

... R. N. is appointed by the Bridge Commissioners, who have their officers for vending spirituous liquors. late Acting Collector of Galway, has ren, having resigned the charge of that post the Collector, who has returned from his duties.

... a soldier, named J. Coffey, belonging to, stationed at O'Brien's Bridge, was that village and Killaloe. It appears at a late hour from the letter placed E, when, by some unaccountable accident, back drain, where, before any assistance ed, he perished.

... of Mr. Voke's mounted Police arrived two men, named James Cronen and who were taken last night under his watch of having way-laid and murdered Charles Carragh, on his return from the Fair at Cronen was apprehended near Ballynorth, appagh.

... Fleming, returning from a funeral at County, was found dead on the road, on night, having perished, it is thought, from of the weather. Another person in his difficulty recovered.

... dshaw, Esq. of Gambonstown, was attacked by a number of ruffians on the road near Fethard, on g, but having got assistance from a neighbor, one of the assailants was severely punished, the others escaped.

... Jeremiah Dwyer, of Gurteen, near Donough, murdered a few days ago at the fair of a number of women. The unfortunate female was in a pregnant state.

... on Monday, a man of the name of was killed with a blow of a stone on the head, by a party of ruffians.

... of Friday last, Serjeant Edward Cran-Jackson's Police, stationed at Kilsinnan, apprehending John Quin, for stealing the property of Patrick O'Dea, of Glin, in the county of Kerry. The mare is in the possession of the thief in custody.

... Knockaderry, held on Monday, exhibited a fine view of stock that was ever seen together: at least, the cows and heifers were only a few of every description exceedingly below the average. About the hour of three o'clock, two bulls appeared on their respective positions, and came into contact, but were suddenly frustrated by a strong counterparty force from the other side. On reading the Riot Act, and the necessity of aiming and loading being permitted, the bulls withdrew from the field. It is to be regretted that the barbarous and inhuman system of way-laying persons have, of late, been unmercifully resorted to, and severely acted upon, in the town and neighbourhood of Newcastle.

... he would furnish me with his true name, in order that I may direct the answer to him "in veritate," as I am inclined to think that Veritas is only a "Nomen simulatum." Hoping, therefore, that this may meet the eye of Veritas, and trusting that you will give it insertion in your Chronicle. I am, Sir, yours truly obliged, WILLIAM CHADWICK NELIGAN.
