

In Pont-Auxoise, (twickenham) Joseph Chappell Woolnough, R.N. and K.H. of a daughter.
 At Richmond, the Hon. Lady Sussex Lennox, of a son.
 At Ramsgate, the Countess of Kinnoull, of a daughter.
 At Arthingworth, Northamptonshire, the Hon. Mrs. Charles Heneage, of a son.

DEATHS.

In Bishop-street, Dublin, aged 89 years, Miss Weld Cunningham, daughter of the late Alexander Cunningham, Esq. Surgeon-General to Dublin Castle.

At his residence in Stephen's-green, Major George Doherty, 27th (Inniskilling) Regiment, only son of Colonel Doherty, late of the 13th Light Dragoons. He was a Knight of Hanover, and served through the whole of the Peninsular campaign to the battle of Waterloo, on which memorable occasion he was severely wounded.

In Dublin, at the Community of the Sisters of Charity, Mary, eldest daughter of Stephen Roche, of Killarney, Esq.

On the 29th instant, at his son-in-law's, Mr. William M'Cormack, Cahircconlish, Mr. Daniel Shea, aged 83, an upright honest man.

In Cork, John Bullen, of Roughwood, Kinsale, Esq.

In Patrick-street, Cork, Mrs. James Healy.

At Ballyshannon, after a tedious illness, Simon Sheil, Esq. M.D.

At Kilfiera, near Kilkee, after a tedious illness, which he bore with exemplary resignation, Mr. Patrick Kean, aged 73 years.— in all the relations of life he upheld a dignity of conduct which secured general respect.

In Ennis, Miss Mary Wilson, daughter of the late Mr. J. Wilson.

At Mullinahone, county Kilkenny, Mr. Richard Phelan.

At his house in Church-street, Dublin, on Christmas morning, Mr. Thomas Ennis, aged 63 years.

At Killileagh, county Down, aged 27 years, Lieutenant Pinkstown Blackwood, of the Royal Navy.

Near Ballygawley, Stewart Mulligan, Esq. for many years Coroner for the county Tyrone.

At Queen-street, London, in the 57th year of her age, Mrs. Berry, relict of the late John Berry, Esq.

Suddenly, at Beldoyle, Surgeon Mark Thompson, R.N.

Lieut. F. De Butts, R.N. second son of Major General De Butts, R.E.

At Rutland-square, Dublin, William John Moore, Esq.

Ellen, wife of Mr. John Lee, of Abbey-street, Dublin.

At Erne Hill, county Cavan, Rosamond, youngest daughter of George M. Knipe, Esq.

John Ridgeway, Esq. at his residence, Ballydermott, King's County.

At sea, Mrs. Atherton, wife of Captain Atherton, 6th Regiment.

At Skahabeg, Mary, relict of the late Mr. Becher Skinner, of Cork.

Charles Roberts, Esq. of the Excise-office, Broad-street, London.

At Beddington, Surrey, Maria, eldest daughter of Colonel Sir Alexander Anderson, aged 17.

At the Hermitage, near Frodsham, Cheshire, Charles Baldwin, Esq. formerly Lieutenant-Colonel of the King's County Militia.

At Portsmouth, Lieut. Dover Farrant, of Royal Marine Artillery.

At Brighton, Prince Hoare, Esq. aged 80.

At Taunton, Somerset, in her 60th year, Sarah, wife of Lieut.-Colonel Barrow, late of the 69th Regiment.

At Epping, Ann, the widow of the late M. Arrowsmith, Esq. and formerly the widow of the late William Andrews, Esq. of Chelmsford, solicitor, aged 71.

At Uxbridge, Mary, eldest daughter of William Hull, of the Society of Friends.

Elizabeth, the Lady of Lieut.-General Darroch, of Gourock House, near Greenock, and daughter of the late Rev. George Sackville Cotter, of Youghal.

At Florence, Captain Ferdinand Thomas Williamson, late of his Majesty's 73d Regiment, eldest son of the late Rev. Thos. Williamson, Rector of Stoke Damerell, Devonport, and nephew of the late Sir Hedworth Williamson, Bart. of Whitburn, Durham.

Flora Elizabeth Heathcote Lindsay, eldest daughter of the Hon. Charles R. Lindsay, of the Hon. Company's Civil Service, Bengal.

At Kulladgee, in the Presidency of Bombay, Ensign R. J. Holmes, Interpreter 26th Regiment N.I. son of N. Holmes, Esq. of Derby.

At Meerut, Ensign Bernard, 26th Regiment.

PRICES OF IRISH STOCKS—DEC. 30.

Bank Stock	—
Irish Three per Cent. Consols	—

our Harbour; con-
 sion of our cor-
 employment of o-
 City.

A Representati-
 than my esteemed
 Should it be your sure, rely upon
 concord in opinio
 public interests, themselves. But that the more pro
 more dignified an
 and the more fair
 aspire to your fav

Hoping you wi
 enemy to abuses
 paramount one, c

I have, the h
 Your

Limerick, Geo

MR. D. RO

M, insertion

40

TO JAMES D.

AND SECR

WE, the un

the Subsc

as possible, to

business connect

Denis O'Flahe

Matthew O'Fl

John D. Quai

James Barry,

John O'Flahe

PURSUANT

ing of the

at two o'Clock

JANUARY, 183

Tuorine 30th

THE LON

To the

WELL, M

Member

Projectors, to

Money, have appears by the

is J. R. Todd,

the Agent of t

Where is now