

Cherry, daughter of the late Colonel Greene, of Kilmanahan Castle, county Waterford, D.L. and niece of Brigadier General Parsons, C.B.

DEATHS.

At Anne-street, on Wednesday last, Mrs. Harte, relict of the late Redmond Harte, Esq. of this city, and formerly Surveyor-General of Excise. This lady was distinguished for her moral and religious virtues, and died the death of the righteous, without the least symptom of pain.

At Windsor Terrace, Kingstown, Elizabeth, relict of Tresham Gregg, Esq. formerly of Dublin.

At the residence of his son-in-law, Michael Burke, Esq. Cork-hill, James Beatty, Esq. M. D. of Enniskillen.

Sarah, daughter of the late Bradshaw Popham, of Spangle-hill, county Cork, aged 76.

At Audley-place school, Cork, Henry Knapp, aged 9 years.

At Waterloo, county Cork, Eliza Susan, eldest daughter of J. B. Thorndill, Esq. of Ballina, King's County, late Captain 91st Regiment.

Margaret, relict of the late Cornelius Cahill, Esq. of Rath-leasty, county Tipperary.

At Middleton, William Kenah, Esq.

The Rev. John Power, R. C. curate of Tramore.

At Honan's-quay, aged 13, James, youngest son of Mr. Michael Russell.

Sarah, relict of P. Knight, Esq. C. E. of Castlebar, daughter to the late Arthur Gambell, Esq. Surge-view, Erris.

Benjamin Kidd, eldest son of Osborne Kidd, Esq. Armagh.

The Rev. Richard Dill, of Ballykelly, Presbyterian minister.

On the 21st inst. at Mount Pleasant avenue, Anne Mary, the beloved wife of Mr. John Dillon.

At Lower Mountpleasant avenue, Harriott, relict of Galbraith Hamilton, Esq. Ballyfatton, county Tyrone, and daughter of the late Francis Marsh, Esq. Rathangan, county Kildare.

George Ashe, jun. Esq. Cliftonville, Belfast.

At Multifarnham, Walter Nugent, Esq. li. p. 6th Royal Regiment.

At Stephen's-green, South, Caroline, wife of John A. Baker, Esq. F.R.C.S.I.

At Londonderry, Eliza, wife of Mr. Wm. Graham, Methodist Preacher.

At Sandford-place, Ranelagh, Wm. H. Mullen, youngest son of the late Denis Mullen, Esq.

In Queen-street, of typhus fever, Nicholas Farrell, Esq.

In Essex-street, Mr. J. P. Bloxham.

Mrs. Augusta Sheil, wife of Mr. James Sheil, Upper Dominick-street.

At Harold's Cross, Mr. Daniel Kellett.

In the Hardwicke hospital, Police Constable John Kelly.

At Wimbledon, John Francis Scott, Esq. son of late John Scott, Esq. secretary to Lord Nelson at the battle of Trafalgar.

At Ebury-street, Eaton-square, Charles Long, Esq. late of her Majesty's household.

At Appleby-castle, Bethia Mary, daughter of the late Sir Wm. Elliott, Bart. of Stobs-castle, Roxburgh.

Michael Brunton, Esq. of Richmond, Yorkshire, aged 90.

In Cheltenham, Lydia, relict of Richard P. Harris, Esq.

At Devonshire-terrace, Camden-road, Ninian M'Morris, Esq. late Surgeon R.N.

At Saint Cross, the Rev. C. B. Bruce, rector of St. Cross cum Homersfield, county of Suffolk.

At Burnham, Norfolk, Sir Roger Martin, Bart.

At Hastings, Ann, widow of William Evans, Esq. Great Queen-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields.

At Chesham, Miss Mary Nash, aged 80.

At Craven-hill-gardens, Marian Helen, relict of Captain Edward Stopford, R.N.

At Boulogne, Capt. Maxwell, R.N. of Harley-street.

Suddenly, at the Quirinal Palace, Rome, Monsignor Castellani, O.S.A., while in conversation with Cardinal Wiseman.

At Scutari, from a wound received in action at Inkerman, Lt.-Col. John George Champion, 95th Regt. eldest son of the late Major J. C. Champion, 21st N. B. Fusiliers.

In camp before Sebastopol, Lieut. Donald G. C. Maclachlan, Royal Artillery, eldest son of Dr. Maclachlan, Physician, Royal Hospital, Chelsea.

At Wynberg, Cape of Good Hope, William Musgrave, Esq. First Puisne Judge of the Supreme Court in that colony.

In Melbourne, Australia, Christina Watt, wife of Charles W. Siewright, 7th Royal Fusiliers.

At Sydney, George, youngest son of Thom Palmer, Dublin.

At Kandy, Capt. D. Meaden, late Ceylon Rifles.

PATRIOT

BROADFORD PETT

IN accordance with O'BRIEN, Bart. Lieut we hereby request a Meeting of the Farmers, and other Inhabitants of the Petty Sessions District of Broadford, on MONDAY, the 23rd inst. at 12 o'Clock, for the purpose of receiving contributions to the Patriotic Broadford, Dec. 23.

To For such Term THE FARM

WITHIN Four Miles County Limerick and Three Acres Plantation The Land is in good husbandry the exception of 3 Acres It is well adapted for Agriculture Application to be made to the Rev. Mr. Mayne House, Newcastle

THE Undersigned at their Stores, Howland arrived from Newcastle very best Wallsend Coals Also from the "FANNING" Cargo of first class Coals Coals, Price 25s per ton These Low Prices for named to save the expense and will be advanced up Apply to

Ryan Brothers Office, I

Valuable Sa

RIVER

TO be Let, for such term not exceeding 10 years FISHERIES of BURTON of Clonderlaw in the County of Wick occupied by WILLIAM Hodges, and Mrs. Sturges Wm. Maunsell Reeves,

It is well known that there is at present no better sites for the erection of fixed Engines for the purpose of progressive improvement of the Limerick district, or any other part of the County, than those Fisheries highly situated on the River. Proposals in writing may be had of MAUNSELL REEVES, Esq. who will duplicate to JONAS STURGES, Esq. of Corofin, county Clare.