenagh.—In Waterford, the relict of Mr. Robert Wade, cooper.—At his lodgings in Great Britain-street, William Hayes, late of Drominure, in the co. Tipperary, Esq.—On Monday the 14th inst. at Primrose-hill, co. Dublin, in the 86th year of his age, the Hon. John Butler, grand-uncle to the Earl of Lansborough.—In Dominick-street, James Moody, Esq; M. D.

IRISH FUNDS.
DECEMBER 19, 1789.

Bank Stock	153
Ditto Loan	106 10
Canal Stock	85
Ditto Debentures, with 5 per Cent Interest,	100 0 0
Exchequer Bills 1790, 3d per day	100 17 6
Ditto ——— 1794	104 0 0
Loan Debentures 3½ per cent.	94 12 6
Ditto 4 per cent.	100 0 0
Paving Debentures, 5 per cent.	105 0 0
Ballast Office Deben 4 per cent.	100 0 0
City Bonds, 5 per cent	105 15 0
Treasury Bills payable 1791	100 10 0
Ditto ——— 1792	100 15 0

IRISH STATE LOTTERY, 1789.

Twenty-ninth Day's Drawing.
No. 19,291, 10,000. No. 15,794, 1000.
No. 23,009, 100. No. 6,637, 20,002, 38,183,
35,691, 20l. each.

Thirtieth Day's Drawing.
No. 26,776, 1000. No. 32,142, 100l.
No. 12,230, 39,383, 20l. each.

Thirty first Day's Drawing.
No. 6,279, 9,595, 37,076, 100l. each. No.
29,694, 20l.

Thirty-second Day's Drawing.
No. 4,200, 21,742, 500l. each. No. 23,043,
23,698, 26,619, 30,895, 36,419, 36,719,
38,497, 20l. each.

Thirty-third Day's Drawing.
No. 2,270, 2000l. No. 22,624, 100l. No.
8,478, 30,794, 39,407, 20l. each.

There remain but 37 numbers to be drawn on Monday next, and among that number but one pize of 10l. and the last drawn, 500l.

the general prosperity, by giving an additional elasticity and vigour to national effort.

As the festival of the Nativity of the Divine Being is nearly at hand, who preached charity to mankind as his favourite precept, it is hoped that all those who can feel for the distresses of others, will recollect, at such a season, that numbers of poor creatures crowd our prison, who labour under all the hardships of hunger, cold and nakedness; and, under this impression, that the affluent will therefore exercise their humanity, to extend relief to the indigent.

The Dublin Medical Society have elected James Beehan, Esq; M. D. of this City, an honorary corresponding Member of said Society.

Last Tuesday, Andrew Sexton, Esq; of this City, was admitted and sworn an Attorney of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in this King- dom.

Last Thursday night, Counsellor Phillips's Coach-house and Stable, near Newport, were broke open, and thereout feloniously stolen a bay horse, three bridles and saddles, and the lining of a post-chaise cut out.

Saturday a young woman, an inhabitant of St. Francis's-Abbey, was choaked eating her dinner.

Saturday night John Crips, Esq's. stable at Cahirnarry, was broke open, and thereout sto- len a black Horse, two new Saddles, &c.—See Advertisement.

Yesterday, Robert Maunfell, Esq; one of the Bankers of this City, who had been near thirty years in India, arrived here to the great joy of his family and friends, as no man posses- ses a more amiable public or private character.

Last night a man of the name of Samuel Shankster, fell out of a turf boat lying at the long dock, while the tide was at the full, and was unfortunately drowned.

MARRIED. Last Saturday, the Rev. Mr. Pennesfather, to the amiable Miss Percival, daughter to William Percival, of Wilton, Esq.

DIED. On the 12th inst. to the inexpressible concern of all who knew him, at Lifficonner, near Dunmore, of a consumption, in the bloom of youth, Mr. Henry Ousley, third son of Ralph Ousley, of this City, Esq; a young man of uncommon gentleness of disposition, and who bore the several stages of a tedious illness with a fortitude and resignation that would do credit to riper years.—He was a son who "never gave a parent pain but when he died."

—Last Thursday, Mrs. Grady relict of William Grady, of Rahan, Esq;—Same day, most de- servedly lamented by a numerous acquaintance, Miss Madder, daughter to the late Rev. John Madder, of Newport, in the co. Tipperary.

SUCH Gentlemen as approve of the Establishing a MAIL-COACH between Dublin and this City, are requested to give their Names to an Application for that Purpose at the PRINTER's hereof.
Limerick, Dec. 21, 1789.

THE House, Offices, and Demesne of BALLINSCHOLA, as advertised in the Limerick Papers last Month, will be Set from the first Day of May next.

PROPOSALS to be made to DE COURCY O'GRADY, Esq; at BALLIN CHOLA, or Mr. HENRY MADDER, Limerick.
(1p) Dec. 21, 1789.

THE Nenagh Hunt are to meet on MONDAY the 4th Day of January next.
JOHN DROUGHT, Esq; PRESIDENT.
Such Members as do not Pay in their Subscrip- tion to the Treasurer on or before the tenth of January, cannot be longer considered of that Hunt.
M. O'MEARA, Treasurer.
(5p) Dec. 21, 1789.

Cahirnarry, 211

STOLEN of Instant, off the clever BLACK high, a Star on his locks white. I h Guineas to any Pe or Five Guineas for Limerick. Dec. (2p)

THE CRC St. STEPH usual. Dec. 21

M A

THE Bret are desire Tavern, Bridge- morning of Sund the Cathedral, wi in due Form, it b the Evangelist. the ensuing Day o'Clock; the Me requested previo Holland.
Dec. 21, 1789.

TO BE LE For such T

THE larg outside T Mr. JAMES GL its Situation, a also Let from th Years, the Lan Acres, in the W viz. 22A. 2R. 3 These Lands ar this City, and improved.
Proposals to MASON, or V of them, who w Tenants when

MAGAZI
This Day were

WALKE
vember Fortune Hunt of Becky and t Also, EXSHA Print of Miss Print of the Jewels to the Prints alone se

ALMA
At said W Almanack and Merlin, much tender, Dubli Duties; also t nacks, Pocket Memorandum

J. M E INFORM
Public that QUAY, oppo in OLD BOO PAPER, PEN PICTURES, BOOK Notice.—An